John Cannaday returned to his old stamping ground last Tuesday from Arizona and Colorado, where he has been sojourning several months. John is looking hale and hearty and tells some rattling snake stories. He saw a set of rattles that measured six inches in length, there being 40 rattles in the set. He also saw the man that said they had rattlesakes there seven and eight feet long. He does not seem to be very well pleased with the country, to much wind and sandstorms and not enough water. He says it is a relief to breath fresh, clean air again.

THURLY.

Free Till After Election.

It is reported here that the Anti-A. P. A.'s have made arrangements with the Winery, near Cleveland, to furnish their wine free to all who will vote the Anti-A. P. A. ticket at the election next June. All ready, it is said, this deal is having its effect by producing drunkenness and bacchanalian revels and in corrupting the morals of the young men of that vicinity.

For the sake of preserving the good name of Douglas County, we hope such as reported above, is not a fact. If it is a fact however, it is morally certain that the Anti's are putting up the spondulicks to pay for it.
