The Oregonian in speaking of the ability and tact with which Albert Abraham and W. W. Cardwell defended the Pools and Case, who were indicted for holding up and robbing the United States mail in Cow Creek canyon last July, speaks of their efforts as masterpieces of argument and oratory. Albert Abraham is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Sol. Abraham of this city and our citizens feel considerable pride in hearing of Albert being so highly eulogized by the Portland papers. Douglas county has turned out quite a number of distinguished men and more are coming. Able is a rising star.

TELEGRAPH NEWS

Convicted.
PORTLAND, Dec. 25.—James Pool and John Case were convicted in the United States court yesterday of holding up the S. P. mail train July 1, 1895, on charges in the indictment. Albert Pool, brother of James, was acquitted.

A Junta Organized.
NEW YORK, Dec. 24.—A local paper says:
Members of the Porto Rican revolutionary party, who have organized a junta to work in conjunction with the Cuban junta are purchasing arms and fitting out an expedition. The organization of the party and the junta has met with the approval of Porto Ricans in this city and elsewhere, who realize that a decisive blow can be struck for liberty now that Spain's energy is devoted to quelling the insurrection in Cuba.

It was positively learned last night that Senor Estrada Palma, on behalf of the Cuban junta, has entered into a compact with Dr. J. Julian Henna, president of the Porto Rican revolutionary party, whereby both parties will co-operate in aiding the cause of Cuba and Porto Rico. President Henna acknowledged that he had been in consultation with Senor Palma and that steps will at once be taken to assist the people of Porto Rico, who are anxiously waiting the signal to rise.

A meeting of the members of both the Cuban and Porto Rican juntas will be held at the Cuban headquarters, when a plan of campaign favorable to the Porto Ricans will be decided upon. The Cuban junta realizes a powerful ally in the war against Spain.

With the development of an insurrection in Porto Rico the efforts of the Spanish to put down the war in Cuba will necessarily be weakened and troops will be sent from the island of Cuba to Porto Rico.

For months past the revolutionary Porto Ricans in this city have been corresponding with the leading revolutionary spirits in the island, and President Henna said today that 30 towns had been heard from whose inhabitants are ready to revolt when the proper time comes. He said:
"We address communications also to our general delegate, Dr. Ramon Bectance, who is also agent for the Cubans in Paris, and to other prominent Cubans and Porto Ricans abroad who are eager to free Porto Rico. From them we received great encouragement and proffers of assistance. They forwarded me documents of endorsement, I realize that a few men have no right to force a revolution, even in the cause of liberty, but our people are awaiting only for leaders, and revolution is what the people want. Our plans are maturing. Cuba's success means Porto Rico's triumph. We will aid Cuba and she will aid us. When we are prepared for battle, our people rise, armed with guns and ammunition sent from this and other countries."

Havana Threatened.
HAVANA, Dec. 24.—The insurgent army is now only about 50 miles from Havana and the Spanish authorities seem entirely to have lost their heads. At this rate the insurgents will be in front of Havana possibly by tomorrow if they have obtained control of the railroad from here to Matanzas, which seems not impossible, as they were only a few miles from Matanzas when last heard from, and moving rapidly westward.

Campos Out-Generalized.
HAVANA, Dec. 24.—Gomez and the insurgent army have turned the flank of the Spanish forces commanded by General Campos in person at Colon, and are now well to the westward of that place, threatening a quick movement upon Havana. This news from the front created the greatest consternation here.

Canadian Lake Steamers.
NEW YORK, Dec. 24.—A special from Toronto says:
Commercial interests were disturbed today over a telegram from Ottawa that the government is negotiating with owners of lake steamers, which can be converted into cruisers, to place their vessels at the disposal of the authorities in the event of war. Preparations are being made to place guns on the boats tied up at ports, and gunners under schooling at the fort.

The Train-Robbery Case.
PORTLAND, Dec. 24.—Late yesterday afternoon all the testimony in the case of the government against John Case, James Pool and Albert Pool was concluded in the United States court. Judge Ballinger allowed the attorneys for the prosecution and defense four hours in which to argue the case—two hours to the side. At the evening session the argument for the prosecution was opened by Mr. Lockwood, who spoke for a short time. He was followed by Albert Abraham for the defense, who rapidly but concisely reviewed the testimony. On the concluding of the court this afternoon, Attorney Abrahams addressed the jury, concluding his speech. He was followed by Mr. W. W. Cardwell, senior counsel for the defense. The effort was a most creditable one in behalf of the defendants, the speakers reviewing the evidence in a clear and concise manner, and forcibly and eloquently summing up the case and concluding with a strong appeal for the prisoners, United States District Attorney Murphy concluded in behalf of the prosecution. He was allowed only 45 minutes in which to close the case, but he made good use of his time, going rapidly over the more salient points in the testimony, and, in a masterly manner, summing up the case. He made a strong presentation in behalf of the government.

At the conclusion of the argument, the court took a recess until 1 o'clock, when the charge to the jury was delivered.

A Huge Blunder.

NEW YORK, Dec. 24.—A dispatch to the Herald from Vienna says:
The conviction is gaining ground here that President Cleveland has committed a huge blunder. The comments of the press are becoming more severe, especially since the "Krachs" on the Vienna bourse, which resulted from the president's message. Not a journal in Austria takes the side of Cleveland.

"When we consider the sympathy formerly felt in Europe with the United States, it is considered that a grave error has been committed at Washington. I fear it will be a long time before the effect is produced which will disappear." Such is the opinion of an Austrian diplomat.

It is said that this opinion is shared by Count Kalnoky and Golushovsky, whose sympathy with England are well known. The comic papers do not spare Cleveland, and are full of jokes and cuts in which the message is ridiculed.

America For Yankees.
NEW YORK, Dec. 24.—A dispatch to the Herald from Valparaiso says:
The Chilero, a conservative journal, published in Santiago and widely read, discussed President Cleveland's message in an editorial. It says that the Monroe doctrine does not mean America for Americans, but America for the Yankees. In further discussing the subject, it vigorously criticizes the United States for interfering between Peru and Bolivia, and says that Chile was unjustly humiliated in the settlement of the trouble growing out of the difficulty between Chileans and sailors of the United States cruiser Baltimore. It compares these things with the treatment that the country has received from England, which, it says, has always been friendly.

A Christmas Present.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 24.—The senate today passed a Christmas present to the south, as Hill aptly characterized the bill repealing the proscriptive disabilities, passed at the close of the war, against the service of ex-confederates in the United States army or navy. The passage of such a repeal without a dissenting vote in a senate having a republican plurality and with northern senators taking the initiative, lent a gracefulness and significance to the action in marked contrast with former controversies in congress. The southern senators, with the exception of Daniel, took no part in urging the repeal, and several of them, including Wallhall and Cockrell, who served in the confederate army, voted for a postponement by reference to a committee. But with such champions on the republican side of the chamber as Chandler, Hawley and Platt, and on the democratic side as Hill and Voorhes, the repeal was readily accomplished. In the two hours given to speeches on the measure, there was the fullest expression of a desire to bury war animosities. The senate did little beyond debating and passing this bill.

Religion.
Ensign Wimmer of God's Regular Army is holding nightly meetings at his barracks on Jackson street, which are quite largely attended by old and young. Some attend out of devotional feelings and some out of idle curiosity and some to see and hear what is said and tone, apparently for purposes of gossip, and some, possibly for ridicule. If, out of all who flock there for whatever purpose, only a few shall be induced to lead better lives, the labor of Mr. and Mrs. Wimmer and their co-laborers will prove beneficial. One thing is certain, unlike our local clergy, they carry their message to, and plead to, sinners to come and hear what God has done for them and join the army of the Lord.
