

THE PLAINEALER

MARCH 30, 1896.

U. S. Department of Agriculture Weather Bureau.

ROSEBURG, Ore., March 29, 1896. BAROMETER 30.0. Pacific time—30.25. Maximum temperature, 45. Minimum temperature, 40. Rainfall for the 24 hours ending 5 p. m., 0.00. Total rainfall since 1st of month, 4.00. Average rainfall for this month for 18 years, 3.57. Total rainfall from Sept. 1, 1895, to date, 30.11. Average rainfall from Sept. 1, to date, 28.04. Accumulated excess from Sept. 1, 1895, to date, 2.07. Average precipitation for 18 wet seasons, 83.36.

The weather flags displayed represent the forecast applying to the 24 hours ending at 8 p. m. to-morrow. (If more than one kind of weather is predicted for that period, the conditions first named in the forecast will be represented by the uppermost weather flag.) A white flag indicates clear or fair weather; a blue flag, rain or snow. The flag of which the upper half is white and the lower half blue, local rain or snow. A black triangular pennant indicates the temperature and when displayed above a weather flag indicates warmer, and when displayed below, cooler. The temperature flag is never displayed alone. Its absence indicates stationary temperature. The cold wave flag, white with black square in the center, when displayed on the Pacific coast, indicates frost.

THOS. GIBSON, Observer.

PORTLAND, Ore., March 30, 1896; 8 a. m. Weather forecast for the next 26 hours, for Roseburg and vicinity: Fair tonight and Tuesday warmer.

This will be Dr. Lowe's ninth visit to Roseburg. He is a fixture in Oregon. He does honest work at reasonable prices and is not afraid to meet his old patrons.

Saturday J. T. Gray and J. R. Herrington came down from Van Couver after Joe Roberts, who, they alleged had deserted the United States' service. They returned without securing their man. Those gentlemen of the blue are registered at the McCallen.

Dr. J. D. West and wife, relatives of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Frater of this city, left this morning on the overland for their home in Ohio. Dr. and Mrs. West are on a tour of observation and pleasure and will visit many prominent places of interest on this coast, and don't expect to arrive home till about May 15th next.

Geo. J. Farnsworth of Portland, representing the Northwest Immigration Board of Portland is in the city looking after the interest of that board in particular, and of immigration in general, co-operating with local boards with the view of unifying action in this matter. Mr. Farnsworth is a thorough business man and will render efficient aid in organizing and placing all the boards on a solid footing.

Mrs. Helves Condition.

Our reporter called at the Depot Hotel this morning to learn the condition of Mrs. Helves, who was badly burned Saturday morning by her clothing taking fire, as reported in Saturday's PLAINEALER. Mrs. Helves is resting quite easy and the doctor reports she is getting along all right, and by good care will recover as speedily as the nature of her wounds and advanced age will permit. The members of the W. R. C. will take notice of this and doubtless render all assistance in their power, as they are known to be a band of noble women ever ready to give all relief they possibly can.

In the excitement incident to the sad accident to Mrs. Helves in the Depot Hotel, Saturday morning. Our reporter was misinformed as to Mrs. Helves fainting and falling on the stove. It appears as near as her husband can learn she only came so close that her clothing came in contact with the stove and in that manner set them on fire. We make this correction as to that part of Saturday's report.

School District No. 4.

The following is the report of the Roseburg public schools for the month of March:

Table with 2 columns: Item and Amount. Includes number of days taught, number of pupils, males, females, percent of attendance, cases of corporal punishment, salaries for Prof. F. B. Hamlin, Miss Lena Bradley, Miss Lena Willis, Mrs. Mary Wilson, Mrs. E. E. Richards, Mrs. O. C. Brown, Miss S. Wimberly, Miss Lizzie Parrott, total paid teachers, and janitor's salary.

Lend Your Assistance.

G. J. Farnsworth, representing the Pacific Northwest Immigration Board of Portland, has been in Roseburg for several days. His mission is to interest the citizens in the valley in his important work, the object of which is to advertise the resources of the north-west coast throughout the eastern states and thereby induce a desirable class of immigration to come hither. Mr. Farnsworth has formed local boards at Ashland, Medford and Grants Pass, whose duties it will be to co-operate with the board at Portland. The local board formed recently by Messrs. Pague and Deaver will meet tonight, when the organization will be perfected and plans laid for active work.

Mr. J. E. Adcox of Albany has opened a jewelry shop here. He comes well recommended as a jeweler, and is prepared to do any work that can be done in any city.

Dr. Brookhart went to Salem to attend the populist convention, which convened on the 29th inst.

Sheriff Gage of Coos County passed through town Wednesday on his way to Salem with an insane man. He was also a delegate to the State populist convention.

50th Anniversary Wedding Day. Our esteemed townsman, Stephen Staats, celebrated his fiftieth wedding anniversary yesterday. Mr. Staats was married in Polk county, March 29, 1846. His companion passed on several years ago, and he is now alone in the world except the host of friends he has where ever he sojourns. Mr. Staats is now making his home in this city with his daughter, Mrs. Will Madison. He has reached the age of three score and fifteen years, and bids fair for another score of years.

Insane. Leroy Jones of Deer Creek has been adjudged insane and sent to the asylum. Deputy Sheriff Shambrook took him below Saturday morning. Dr. B. L. Brady examining physician.
