Garcia Heard From.
New York, April 6.—The World this morning says:

A long cipher dispatch from Carlos Garcia, son of General Calixto Garcia, leader of the Bermuda expedition to Cuba, has been received by M. Stern in this city. The dispatch was written at Manzanilla, which is about 35 miles west of Santiago, on April 2.

Mr. Stern said: "Before the ship sailed Carlos said that if there was no interference in United States waters they would have no trouble in eluding any Spanish vessel. The explanation of this is simple enough. The Bermuda was rated as having a speed of from 10 to 12 knots; as a matter of fact, she was capable of making from 18 to 20 knots, so that she could out sail any Spanish war vessel. She was equipped with new engines while she was in the drydock in South Brooklyn. These engines and boilers were made by the Cramps, and were the finest that money could buy. The replacing of the engines was kept a close secret at the time. It was even guarded from Cuban sympathizers. So, while the Bermuda was apparently a slow old tramp steamer, she was in reality a remarkably swift ship, and no Spanish cruiser could hope to catch her. As a matter of fact she had no occasion to show her speed.

The dispatch says that the men and heavy artillery were landed in a bay between Bahia Honda and Muriel, which is about 50 miles west of Havana in a straight line. There was absolutely no interference. The two Hotchkiss guns and the six other heavy pieces of artillery were taken off with the ammunition for them. The ship, with the remaining arms and ammunition, was sent to Santiago. It went around the north shore of the island, through the Bahama channel.

The 108 men in the expedition were landed on the morning of March 23d. They made a march of 40 miles inland, where they were met by General Maceo, thus carrying out the plan to the letter.

It was decided that an attack should be made upon Pinar del Rio, which is the largest inland town, and a Spanish stronghold. Maceo and Garcia, with 9000 men, swept down on Pinar del Rio early on the morning of March 31d and it was a complete surprise. The Spanish troops numbered about 6000, and they were thrown into a state of panic by the onslaught. The use of the heavy artillery which Garcia had brought added to their terror. The message says:

"Consternation reigned and the Spanish troops were thrown into wild disorder. Officers could not form their men. We captured two pieces of heavy artillery, 4700 Mauser rifles, 1,200,000 cartridges, 2800 swords and many stores. We burned 600 houses, sparing the weak. The Spanish loss was 850 killed and 200 wounded. The Cuban loss was 150 killed and wounded."

After this victory, which is one of the most important that the Cubans have won, inasmuch as it will be almost impossible for the Spaniards to find shelter for their troops in the interior during the rainy season, General Garcia took 500 men and started eastward, making the hardest possible marches.

Carlos Garcia says that they had not the slightest difficulty in passing the trocha, which is a line of Spanish troops, and then went on swiftly to the eastern part of the island.

"Many volunteers joined them. When they arrived near Santiago they found that the Bermuda had landed her ammunition in a bay a few miles east of Santiago. The ship arrived on the night of March 25, but the landing was not made until the following morning. There were 18 boat-loads of rifles, cartridges and swords.

"General Garcia has gone to the eastern end of the island, because that is his old home, and the people there are his loyal friends. Jose Maceo is with him. General Garcia will do nothing for a month but organize an army of picked men. He expects to have an army of volunteers which will number 35,000 men and a regular force of 10,000 men."

General Harrison's Marriage.
New York, April 6.—General Harrison, whose marriage to Mrs. Dimmick will occur this afternoon, at St. Thomas' church, remained all the forenoon at the Fifth Avenue hotel, with ex-Attorney-General W. H. Miller, W. E. Curtis, C. W. Fairbanks, of Indianapolis, and Major Richard Parker, of the Soldiers' Home, at Washington.

Private Secretary Tibbets said General Harrison would remain at the hotel until immediately before the ceremony, when he would be driven directly to the church. There has been no official announcement of the time of the ceremony. Indications, however, are that Mrs. Dimmick will become Mrs. Harrison between 5:30 and 6 o'clock this afternoon.

Mrs. Dimmick has received many valuable presents. The principal gift from General Harrison is a necklace made of seven rows of pearls. The necklace is 55 inches long and has a diamond clasp.
