

THE PLAINDALE

MAY 2, 1896.

U. S. Department of Agriculture Weather Bureau.

ROSEBURG, ORE., May 2, 1896. BAROMETR. 15 a. m. Pacific time—29.72. 10 p. m. Pacific time—29.78. MAXIMUM temperature, 54. MINIMUM temperature, 45. Rainfall for the 24 hours ending 5 p. m., .75. Total rainfall since 1st of month, 1.54. Average rainfall for this month for 18 years, 1.59. Total rainfall from Sept. 1, 1895, to date, 20.58. Average rainfall from Sept. 1, to date, 21.06. Accumulated excess from Sept. 1, 1895, to date, 4.92. Average precipitation for 18 wet seasons, 33.36.

The weather flags displayed represent the forecast applying to the 24 hours ending at 5 p. m. to-morrow. (If more than one kind of weather is predicted for that period, the conditions first named in the forecast will be represented by the uppermost weather flag.) A white flag indicates clear or fair weather; a blue flag, rain or snow. The flag of which the upper half is white and the lower half blue, local rain or snow. A black triangular pennant indicates the temperature and when displayed above a weather flag indicates warmer, and when displayed below, cooler. The temperature flag is never displayed alone. Its absence indicates stationary weather. The cold wave flag, white with black square in the center, when displayed on the Pacific coast, indicates frost.

THOS. GIBSON, Observer.

PORTLAND, OR., MAY 1, 1896. 8 a. m.—Weather forecast for the next 36 hours, for Roseburg and vicinity: Tonight and Tuesday, continued rain.

HUSTINGS AT MYRTLE CREEK.

Saturday, May 23, the contending forces in a three cornered political contest had a set to at Myrtle Creek, at 2 p. m. Hon. A. M. Crawford, the republican candidate for the legislature, led off in a speech on the political issues of the day. His remarks were well received. S. F. Flood followed in one of his fiery castigations of republicanism, without assaying a reply to Mr. Crawford's remarks on the principles of the republican party, viz: tariff and finances, winding up with caustic abuse of American citizens for entertaining opinions at variance with his views.

G. W. Riddle next spoke in reply to Flood, in which Flood came out second best. Mr. Chaney, democratic nominee for the legislature aired his democratic views. He admitted that if elected he would vote for John H. Mitchell, a republican, for United States senator. He also admitted that democratic free trade had proved a failure.

Others took part in the discussion, among whom were Douglas Waite, democratic nominee for county school superintendent, Ben Agee, democratic candidate for sheriff, R. L. Stephens, democratic candidate for county clerk and D. R. Shambrook, republican candidate for sheriff. These latter gentlemen had but little to say, except to advocate their personal claims for the offices desired.

In the evening J. F. Garley, populist nominee for state senator, A. S. Chaney, democratic nominee for the legislature, and G. W. Riddle, nominee of the republicans for the legislature, were speaking when our reporter left at 10 p. m.

From a thorough canvass of the place it was evident the democrats were not enthusing over the prospect of success in June.

The democratic speakers admitted that the free trade doctrine of the party had proved a failure. Their chief stock in trade was caustic abuse of the republicans. It was evident they were not gaining strength by that contest.

The Review's Michael Liber boistering is proving to be an Irishman's boast—"a peg lower."

The people everywhere are becoming disgusted with the senseless abuse of them by the "greatest country newspaper."

It was a Waterloo for democracy at Myrtle Creek.

Another Pioneer Gone.

Last Saturday at his home near Meirrose, Henry Conn, Sr., passed over the mystic river. Mr. Conn came to Oregon and settled in Douglas county in the winter of 1853. His funeral was held at the Masonic Hall to day at 1 p. m. under the auspices of Laurel Lodge, A. F. & A. M., of which he was an honored member. Mr. Conn was one of the sturdy old pioneers, a man of business and enterprise who was largely instrumental in making Douglas county what it is—one of the leading counties in the state. So one by one these old pioneers fall around us like autumn leaves after having adorned with their green foliage the tree upon which they grew.

Mr. Conn was a marked character to whom all looked for counsel and advice in the enterprises of the country. Mr. Conn will long be remembered by the people of this county as one of nature's noblemen—an upright man. His funeral was largely attended by his old companions and neighbors with whom he had labored for nearly half a century. Now that he has gone to his reward let us cherish his many acts of kindness and neighborly virtues.

B. P. O. E. Notice.

A special meeting of Roseburg Lodge, No. 326 B. P. O. E. Elks, is called for Wednesday evening, May 6, at 8:30 p. m. All members and visiting brothers are requested to attend. HERMAN MARKS, Secretary.

Guess 73

Drew the jar of money at the Racket Store, held by Mr. A. H. Dickermann. B. A. Briggs held 72, B. F. Lohr held 71, B. D. Sanford held 74 and T. E. Little held 75. Master Hardy Howard did the drawing.

There are this year but two candidates in the field for district attorney in the second judicial district. W. E. Yates of Corvallis is the republican nominee, and J. M. Upton has been nominated by the populists and democrats. But little is known here of Mr. Upton save that his father was editor of the Corvallis Gazette many years ago. The republican nominee is well known in his adopted county. He is a good citizen, a sound lawyer, and perfectly qualified for the position.—Corvallis Times (democratic).

CALAPOOIA.

Wild strawberries are getting ripe. Horace Deardorff made a business trip to Roseburg last week.

John Bishop has been laid up with the rheumatism the past week.

Mrs. Dora Thornton of Idaho is here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Bishop.

We are glad to learn that John Kerley and family, who left here last fall and went to Grants Pass, will return during the coming summer to remain.

After a great deal of talk and a little investigation it has been found that John Ellison belongs in school district No. 60. Rush Thornberg is canvassing for Mrs. Cleveland's picture. He is also agent for two different kinds of proprietary medicines and a soap that will clean anything cleanable.

There will be a box supper at the Calapooia school house on the 9th of May, also a few choice recitations will be rendered by some of the scholars of the public school. The proceeds will be donated for the benefit of Calapooia's Sunday school.

It is all wrong for people to ridicule candidates' relatives and is sure to cause a reaction in favor of the candidate. It is hard times when the clap trap politician cannot find anything against a candidate and has to resort to the family records where he cannot find anything but the size of one and the color of his cravat to object to.

If G. K. does not desire to be branded as a public falsifier he will correct his statement in the Review of April 30th, wherein he said this correspondent "was the cat's paw that would play the part of scout for the little secret sect that pays him for his services." O. K.'s identity is well known here and he is given an opportunity to retract. This thing of accusing your correspondent of being hired to aid (what he calls a curse) is something that will not be passed unnoticed, and a retraction or the proof of the truthfulness of the assertion must come that the public may judge of the unjust accusation against the A. P. A. order by a man who has given himself away by the small thing he has done.

LOOKING GLASS.

Cold and rainy weather. Crops are looking well, considering so much rain and cold weather.

P. G. T. B. Williams is a daily attendant of the Looking Glass school. That's right Bose. Improve your time, for life is short.

B. Cave, candidate for justice of the peace, was seen on the streets of Looking Glass, shaking hands with his many friends.

Quite an interesting game of base ball was witnessed at Looking Glass, May 23, between the Looking Glass first nine and the old married men. The score stood 14 to 11 in favor of the old men. The boys of the first nine slipped away one by one, looking down at their feet like a band of peafowls when robbed of their plumage. Much credit is due to Captain Henry Churchill for the interest he took in training his men. I. B. Howard made some fancy plays in left field which would have been a credit to any league player.

People are expecting to hear from Michael, the arch angel, in the next issue of the Review. OCCASIONAL.

DRAIN.

Forest McClay of Elktion passed through here on his way to California Saturday.

J. L. Mitchell of Portland, Deputy Supreme Commander of the K. O. T. M., delivered a lecture here Thursday evening on the aims and purposes of the order.

Harry Watkins, the populist nominee for presidential elector, addressed the people of this place Wednesday evening on the political issue of the day. Unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1, and the abolishing of the national banks, formed the subject of his talk.

The Knights of the Macabees initiated seven candidates at their hall Saturday night. The Macabees is one of the best beneficiary orders in existence, and is growing very rapidly.

A Perfect Poultry Raiser. My scientific poultry raiser is now on the market. It receives the chicks when 24 hours old. Has no artificial heat. Has all the desirable qualities of the mother hen, with additions. Protects from hawks. Puts to roost after one week old. Takes care of several sizes and ages at once. It requires but small space in the yard or flower garden. Is ornamental as a bird house. Seldom loses a chick. A ten-year-old boy or girl can manage one with a hundred chicks as well as an expert. For further particulars address Mrs. Evelyn Maxum, Canas Valley, Douglas county, Oregon.
