Fisher Has to Publish a Detraction of his Statements.

In Monday's issue of the Review Fisher states that some of our most reputable citizens were about to get on his "fusion" car, and great was his howl thereat. This being democratic property this year, he naturally felt like protesting, and proceeds to file his usual abusive bill of false accusations. It transpires now he has to take it back, for in Thurgday's Review we see that Messrs.
