SCRAPS.

A few days ago a certain populist living west of this city, accidentally overheard a conversation between two prominent members of the Roseburg ring of democratic pie eaters, which caused him to open his eyes. The question under discussion was as to the probability of the populist convention indorsing all or part of the democrat ticket.

One of the parties was very bitter in his denunciations of the populists and their doctrines, and was opposed to anything, he said, which would in any way encourage them in their political heresies. The other party explained that it was not necessary or advisable to have such a thing as a political conscience, that what they, the democrats, were after, was the pie, and that if they could accomplish their ends by using the populists to help rake the political chestnuts out of the fire, it was all right, even if the pops did get burned.

To illustrate his point, he related the following anecdote: He said that while the story was, in its origin, supposed to have been told by a colored voter on the republicans, it would fit his ideas exactly. He said that a certain colored gentleman related that he had had a dream the night before, in which he had dreamed that he had died, and, unfortunately, had taken the wrong road and been admitted into the realms of his satanic majesty. That he was ushered into the department where an attempt was being made to kill-dry a score or more of republicans who had been inveigled into this domain, perhaps as a reward for having gone off after strange goods, and that every republican was holding between himself and the fire, a colored citizen.

That while the republican was enjoying the climate all right, the poor colored man was having the fat fried out of him in great shape. The person relating the anecdote, then proceeded to make an application of the story, which apparently satisfied his companion, judging from the merriment which it occasioned; but the populist friend, who accidentally heard the story, went home vowing that when Mr. Pie-eater drew a baking out of the oven he would get no help from him.

From now on until after the election the hungry editor of the Review will put in his time agonizing for the poor downtrodden, oppressed taxpayers of Douglas county. Their sufferings bring the sweat to his marble brow in copious drops. Their woes and calamities give him no rest day nor night. His couch is, as it were, planted with thorns, and his daily path is strewn with flinty obstructions. His commiseration for the people's trouble, cause his very intestines to gripe with pain, which makes him cry aloud.

He is willing to sacrifice his time and agitate the gray matter in his massive brain, in order that he may show that the wicked republicans are the cause of all the woes the people suffer. There is nothing in it to him and the balance of his ring of hungry tax-payers. No, he is actuated only by patriotic motives, he is. Who are these great reformers? Fisher, Flood & Co. Are they not the same outfit who a few short years ago were cavorting around this county, telling the dear people of the halcyon days which would flood the country with golden sunshine when Cleveland should be elected. They didn't want the offices then. They first wanted to help the poor oppressed taxpayers. Well, Cleveland was elected, and immediately the whole hungry gang lined up at the pie counter, and such pushing and scrounging, and shoving and scrambling, such snatching and snapping and scratching was never seen before in Oregon. It was enough to sicken the buzzards. Now they are at it again; trying to bamboozle the voters with their confidence games. Go it, Mr. Review man, you can't fool the people again with your magnificent impudence and unscrupulous methods.

The PLAINDEALER did the right thing in a recent issue, in rebuking the high handed outrage perpetrated by the Roseburg ring at the democrat primaries, in having the ring ticket printed on colored paper and in refusing two well-known democrats the right to vote when they found they did not intend to vote the ring ticket. It had been supposed that such outrages were confined to a few of the most disreputable districts of the south. The facts are that the machine workers were on hand at every voting precinct of Roseburg and took possession of the polls from ten minutes to half an hour before the time fixed to open the polls, and then by means of their colored and then by means of their white tickets, they were able to tell just how every one voted, and if the person who offered to vote did not have their ticket, he was ruled out unless he had courage enough to insist on his rights, even at the risk of a row. The laws of Oregon, page 1181, sec. 2507, provides that "no ballot shall bear upon the outside thereof any impression, device, color, or thing designed to distinguish such ballot from other legal ballots, or whereby the same may be known or designated." It may be claimed that this law applies only to general elections. This may be true so far as the power of the courts to prosecute for a violation thereof is concerned, but the necessity for such a law was never more clearly demonstrated, than at the democratic primaries at Roseburg. It remains to be seen whether or not the decent law-abiding democrats of Douglas county will by their votes approve such an outrage, and I am of the opinion that they will not.

T. C. Nail of Greenglen is wielding the yardstick in the large Mercantile House of J. L. Dewey.

Hon. James E. Blundell commenced school at this place last Monday. Glendale is fortunate in having secured the services of this genial gentleman, scholar and statesman to teach our district school, which assures us a successful school for this season.

Miss Maud Blundell will teach the school at Placer, Josephine Co., and Nen Blundell will teach the school on upper Coos Creek. Miss Mary Cannon is teaching the Glendale school.

Miss Maud Nail, who has been attending school at Roseburg for five months, returned home last week.

Miss Lillie Cox visited Miss Nettie Redfield at Boxydell on Sunday.

Several weeks of stormy weather resulted in quite a snow storm on Tuesday morning. The snow covered the ground a depth of two inches which disappeared during the day.

J. W. Billings and family have located at this place. Robert Baber of Grants Pass has opened a saloon at the old S. F. Beer depot building.

D. B. Redfield of Boxydell is the democratic nominee for justice of the peace. If he is elected, he will make a careful and efficient officer. R. A. Welsh is on the same ticket for constable. They are both intelligent reliable gentlemen, who are competent to fill the respective positions.

Ambrose Marshall is on the republican ticket for justice of the peace, with W. G. Bernstein for constable. They are good men in the best sense of the word and will receive a hearty support.

The political kettle is bubbling in this valley, and there is keen disappointment felt over the defeat of Hon. Binger Hermann, whose many years of faithful service were known and appreciated in this valley. It seems that Mr. Hermann has received a meagre return for all the years of faithful services he has given to every "Oregonian"; all have been benefited by his wise legislation.

MOLLIE. Oregon is going back on herself, isn't she? There was quite an excitement in town the other morning when it was discovered that Thomas Maye's store had been robbed. About $10 worth of goods were stolen.

Mrs. Minnie Frater went to Gold Hill Sunday morning to visit with her husband. She will visit relatives at Medford before returning.

G. K. Quine and posse of men have been hunting for the robbers and the stolen goods for the last two days, but have not discovered anything as yet.

Miss Milla Riddle writes that she is very much pleased with her position in Astoria.

Mrs. Jude Catching is home from her visit to Portland. She had a very pleasant time.

Friends are sorry to hear that Mrs. Jennie Crosby's little daughter, Margaret, is afflicted with a lame limb.

Mr. and Mrs. Parsley and Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Arzner of Canyonville were visiting Johnnie Riddle's family Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Robinson paid a visit to his family at Roseburg the last of the week. Ed Weaver of the Myrtle Creek was in Kiddle Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sanderson's little son, Volney, was quite sick the first of the week.

Rev. Wallace of Myrtle Creek preached a very able sermon for us Sunday. ENID.

REJOICING TO SOON.

"Last Thursday we heard five different republicans make the declaration that 'there is no republican party in Douglas, that there are but two parties in the county the A. P. A. and the anti-A. P. A.—Roseburg Review.'"

From the resolution passed by the late democratic convention in this county, we are not surprised at the above assertion made by the Review, but we hardly expected that it was so heavily weighted down by them as to call on the republicans to help it draw its load before it had gotten fairly in the road. That such remarks were made by republicans is absurd, and if the Review in its Herculean efforts to keep up the organization of the republican party can call to its aid but five republicans, it certainly cannot claim much for its influence. The Review cannot name five republicans who have made the assertion it wildly attempts to credit them with. The republican party stands on its own platform made by men who met in convention for the purpose of maintaining the party, and the declarations and principles placed before the people came from the representatives of a party that can adopt a platform without abuse and vituperation. The ticket nominated by that convention is made up of representative men throughout the county, and who are all republicans—a ticket that needs no special resolution to outline the action of the men who nominated it, nor public acceptance of any of its standard bearers to define their positions, or furnish excuses for their names being placed there.

The Review will find, we predict, that there is a republican party in Douglas and that, in spite of the fact that it now decries it after promising to keep up its organization, it will be fully and cheerfully proven at the polls.

Douglas County Improvements. In considering the natural advantages of Douglas county it is discernible by the most casual observer that if our people will only devote a little time and a little money to develop it, a future grand prosperity would be only a matter of a few years, and this fair county would be one of the richest counties in the state. Douglas county has untold wealth undeveloped, and if a reasonable outlay of money and some untiring action were taken by our citizens the elements of wealth would begin to evolve their rich treasures. It is now known that the rich mineral deposits in the Bohemia mining district are beyond dispute quite extensive. To develop these mines and make them remunerative to the owners and contribute to our revenues, they must be worked. To effect such a consummation, a good road must be made to those mines from the railroad, radiating off from the nearest practicable point. Our citizens seem to be sleeping on their privileges and allowing the golden opportunity to elude their grasp.

Two years ago some effort was made and a tolerable good road was built a few miles east from Oakland and then the work was suspended and this much needed road is in statu quo. To complete this enterprise and make what has been expended available the work should be taken up and prosecuted to completion with all possible haste as soon as the weather will permit.

The snow now on the mountains of course prevents work on the route, but preliminary work making ready for active operations when the snow goes off, ought to be inaugurated immediately. We trust our business men will look after this matter and get a move on them soon.

Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out of this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

DEMOCRATIC METHODS.

EDITOR PLAINEALER: The proceedings of the late democratic convention at Roseburg would not strike the casual observer as being in any way peculiar, but when we consider that there are widely antagonistic elements in the party, it becomes difficult for one not conversant with the facts to understand how candidates, in some instances not of the party, were nominated by unanimous vote of the convention. For instance, Mr. Jas. Byron, a Catholic, for state senator by acclamation, thereby ignoring entirely the wishes of a strong A. P. A. element in the party; in fact they sat down hard on every man known to enter into even a friendly feeling for that organization.

Not being a democrat, of course I am not on the inside, (neither were many democrats), but if all of the democratic primaries were run on the plan of the one in the precinct in which I reside, "he who runs may read."

As I have it from good democratic authority the whole business was dominated by ex-Sheriff Miller, contrary to all the rules of courtesy or decency; so much so that many life long democrats refused to vote at all; while others remarked that it was the rottenest thing that they had ever seen.

Now, we may naturally infer that as many as could be all over the county were run in the same manner; which theory alone will account for the proceedings of the convention. After manipulating the primaries to their satisfaction, it was easy for the small handful of spoilers, known as the Roseburg ring, to have things pretty much their own way. They were in a position to turn down everything, which would not bend to their dictation, and they did it effectually.

Before proceeding to do this, however, they must needs have a "platform;" but though they were long on cheek, they were short on "planks;" therefore, they must needs slich one from the populists, under the mistaken notion that that party, seeing their broadest plank, would naturally settle on it like bees on a board from which their hive has been removed; thereby enabling the democrats to scoop the whole populist party into the democratic hive.

Whether they will do this remains to be seen. It is said that rats never take to a leaky ship, and I believe our populist friends are as astute in most matters as any rat. But mark my words. If they do embark in the rotten old hulk, that some ironical genius has named the democratic party, they will all go down together, and peace be to their carcasses. INDUCTO.

Brown, Ind., testifies that he was cured of a cough of two years standing, caused by La Grippe, by Dr. King's New Discovery. E. F. Merrill, Baldwinville, Mass., says that he has used and recommended it and never knew it to fail and would rather have it than any doctor, because it always cures. NATRON. Mrs. S. A. DeVaney is very ill this week. If you wish a Columbia bicycle call on C. L. Smith. M. Wallace is building a large black-smith shop here. Miss Lena Smith made a trip to Jasper, Saturday. Miss Hattie Smith is now in Glentina teaching school. Fred Russell is still going to school here, under Prof. S. A. DeVaney. Hon. C. L. Smith expects to leave this part of the county soon, for Coburg. Easter passed very calmly here in this place this time. Rev. A. H. Sunderman seems to like to run down us young people and some of the older ones here of late. Miss Jennie McCann started to Springfield last week on the railroad velocipede, but when she got a few miles away she had to turn back, on account of the wind blowing so she could not go against it. The young people seem to be lost without Miss Mae Applegate, especially the ladies of this place. WAKE CENTUR.
