

BRIEF MENTION.

From Friday's Daily.

E. Winston of Winston is registered at the McClallen.

A. Ziniker and G. Grader of Creswell are registered at the Van Houten.

E. E. Palmer of Scottsburg and E. G. Trobridge are at the Van Houten.

H. C. Webster, G. J. Rommg and P. G. McCarter are registered at the McClallen.

The Umpqua are on a moderate tender today, but no serious damages are reported.

Clinton Fitzhugh of Lewiston, Mon., a son of ex-Judge J. S. Fitzhugh, is visiting his father in this city.

The boys of the city are preparing a gymnasium at the Grange hall and in a few days will organize a gymnasium club.

After all, there is a fair prospect that Sam Brown may be present at his own hanging on the 31st instant, as advertised.

Geo. W. Woodruff of Greys Harbor is visiting his relatives and friends in Coles Valley and old acquaintances in the city today.

The city was all agog this morning over a rumor that Sam G. Brown has been seen in the vicinity of Wilbur. The sheriff with a posse have gone in search of him.

Mr. Geo. Petrequin received the sad news this morning of the death of his sister, Minnie, at Kansas City, Mo., the 4th inst., and was taken to Detroit, Mich., for burial.

Charles Nickell of the Jacksonville Times and Ira Campbell of the Eugene Guard, have left for St. Augustine, Fla., where they go as delegates to the National Editorial Association.

E. H. Merrill and John Osborne caught a sturgeon Monday near The Dalles that weighed over 600 pounds. When dressed the fish weighed over 300 pounds, the head alone weighed 125 pounds.

Robert Walters, who lives on Dutch Flat, brought to The Dalles Monday a bald eagle, which he caught in a trap. The bird, which is not yet full grown, measures seven feet from tip to tip.

R. A. Woodruff of Coles Valley returned yesterday from Palouse county, Wash., and is in the city today. He came via Portland and reports good sleighing in that city, and pleasure seekers are enjoying themselves hugely.

During her absence, thieves entered the house of Mrs. Jane White, in Ashland, last Saturday, and looted the drawers, chests and trunks. The thieves had evidently slept in the house as one of the beds had been used. Mrs. White has been visiting relatives near Rock Point since December 1 last.

Wm. Laugh, who has a mining claim on Myrtle Creek, has taken from his mine specimens of rich ore which he is exhibiting to his neighbors here. The rock carries gold, silver and copper combined. Mr. Laugh thinks he has struck it and as consequence steps high. If the quantity and quality of his find is as extensive as he represents, he can with truth cry out "Eureka" with exultation.

A very extensive slide has occurred at the west end of tunnel 2 on the S. P. railroad in Cow Creek canyon, which has delayed the trains till some time tomorrow. The overland trains last night had to make a transfer at the slide, causing quite a delay. It is not expected the trains will get through till tomorrow and probably later. A large force of men at work clearing away the immense mass of earth and rock.

From Saturday's Daily.

H. S. Conn of Melrose is in the city today.

H. G. Salsbom of Portland is at the McClallen.

Robt. McLaughlin of Deer Creek is in the city today.

Geo. Shrum of East Umpqua is in the city on business.

H. D. Maxum and son of Camas Valley are at the Van Houten.

Mrs. James Thornton of Ashland is registered at the McClallen.

Geo. Stearns, the poultry king of Oakland, is in the city on business today.

Mrs. John and daughter of Grants Pass are registered at the Van Houten.

Will Madison returned yesterday from his trip to Portland and other points in the valley.

Umpqua precinct has been divided. That part on west side of the river constituting the new precinct and named West Roseburg. There are about 150 votes in this precinct.

T. William, the house decorator, left here this morning, accompanied by his wife, for their home at Salem, Mr. William having finished decorating J. W. Hamilton's house.

The slide at south end of tunnel 2 in Cow Creek Canyon, still blocks the way. The slide is 110 feet long and was 25 feet deep. The great difficulty is, the slide continues to slide in as fast as the workmen slide it out, and it is now conceded that the workmen will not be able to clear the track before Monday, if then. Passenger trains continue, however, and when they come to the slide, passengers, their baggage and the mails are transferred, and the train returns. So travel and mail are but slightly delayed.

Thursday evening the report came to the city that Sam G. Brown, the escaped convict, had been seen a few miles north of Wilbur. Soon the city was all abuzz with excitement and in a short time the city was full of wild rumors as to where, and when and by whom he was seen. The story, however, had such a color of truth as to induce the sheriff and a large posse of men to go to the scene of this reported whereabouts. All day yesterday and all this forenoon knots of men were seen gathered on the principal streets discussing and speculation upon the upshot of the "fiasco"—the escape, recapture and a hanging by the 31st. Our reporter has been piled with a thousand and one questions concerning the matter, as if they thought him a clairvoyant—able to see through mountains, peer into straw stacks or into cellars a thousand miles away. Brown is reported to have a Winchester rifle and a brace of pistols upon him, and that he has declared he will never be taken alive. While all this may be true we will not vouch for it—it is too much like Baron Munchausen tales.

SUGAR PINE.

Again we furnish a bit of news from Sugar Pine. And this time your humble scribe will be more careful in his chirography, so that the typo will not get names of persons and things changed, so that "Lige" will not become "George," "water" as "matter," "grub oak openings" as "grub oak springs," or "long locked up" appear as "long talked of."

Laird & West's portable saw mill will soon start up again and will, as of yore, saw out "slathers" of boards, planks, and other bridge and building lumber.

New-comer Davis of bright, clear-eyed Eastern Oregon, is occasionally seen strolling over the fields or winding through the foot hills as if in search of accustomed sunshine.

Notwithstanding that within the past season so many of our youths have taken unto themselves a rib, there were enough of "young sprigs" to muster a sociable enjoyed at J. and E. F. Inman's residence a few evenings since.

Friend B. F. Goodman of Flournoy Valley can be seen of a morning standing, and like Stephen of old, gazing into heaven. That's right Ben, study the clouds before starting out to plow, for those clouds and fog banks are treacherous this time of year.

Although another girl is what was wanted and expected, yet friend George Matthews is slowly recovering from the shock of a recent newly arrived boy.
