THE CURRENCY QUESTION

While we are not dogmatic on questions of currency we nevertheless have an opinion on the subject.

The redemption of treasury notes when demanded should be paid in gold.

There is a scheme, on foot by a few anti-Hermann men, to get delegates elected who are of easy conscience.

If Spain wants to kick up a rumpus with the United States just let her kick.

The schemers among the democrats and populists are trying to effect a fusion of the two parties.

The Review is in favor of free trade and quotes republicans as favoring it.

Spanish government officers deny that Weyler is the "bloody butcher."

The Florence West is no more. We shall miss the West.

It is thought that congress will adjourn early this year.

KEEP IN THE MIDDLE OF THE ROAD.

In today's issue we print Mr. E. D. Stratford's criticism of an editorial in Tuesday's daily.

We are of the opinion that when the republican party gets control of the government, as it will next March.

THE OTHER SIDE.

Ed. PLAINDEALER: I have read with no small degree of disappointment, your article on the editorial page of yesterday's PLAINDEALER.
