IN MEMORIAM.

Among the "dates to be remembered" found in the New Year's edition of the Roseburg Review is the following:

"August 1. Mrs. Langley Hall, pioneer of '53, died at her home east of Oakland."

Only two lines in a newspaper's column, but who shall measure the space it occupies in the hearts of those who knew and loved her.

"In some far away land the twilight lingers longer than with us; the evening glow pauses upon the hill tops, lies lovingly upon sea and shore, fades slowly and is lost in starlit night." So was it ordained that her life should pass into a sunset beauty that softened and mellowed with a touch of the divine in all things it shone upon. Her dear, aged face, that the passing years had touched so lightly, seemed transfigured as she watched the light of earth's sunset. Watched she the fading light alone? I think not. Often for her the gates of the New Jerusalem must have been in those clouds of glory, and her heart been full of the joy she looked for. Who shall say she saw not sometimes in her musings, the tiny girl in dear, old England, going to school and making glad the hearts about her, and then the light-hearted English maiden who there found her early love and, later started with him forth upon the long life journey. They "climbed the hill together" most time in sunshine, sometimes in the shade. Many children came to bless their home, and the house was filled with laughter. Her room was the heart of the household, and a great heart it was. Stranger and friend came to her for comfort and care. Did her patience and sympathy never fail? Was there a store sufficient for all it demands upon it? If it failed none ever knew. There was small time for work outside the wide home circle. Who will say her influence was less great and less far reaching?

The years passed on and crowned her face with white roses. The golden wedding came and went. After the gathering twilight night came one. Her room was bright with the sunshine and all that loving hands could offer, and I think that we did not quite realize that God had left with us one of his own, until her chair was empty and the blessed presence had passed into a blessed memory.

The resurrection song was in the air when the twilight for her had ended, and she lay in eternal sunshine. A rare and wondrous legacy did she bequeath to us to whom was given to know and love her. An ideal she gave us, a star is set in our firmament to guide us ever upward. It is an ideal of unselfish, beautiful womanhood, of trusting, simple faith, of high hope and patient endeavor. God help us to move toward the star, to keep always in our hearts its golden gleaming.

Oakland, January 4, 1896.

TELEGRAPH NEWS

A Stubborn Fight.

CAPE TOWN, Jan. 6.—It is learned that after Wednesday's fight Dr. Jamieson's column, containing originally about 700 men, moved southwards, fighting hard all the way throughout the night, and eventually reached Viakvontais, six miles from Johannesburg, Thursday morning, when the column was completely surrounded by 4800 Boers. In spite of this, Jamieson's followers fought stubbornly until noon, when all their cartridges were exhausted. In addition they had not tasted food for 24 hours and were worn out, but the white flag was not hoisted by Jamieson's orders. It is known Jamieson expected 2000 Uitlanders to join him at Krugersdorp.

The Dutch press is jubilant at this lowering of British prestige, and advocates the incorporation of "Rhodesia" with the Transvaal republic.

The news that Hon. Cecil Rhodes, premier of Cape Colony, has resigned is confirmed. It is not known if his resignation has been accepted by the governor, Sir Hercules Robinson.

Bonds Issued.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—The announcement last night that the secretary had asked for bids for a bond issue of $100,000,000, was a surprise to the subordinate officials of the treasury department. It is probable no one here but the president, and probably Secretary Olney, knew of Carlisle's intention. Indeed, it is believed a conclusion was not reached until late yesterday afternoon.

The new bonds will not differ in any respect from those issued to the syndicate, and will be printed from the old plates.

Persons well qualified to judge of the result of the issue, do not look for large subscriptions from private individuals, and the opinion is expressed that the syndicate's bid for the entire issue will be accepted.

His Loss Heavy.

LONDON, Jan. 6.—The governor of Natal, Sir Walter Francis Healey Hutchinson, telegraphs, upon Beor authority, that 130 of Jamieson's followers were killed, and 37 wounded. On the Boer side, it is added, three were killed, and five wounded. The statement cabled that Dr. Jamieson had been released from custody at Pretoria is officially stated to be without foundation. All sorts of rumors are in circulation, due to the delay in receiving accurate news from Cape Colony.

It is reported the British government is hurrying troops from India to Cape Town, but there would seem to be no necessity for such a step, as a concentration of military forces from other British African colonies could be quickly made there if necessary.

The City of Havana.

HAVANA, Jan. 5.—Havana has passed a day of nervousness and anxiety, and has been in hourly apprehension of an attack by the insurgent army, or a part of it. Yesterday, the bands commanded by Nules and Bermudez were seen at Manzanillo, a village not more than 12 miles from Havana. It must not be supposed that the city is open to the advance of the insurgents, or that there are any of the borders to offer resistance. There has been no overt act of defiance of the authorities within the city, and there have been numerous voluntary offers to bear arms in defense of the city—thousands of them, the authorities say—but there has been a comfortable conviction in the minds of the residents of Havana from the beginning of the insurrection that they were in no real danger of molestation from the insurgents.

Many hundreds of noncombatant inhabitants of the island have come to Havana to await the passing of the storm. Still more have sent their wives and families here as a safe refuge. This class of the population is in a state of consternation and dismay, and spreads an infectious spirit of panic through all other circles.

The authorities no longer make the slightest concealment of the serious views they take of the situation, and there are some who do not hesitate to rail at the Spanish generals and the troops, and make bitter criticisms of them.

The whole island outside of the city of Havana is now in the hands of the insurgents. They have not annihilated the Spanish forces, nor have they routed the whole army in any single pitched battle; yet the situation is practically in their hands, and so completely have they outgeneraled the Spanish that, to all appearances, Martinez Campos' army might as well be in Spain for any check it has upon the movements of Gomez' army.

Within Fifteen Miles of Havana.
TAMPA, Fla., Jan. 5.—An American passenger from Cuba reports that the insurgents are within 15 miles of Havana. According to his statement, Gomez has 22,000 men. The insurgents burned San Felipe, Duran, Melina del Sur and Guara Friday night. These places are 20 miles from Havana.

General Campos has issued a manifesto to his officers ordering strict obedience to his orders and threatening those disobedient with dishonorable return to Spain within 48 hours.

At Johannesburg.

LONDON, Jan. 6.—Delayed dispatches from Johannesburg arriving today show that Tuesday last there was intense excitement there, people hurrying into town from the mines and outlying country. The central committee constituted themselves a provisional government for the town, and announced that ample provision would be made to defend it against any body of Boers.

The provisional government established itself in the consolidated gold field building and three Maxim guns were placed in advantageous positions about it. The new government then sent an ultimatum to the government of President Kruger, who proposed a conference at Pretoria the following day, Wednesday. The committee hesitated to go to Pretoria without a conduct, and Dr. Jamieson at that time was hourly expected at Johannesburg.

Crowds surrounded the consolidated gold fields building and the work of recruiting was in full swing. Numerous people left town during the night in bands of 50 each.

Later the committee sent the following communication to Sir Hercules Robinson, governor of Cape Colony: "We have absolute information that a large body of Boers have been commanded to immediately attack Johannesburg and shoot on sight all who have been concerned in the agitation. Affairs are so critical that we ask you to intervene to protect the lives of citizens, who have long agitated legally for their rights."

Meddlesome England.

The English government by her policy of self-aggrandisement is calling down upon her the protests of other governments. The encroachments that government is making in various quarters has aroused the opposition and condemnation of fair minded people in every quarter of the globe. England's encroachment upon Venezuela is an index of her policy more marked and determined. So much so that the United States has vigorously condemned it and the president voicing the sentiment for the people has reiterated the Monroe doctrine. It was said of old: "whom the gods would destroy he first makes mad."

England has become so intoxicated with power that she has become super-aggressive. She has laid claim to disputed territory in Venezuela, Alaska and South Africa and refuses to submit her disputed claims to arbitration, determined, by the force of her assumed superiority, to force weak governments to accede to her claims. But she has aroused the ire of freedom loving people in every quarter, and a general protest is sounded all along the line.

Schilling's Minstrels.

Lovers of minstrelsy will welcome the return of Schilling's Minstrels to the Roseburg Theater, Friday evening, Jan. 10th. Mr. Schilling claims that his company this season is the strongest he has ever carried and as he has always had a good company, something extraordinary may be looked for. He certainly has in Lew Spencer, Billy Carroll, Frank Hammond and Eugene Everett, a list of comedians hard to equal, and in the olio of novelties, the Brothers La Rose, the great English acrobats, Kinzo, the Japanese juggler, and Carroll and Neely, the India rubber twins, are a show in themselves. The first part settings and draperies and the costumes worn by the company in this part of the entertainment are the finest ever seen in this city with an organization of this kind.
