Catarrh is a local, not a blood disease, caused by sudden change to cold or damp weather. It starts in the nasal passages, affecting eyes, cars and throat. Cold in the head causes excessive flow of mucus, and, if repeatedly neglected, the results of catarrh will follow: severe pain in the head, a rouring sound in the cars, bad breath, and oftentimes an offensive discharge. The remedy should be quick to allay inflammation and heal the membrane. Ely's Cream Balm is the acknowledged cure for these troubles and contains no mercury nor any injurious drug. Price, 50 cents.

OBITUARY.

Henry Conn, Sr, the subject of this memoir was born in Pennsylvania, October 12, 1816, where he was married to 12,779 50 Miss Mary J. Stultz. From Pennsyl-12,814 30 vanis he my vaid with his family to Cass vania he moved with his family to Cass 3,804 30 county, Indiana. From there he went to Iowa for Oregon and crossed the plains in 1854, and arrive l in Douglas 1,508 county in the fall of that year and settled near where he lived and die i Mr. Conn was the father of eleven children, ten of whom survive him, viz: George and Virgil who reside at Paisley, Lake county; Henry, James, Harmon S., F. M., and Mary E., who died several years ago; Anna E., now Mrs. John McCurdy, of Yoncalls, J. C. Conn of Silver Lake, Or., and LaFavette and N. S. Cenn.

Mr. Conn came to Oregon when it was comparatively a howling wilders ess, and spent the vigor of his manhood in making Douglas county blo som as a rose. He reared a large and respectable family most of whom are well to do and influential citizens of Oregon. But all that is earthly must pass away under the operation of an immutable law of birth, life and death. Mr. Conn in his youth and adolescent years labored with might and main to do his duty as a father, friend, neighbor and citizen and did his part well and went to his reward at the close of a long life of usefulness, with honors clustering like a mantel around him.

The Fruit Prospect. After interviewing several fruitgrowers upon the subject we are led to believe the Italian prones will be a total failure this year in the Umpqua valley. In an interview with W. C. Winston, one of the large fruit growers in this valley, he gave it as his opinion that the cause of failure of this variety of prune is attributable to the continued wet and cold weather during the time of bloom. This. he thought, prevented the fertilization of the fruit, and as a consequence the fruit is blighting and falling off.

The silver prune with him bloomed earlier and during day weather. The weather being favorable at the time of bloom the young fruit was duly fertilized, and as a result this variety of prone is doing well and the trees are well filled. But whatever may be the cause the Italians will be a complet failure this year with Mr. Winston. The petites also are doing well, having blocmed in dry weather. The peach crop in some localities is also a failure, while in others it will be fair. At present apples bid fair for a good crop if no calamity befalls them from now on.

The failure of the Italian prunes will fall heavily upon our fruitgrowers this year as the growers have been at consid- W. W. CARDWELL. erable expense pruning and spraying their trees. Many had calculated on a fair yield and remunerative prices.

Answered.

EDITOR PLAINDEALER: In a recent issue of the PLAINDEALER, the question is asked that since the demonetization of silver was not till 1873, why the decline of silver from 136 in 1859 to 132 in 1872. And why the advance from 53 in 1892 to 68 in less than one year without favorable legislation, is the question we would like some populist to answer.

Not being a populist in name, but an in lependent republican, and one among a vast army of free coinage bimetalists. I hereby will answer this little agestion. by stating that said decline was brought about in the contemplated great crime of 73, and the present advance is in the face of a coming free coinage president. Then give us a free coinage sepate and a free coinage house when silver will at Family Groceries, once jump to 129% per ounce, in spite of the combined derrimental moneypower of the old world.

The said question smacks strong of the periodical gold bug, storeotyped offerings of the Rothschild school, sown breadcast accompained with cash throughout the Union to hood-wink the Fruits, Nuts, French Candies, Confectioners
