TELEGRAPH NEWS

Order is Restored.
FRANKFORT, Ky., March 16.—What promised to be the most sensational day in the senatorial fight was begun with a proclamation from Governor Bradley, issued this morning, calling out the state troops. The proclamation declared:
"For several days past an armed body of desperate men have, by their threats and demonstrations, intimidated and overawed the members of the general assembly; a number of the said persons assaulted Senator C. J. Walton and prevented him from going out of the senate chamber; a party of the said persons, in like manner, took possession of the door of the house while the joint assembly was in session, assumed to decide who should enter the chamber of the house when the said session was being held, and on the 14th day of March persons were sworn in as deputy sergeant-at-arms of the senate, who thereupon forcibly seized the doorkeeper of the house of representatives, while the general assembly was in joint session, and prevented him from exercising the duties of his office and allowed persons to enter who were not entitled to a place on the floor. The presence of those men prevented the members from voting in the joint session, and the civil authorities have, at no time, arrested any of these rioters or armed persons, but have permitted them to continue their work of intimidation."
Upwards of 400 soldiers occupy the statehouse square.
Governor Bradley was in consultation all morning with Adjutant-General Collier, and Colonel Castleman and Gaither. These gentlemen agreed that there will be no difficulty in preventing trouble.
"I wish to say," said the governor, "that the militia was called out to protect the members of the legislature from mob violence, and not to protect myself."
Colonel Jack Quinn came down this morning from Harrodsburg.
"I have telegraphed an unconditional surrender," he said, "this is enough for me."
Blackburn men call the governor's action an outrage.
A meeting of the citizens of Frankfort was called to protest against the presence of the militia in this city.
"This display of force will stop all legislation," said Senator Blackburn this morning. "Nothing shall be done. I would like to see the revenue bills or any thing else get through now."
Just before 11 o'clock Sergeant-at-Arms Summers, of the senate, entered the lower door of the statehouse with his six assistants, summoned Saturday. These men were halted by Captain Gaines, Summers protested that they were his assistants, and he had affidavit that they were entitled to enter. The captain was firm, however, and they walked out without attempting to force their way upstairs. Everything before the convening of the two houses was quiet as could be.
When the joint session convened the roll-call showed 66 present. Neither the democrats nor populists responded. The president announced no quorum. On the ballot for senator only one vote was cast, that of Speed for Boyle. Both republicans and democrats, with this exception, refused to respond.
The joint assembly then adjourned until tomorrow.
There was not standing room in the courthouse when the indignation meeting was called to order to protest against the action of Governor Bradley in calling out the troops.
Mayor Julien told his conference with Governor Bradley, in which he assured the executive he would give ample protection, and characterized the governor's action as highly partisan and unbecoming.
Ex-Attorney-General Hendrick nominated Judge Lysander Hoard as chairman of the meeting in a speech scoring the governor, and he took the chair amid a wild burst of enthusiasm.
Speeches were made by Colonel E. H. Taylor and others, denouncing the action of Governor Bradley in severe terms.

Munitions Of War.
New York, March 16.—The Press this morning says:
Despite the efforts of the Spanish consuls, ministers and spies in this country, in the face of the loss of the steamship J. W. Hawkins, and the seizure by United States marshals of the steamship Bermuda, the Cubans in this vicinity have now upon the sea bound for the islands, whose freedom is the one thought of their lives, that identical cargo of ammunition of the steamship. On another vessel it is understood are a lot more men who are to be transferred to the Bermuda on the high seas.
The Bermuda left New York yesterday morning. It was shortly after 8 o'clock when she got up her anchor, 10 o'clock when she passed Sandy Hook and about noon when she distanced the fleet of newspaper tugs that followed her to sea.
The air was filled with rumors yesterday. Thomas Estrada Palma has disappeared from town and Calixto Garcia left his home early in the morning and had not returned at a late hour last night. The report was that they had sailed for Cuba, and that it was the intention of the patriots to perfect the system of government in Cuba in order to induce a more substantial support from other countries, including the United States, than that of mere sympathy.

This fact did not deter the Cubans from loading her decks down with gunpowder and arms for the insurgents in Cuba, and in all 40 tons of ammunition and guns were placed on board the Bermuda and also several cases containing dynamite.
