PETER HUME,
Chm. County Cen. Com.
JOHN H. SHUPE, Secy.

And it came to pass, that the populists declined the invitation to be broiled on a democratic gridiron.

The Review's susceptibility to a variety of emotions is observable in its hatred of the A. P. A. and its love for the populists.

The K. P. A. editor of the Review accuses the editor of the PLAINDEALER with being an A. P. A. Well, of the two appellations the latter is far preferable.

The Review says: "The PLAINDEALER is responsible for the defeat of Peter Hume in West Roseburg precinct. Oh no, Mr. Review you are mistaken. The PLAINDEALER has no influence. It was the Review which did that job. Its mighty influence doth move the tides; the planets roll and shake the earth from pole to pole.

Really it doesn't matter what the local democratic journal thinks or says regarding the forthcoming congressional election. Having no influence with those who are to determine the question, its intrusion is unimportant. A charitable endurance of its meddling is suffered for the reason that the felicity of editorially assisting in the election of a democratic congressman, is a joy it has never tasted.

From reports received, great interest was taken at the primaries all along the line, and there was a larger turn out than ever known before. While the various delegates are somewhat divided as to their choice for the county offices they seem to be unanimous for Hermann for Congressman and Reed for State Senator. Reed will undoubtedly be nominated by acclamation. Hermann will have a lively little scrap but will get there just the same.

In order to ease the minds of the republican admirers of the Review who are governed by its disinterested advice in matters political, religious and otherwise, we will inform them that the PLAINDEALER, though republican, as it ever has been and will be while owned by the present proprietor, is not controlled by any ring, clique or faction, or by any of the would-be bosses. While advocating republican principles, which it firmly believes in, the editor claims the right as an American citizen to say or do what to him seems best, and will allow no dictation or abridgement of his rights. As to being a "loyal A. P. A." as charged by the Review, we will state that as yet it is no crime for an American citizen to belong to secret societies, be they Masons, Odd Fellows, Knights of Pythias, Good Templars, or A. P. A., although the pope has so declared. A true American owes no allegiance except to the constitution and laws of his country, and need not fear the anathemas of the Pope of Rome, or any other ecclesiastical power.

The Douglas Republican County Convention will meet Friday, the 3d of this month, to nominate a state senator, three representatives to the state legislature, county clerk, sheriff, county treasurer, county school superintendent, assessor, county surveyor and a coroner.

We trust that harmony may prevail and that good, true, honest, able and faithful men may be named for all these places—men who will command the respect and hearty support of good men.

There is a large number of candidates for nearly all these offices and each ought to submit to the result with good grace, for it is certain some of them will be left to nurse their defeat. But there can console themselves with the reflection that perhaps it is all for the best.

The convention ought to be governed by the principle that efficient service is what they should consider, and not for once look to the benefits to the candidate. It is the public service you should look to wholly. Make your ticket on that plan and the PLAINDEALER will rejoice and be exceeding glad and do the best for the ticket's success.

The republican party has just the sort of men we need. Place such upon the ticket and the people will elect it.

THE DEMOCRATIC CRAFT.

It is plainly to be seen that Douglas county democracy is perturbed. The waves of discontent are rolling high. The captain of the democratic craft is more turbid than the sea he tries to navigate. The passengers have mutinied and demand a new pilot on whom they can rely to steer clear of Syla on one side and Charybdis on the other. These rocks are now in sight and despair is depicted in every countenance. The old sea dog has shouted to the helmsman, "Stand by the wheel!" and to the crew, "Unfurl the sails and let her scoot before the wind. I'll shoot down the first passenger who dares poke his head above deck." But still the passengers murmur. One more bold than the rest says, "I'll take the pilot's station if you will all stand by me. I'm not afraid. Come, follow me." And many voices cry out: "Lead on, we'll follow."

"He Makes no Speeches."

A variety of self-contained detractors of Mr. Hermann have evolved the detraction (according to their conceptions) that he makes no speeches.

Angels and ministers of grace defend him! Since when were speeches in congress evidences of devotion to a few thousand voters? What everlasting babbling idiot in congress was ever mighty in the committee room? What irrepressible windy nuisance has served his constituents and his country better than Mr. Hermann has? Speeches forsooth! What manner of congressman is he that needs the electrifying influence of eloquence, in determining the expediency of voting for an appropriation for a light house, or an extra committee clerk. The specification of the variety of self-contained detractors that Mr. Hermann makes no irrelevant harrangues, is a lame and sickly subterfuge, a sham and a delusion.

The Lord Will Provide.

The Lord having doubtless read in the PLAINDEALER an account of Brother F. B. Waite joining God's Regular Army, and that he is now of a contrite heart, has taken Brother Waite into his confidence and made him Commissioner of the Second northern Oregon Agricultural district for two years. This is a distinction worthily bestowed upon one of Douglas County's "favorite sons" in which the Lord has shown his hand and seal of the State of Oregon. It has occurred to us however, that it may be one of the Lord's practical jokes for the season—April first.

The Discovery Saved His Life.

Mr. G. Cailloutte, Druggist, Beaverville, Ill., says: "To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with La Grippe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and began its use and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We won't keep store or house without it." Get a free trial at A. C. Marsters & Co.'s Drug Store.

They Shall Not Vote.

EDITOR PLAINDEALER: The democratic "boss" declares with emphatic profanity that no A. P. A. democrat shall vote at the Saturday primaries. That is good. Give 'em h—l. They have no right that a decent paplst is bound to respect, any way. X.

"MORE ANON" REPLIES.

Our friend the Review confesses its faith in at least one article of the A. P. A. That article holds, according to the Review, sound American doctrine, but the Review is silent, as silent as the tomb, on the articles denouncing the appropriation of public funds for the support of sectarian schools and the stoppage of undesirable immigration to the United States. One article at a time is as much as the Review can master and appropriate. "More Anon" thinks the Review will, at the rate it is going now, be soundly American by the year 1900, especially if the hand of its bosses can be taken from its control by that time. Of course, the Review knows that we are not in sympathy with our public utterances. The Review is so used to Jesuitical casuistry that it is very skeptical touching the honesty of public utterances of any kind, for you know the Roman hierarchy just now is making very loud professions of loyalty to our flag, and the Review knows they do not mean it.

Through all this controversy the Review's only weapon of warfare has been abuse. This has always been the weapon of those who have a weak cause to defend against a strong. The Review covers the real issue by maligning, abusing and misrepresenting the real facts in the case. Never a reform inaugurated in the history of the world but that it was opposed and traduced by demagogues, short sighted and designing politicians, and history well attests the demagoguery and falsehood appealed to by the Roman Catholic hierarchy in order to suppress every reformation that has been brought forth and wrought for by benevolence, genius and disinterested patriotism.

The Review is correct when it says the A. P. A. is opposed to the Roman Catholic hierarchy, and were it wise, posted, patriotic and devoted to the traditions of the past, its columns would be filled with warning against the doings of the Clan na Gaels and the Ancient Order of Hibernians, military organizations, secret in their operations, bound by the most ironclad oaths, and into which none can enter save Irishmen and Catholics. If the Review is American let it turn its abuse from the A. P. A. for a season and heap opprobrium on the Mafia, the Clan na Gael and the Ancient Order of Hibernians, all secret Catholic organizations, each un-American and full of propagandism directly opposed to American institutions.

The Review stoutly maintains that there is no just cause for the existence of the A. P. A. If the young man who presides over the destinies of the Review was an informed man, unbiassed, and free from the bigotry with which he charges the A. P. A., he too, would hate the papal hand that is seeking to throttle liberty, and dethrone freedom, even as that hand is detested by the patriotic band known to the world as the A. P. A. The young man who edits the Review is not a Catholic, nor do we believe him to be really unpatriotic, but he is foolishly narrow, bigotted and ignorant of both the danger by which we are confronted and the motives actuating now, almost four millions of patriotic American voters banded together not to deprive Roman citizens of a single right, but to protect the ballot box from Jesuitical domination, and to aid in the transmitting to coming generations civil and religious liberty. Is there cause for alarm? Are our public schools in danger from the heirarchy and its minions? Listen:

"We would much rather our children should grow up in ignorance than to be taught in a school which is not Catholic."—Catholic Review of Boston.

Young man, what do you think o that? Listen:

"Let the public school system go where it came from—the devil."—Freeman's Journal, Catholic.

Is that American? Any bigotry there, Mr. Review?

"It will be a glorious day for the Catholics of this country when under the blows of justice and morality our school system is shivered to pieces."—Catholic Telegraph, (Owen Smith's paper.) Cincinnatti.

Any danger there do you think? Is that American? When "C" puts his abuse and falsehood, and more of the product of gray matter into his effusions I will notice him, kindly—but goodbye "C," eternally, I fear, goodbye.

MORE ANON.

From the dispatches we learn that the republicans of Clackamas county have nominated Professor Henry S. Strange for county school superintendent. Henry is a Douglas county boy and we are pleased to see him named for that responsible position. He is well equipped for the office, being a thorough educator, a successful teacher and a man of good moral character. He was a former teacher in the Roseburg public schools, and was successful to an eminent degree. He received his early education at Wilbur under Professors Skidmore and Benson and taught his first school in this county. His first certificate to teach was granted at a public examination and the records show he obtained a general average of 98 per cent. That he will be elected by the good people of Clackamas county there is no doubt, and in selecting him the people of that county make no mistake.

ASHLAND NORMAL.

THAT CONTRACT.

The Review of March 26th in commenting on a recent article in the PLAINDEALER says:

"This "dig" is aimed at Asher Marks, and is simply a rank misstatement. The city records will show that only 11 lights were contracted for and the four additional lights have been added by other councils. This writer also says that Ashland and Medford pay $10 and $8 per month for each light. Then why don't the economical (?) council cut down the pay of the company here, they can do it if they wish."

In regard to the above I will say that the article referred to was not intended as a "dig" at Asher Marks, but it was intended as a kick at the pig headed ass of the Review. He says why don't the economical (?) board cut down the pay of the company here.

They don't because they can't; and they can't because the contract between the board and the company provides in substance that the city shall pay $13.65 for the lamps now ordered and at like rate for such other lamps as may be furnished pursuant to this ordinance, and that this rate shall continue 10 years, when it may be changed by arbitration. Up to the end of the 10 years, which will expire Oct. 26, 1902, we must continue to pay present rates. We are not kicking about the number of lamps but at the extra $3.65 we pay more than Edgene or Medford and the $5.65 more than Ashland.

This is not much for one month but in 10 years it will amount to about $9000 more than Eugene or Medford pay, and to something like $10,000 more than Ashland pays. The Review man also says they (the board) can cut the pay of the company down if they wish. He undoubtedly knows better, and is simply lying through mistake or otherwise. If there is anything wrong with the price we pay for our lights, the board that made the contract, and not the present board, is responsible. ATHOLPH.

"Kicking Against the Pricks."

Simon Caro, the assumed boss politician of Roseburg, has at last become a newspaper correspondent, and has in the columns of the Oregonian given a misrepresentation of facts as they exist here, when he asserts that the delegatee to the county convention from the Roseburg precincts are anti-Hermann. Simon, 'tis hard for thee to "kick against the pricks." Better turn your toes in another direction and find a softer spot to kick at. If the consideration of being made a delegate, causes Simon to cease his opposition to Hermann, perhaps a little further consideration might cause him to fall into the ranks and thus swell the large majority that will be given to Hermann at the district convention. Simon, Simon, we sympathize with you in your lonely condition of opposition to Binger Hermann, and in fact you are entitled to the sympathy of all republicans in Douglas county, that you are so blinded by a personal grievance, that you cannot see the day star of hope and victory shining on the horizon of Hermann's political life. We conceive of a time not far distant, Simon, when you will wave your hat in the air, and shout long and loud for Binger Hermann.

Simon, when you venture to become a newspaper correspondent, be sure and ascertain the facts, and arrive at correct conclusions before you present erroneous ones to the public. Simon, when you attend the district convention, let not your great political efforts and greater influence be an astounding feature of that convention. W. A. B.

THE BUSINESS MAN'S LUNCH.

Hard Work and Indigestion go Hand in Hand.

Concentrated thought, continued in, robs the stomach of necessary blood, and this is also true of hard physical labor.

When a five horse-power engine is made to do ten horse-power work something is going to break. Very often the hard-worked man coming from the field or the office will "bolt" his food in a few minutes which will take hours to digest. Then too, many foods are about as useful in the stomach as a log of nails would be in a fire under a boiler. The ill-used stomach refuses to do its work without the proper stimulus which it gets from the blood and nerves. The nerves are weak and "ready to break," because they do not get the nourishment they require from the blood, finally the ill-used brain is morbidly wide awake when the overworked man attempts to find rest in bed.

The application of common sense in the treatment of the stomach and the whole system brings to the busy man the full enjoyment of life and healthy digestion when he takes Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets to relieve a bilious stomach or after a too hearty meal, and Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify, enrich and vitalize the blood. The "Pellets" are tiny sugar-coated pills made of highly concentrated vegetable ingredients which relieve the stomach of all offending matters easily and thoroughly. They need only be taken for a short time to cure the biliousness, constipation and slothfulness, or torpor, of the liver; then the "Medical Discovery" should be taken in teaspoonful doses to increase the blood and enrich it. It has a peculiar effect upon the lining membranes of the stomach and bowels, toning up and strengthening them for all time. The whole system feels the effect of the pure blood coursing through the body and the nerves are vitalized and strengthened, not deadened, or put to sleep, as the so-called celery compounds and nerve mixtures do—but refreshed and fed on the food they need for health. If you suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia, nervousness, and any of the ills which come from impure blood and disordered stomach, you can cure yourself with Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery which can be obtained at any drug store in the country.
