The Faust troupe is registered at the McClallen. It plays at the Opera House tonight.

Saturday, April the 25th is positively the last day you can consult Dr. Lowe about your eyes.

Judge Fullerton returned Saturday from Corvallis, Benton county, where he has been holding court.

Popular "Faust" prices for Monday night; 75, 50, and 25 cents. Seats now on sale at the Roseleaf.

The sheriff collected, last week, taxes for 1895, $3203.64. This is a pretty fair showing for these hard times.

An agent for the sale of Major A. Woodin king of all cement, is creating quite an excitement on the streets today, hawking his wares.

Hon. C. A. Sehbredre, who has been under the doctor's care for over a week, we are pleased to state is able to be on our streets again.

Hon. Geo. M. Brown, our able district attorney, returned Saturday night from Corvallis where he had his last term of court in Benton county.

We learn this morning that J. T. Hedson of West Roseburg, who has been very sick for several days, is improving with hopes of his recovery.

R. B. Dixon of Deer Creek is in the city today with an eye on the political war cloud. He predicts the republican ship will outride the storm and safely ride into port.

H. T. Blum, who has purchased the meat market business of J. Bitzer, will be pleased to continue business relations with the old patrons of this popular market. Satisfaction guaranteed.

W. W. Cathcart, our obliging deputy sheriff returned Saturday evening from a trip to Yoncalla and to Drain, his old home, where he took notes of the political weathercock in those localities.

Walter Singleton is placing a grand plate glass window in the front of Hamilton's drug store. The plate is 8 feet, 8 inches by 9 feet in size. When finished it will be one of the finest in the city.

R. V. Hughes champion athlete of Coos county, who took part in the athletic entertainment at Armory Hall Saturday night, left for home on this morning's local, going by way of Portland.

The city of Ashland has made a contract with the electric light company for 31 arc lights at $3.50 per light for three years. It has been paying $7 per light. Roseburg is paying $13.95 per light on a contract for twenty years; $10.15 per light more than Ashland.

"I'll Tell Papa on You" is the title of a new and most delightful song composed by Fred Lane, and published by J. Fischer & Bro., No. 7 Bible House, New York, price 40 cents. It is written in a sweet, flowing and graceful style, with a pleasing and effective accompaniment. We predict for it a merited success.

Judge Stearns has made a flying trip to Oakland and returned. The judge reports that the people of Oakland are up and doing preparing to put the road through to the Bohemia mines as fast as money and men can do it as soon as the weather will permit. This is a worthy enterprise and will add much to the future well being of Oaklanders in particular and Douglas county in general, as it will open up a mart for considerable trade and furnish in return a large addition to the county revenue.

Geo. M. Brown, district attorney, is in Corvallis attending the circuit court. This will be Mr. Brown's last appearance as public prosecutor for some time. Mr. W. E. Yates secured the nomination for that office. Mr. Brown has made a splendid officer and has gained the friendship and esteem of a great many Corvallis people. His failure to secure the nomination was not due to any criticism of himself, officially or personally, but was on account of a feeling that Douglas county was not entitled to both judge and district attorney.—Corvallis Gazette.

To the Public.

I have bought the meat market formerly run by J. Bitzer, and will continue at the old stand. I shall endeavor to furnish the people of Roseburg with the best of meat, hoping to get a share of the public patronage, and that Bitzer's old patrons will stay with me.

I am, yours to please,
H. T. BLUM.

Coming.

Don't forget that Richards & Pringle's Famous Georgia Minstrels will be at the Roseburg Theatre, Monday night, April 27th. Reserved seats, 50 cents.

The Charleston W. V. Daily Gazette has the following:

Richards & Pringle's Famous Georgia Minstrels were greeted by a large audience at the Burlew last night. The olio was full of wit and repartee and evoked much merriment and applause, especially the crap scene. Billy Kerns was "hot stuff," and was repeatedly encored. The juggling was perhaps the best that has been seen here, and the female impersonation was almost perfect. The singing was all very good, particularly that of the Quartette, and the finale was one of the richest things Charleston has witnessed for a long time. Taken from beginning to end the entertainment was a good one—laughter-provoking, extravagant and absurd. The Georgia Minstrels will always have a good house when they visit Charleston.

Athletic Entertainment.
The athletic entertainment at Armory Hall Saturday night was fairly well patronized by an appreciative audience. The boxing proved to be a scientific exhibition of the manly art, and not a "slugging" match, and the various contestants were frequently and heartily applauded. Great credit is due to Prof. Shnyder, under whose management the entertainment was given, for the successful manner in which the program was carried out.

The World's Fair Tests showed no baking powder so pure or so great in leavening power as the Royal.
