

THE PLAINDEALER

MAY 28, 1896.

U. S. Department of Agriculture Weather Bureau.

ROSEBURG, Ore., May 27, 1896. BAROMETER 55 a. m. Pacific time—30.06. 5 p. m. Pacific time—29.91.

Maximum temperature, 78. Minimum temperature, 50. Rainfall for the 24 hours ending 5 p. m., 0. Total rainfall since last month, 4.52.

The weather flags displayed represent the forecast applying to the 24 hours ending at 8 m. to-morrow.

MEMORIAL SERVICES.

The Memorial services of the G. A. R. will be held in the Opera House on Saturday, May 30th, 1896, at 10:30.

Reading of order. Music by the choir. Prayer by Rev. G. W. Kennedy. Music by the choir.

A bicycle at your own price, if you don't want one for nothing. A Remington $100 wheel. See it at the Bowling Alley.

Sol Abraham who has been at Glendale for several weeks for his health, returned Monday feeling better in many respects.

James Hamilton, who has been "swinging round the circle" in the interests of the democratic party, has returned with a downcast countenance.

Mr. J. C. Stuart, manager of the Great Tyndall, the hypnotist, is in the city today, preparing for the exhibition of Tyndall's wonderful psychic powers.

All the latest and most improved methods in use and employed at Dr. Strange's. No students to experiment and no transient dentists to operate them.

Hon. A. M. Crawford, nominee on the republican ticket, returned last night from his canvassing tour in the north end of the county, and reports the outlook favorable for the whole ticket.

Messrs. John Givens and Elmer McBroom, who had a few words on the streets today over politics were marched up before the city recorder, and shelled out $5 each for their fun.

W. H. Shoemaker of Oak Creek is in the city today. Dr. Strange returned yesterday from an extended professional visit to the coast.

Milton Dabel of Canyonville called on us today, and reports all things hopeful for the republican ticket. James Laird of Silem, Coos county, is in the city today on business and appears to be in rather poor health.

Capt. G. W. Peters, who has been in the city several days on business, returned to Oakland on the local this morning. Geo. M. Brown will address the citizens of Myrtle Creek on political issues Friday afternoon, at one o'clock. Turn out everybody.

Joint discussion at the court house, Friday night, between democrats, republicans and populists. Turn out and hear them speak. J. M. Upton, the populist-democrat nominee for district attorney, left this morning for Junction city to attend the grand round-up of the campaign.

BRIEF MENTION.

Gold or porcelain crowns at Dr. Strange's office. Dr. F. W. Hayes does all kinds of up-to-date dentistry.

Bridge work, the latest fad in dentistry, at Dr. Strange's office. James Moore of Canas Valley came in today on business.

Mrs. N. Selig of Myrtle Creek is a guest at the Van Honten. J. T. Galvan of Grants Pass is registered at the McClallen.

Mrs. W. F. Briggs of Canyonville is registered at the McClallen. P. B. Beckley the cattle king of Oakland is registered at the Van Honten.

Jack Van Ornum of Coles Valley, late of Chico, Cal., called upon us Wednesday. Wood, wheat, oats and other produce taken in payment for dentistry by Dr. Strange.

Plates made of gold, aluminum, rubber or celluloid by Dr. Strange, Taylor & Wilson block. J. L. Dewey of Glendale, democratic nominee for the legislature, was in the city yesterday.

Dr. Hayes does crown and bridge work and guarantees the same. Don't forget the number. The election of teachers for the Roseburg Public School will be held at the clerk's office, June 3, 1896.

Hon. G. W. Riddle of Glenbrook farm and candidate for the legislature on the republican ticket, is in the city today. Dr. Hayes makes all kinds of artificial dentures such as gold, platinum and aluminum plates, also rubber and celluloid.

A bicycle at your own price, if you don't want one for nothing. A Remington $100 wheel. See it at the Bowling Alley.

Sol Abraham who has been at Glendale for several weeks for his health, returned Monday feeling better in many respects.

James Hamilton, who has been "swinging round the circle" in the interests of the democratic party, has returned with a downcast countenance.

Mr. J. C. Stuart, manager of the Great Tyndall, the hypnotist, is in the city today, preparing for the exhibition of Tyndall's wonderful psychic powers.

All the latest and most improved methods in use and employed at Dr. Strange's. No students to experiment and no transient dentists to operate them.

Hon. A. M. Crawford, nominee on the republican ticket, returned last night from his canvassing tour in the north end of the county, and reports the outlook favorable for the whole ticket.

Messrs. John Givens and Elmer McBroom, who had a few words on the streets today over politics were marched up before the city recorder, and shelled out $5 each for their fun.

W. H. Shoemaker of Oak Creek is in the city today. Dr. Strange returned yesterday from an extended professional visit to the coast.

Milton Dabel of Canyonville called on us today, and reports all things hopeful for the republican ticket. James Laird of Silem, Coos county, is in the city today on business and appears to be in rather poor health.

Capt. G. W. Peters, who has been in the city several days on business, returned to Oakland on the local this morning. Geo. M. Brown will address the citizens of Myrtle Creek on political issues Friday afternoon, at one o'clock. Turn out everybody.

Joint discussion at the court house, Friday night, between democrats, republicans and populists. Turn out and hear them speak. J. M. Upton, the populist-democrat nominee for district attorney, left this morning for Junction city to attend the grand round-up of the campaign.

H. D. Grays who has been down with the measles for several days is able to be up and around, but he does not want his photo taken for a while yet. Dale Willie had a run away this morning. His horse became frightened on the road east of town and in his mad career dumped his driver out, turned over the carriage and somewhat damaged it, but Dale escaped with slight bruises.

LETTERS FROM GLIDE.

What the People There Think of the Review Lies. Glide, Or., May 27, 1896.

EDITOR PLAINDEALER: In the Review of the 21st appears an article, "Baxter Overmatched." It states that "His remarks were a tissue of falsehoods from start to finish." Now a spirit of fairness and justice demands that the Review must not judge other people by its own reputation for truth and veracity.

Mr. Baxter read sections of the Declaration of Independence and of the constitution of the United States. Does the Review call these falsehoods? Does not the Review know that when it can make no other answer to the facts presented by Mr. Baxter than that "you're a liar" that reasoning people are getting disgusted with its campaign of vituperation and vilification? Slander, falsehood, vituperation and vilification are the patented weapons of Romanism.

Is the Review seeking the honors (?) of Romanism? As to Mr. "Shoeman completely breaking the force of Mr. Baxter's remarks," such is not true. Perhaps because Shoeman tried to get into the Roseburg Council of the A. P. A., and because they had the right to select their company and black-balled him when he tried to become an A. P. A., he lashed out for a chance to get even on them. But how did he do so. By beginning his remarks thus: "I am an ignorant, hot-headed dutchman. I have nothing to say about the principles of the A. P. A. I think they are good." Shoeman not only convinced many of the audience of the truth of Mr. Baxter's remarks, but positively affirmed parts of his remarks, while taking exceptions to others.

Schoeman's effort was the long sought for chance for revenge, because the A. P. A.'s black-balled him on June 29, 1894, and he did exactly what others of his ilk have done, because they were fortunate enough to get in but were afterward dishonorably expelled.

Now as to N. T. Bridges. Bridges did not say he was personally acquainted with the Booth family, as claimed by the Review. Even if he did make this alleged statement, it must be remembered that neither Schoeman nor Bridges could nor did they present any documentary evidence to substantiate their remarks. Again, when Bridges commenced his remarks he did so in these exact words: "I am an ignorant man. I am a Southern man and a democrat. I have a history at home that gives the account of the assassination of Lincoln, and Booth was a Catholic. Booth did what I or any other true Southern man would have done. He said he would kill Lincoln and he did it, and G—d—I, I glory in his spunk. He did just what he said he would do and I would have done the same thing." Mr. Surratt, who was hung for the assassination of the immortal Lincoln, said: "The death of Lincoln is no more than the death of any nigger in the army." Here in Douglas county, at the Walker schoolhouse on May 19, 1896, N. T. Bridges, one of the champions of the Roseburg Review, declared to the world that he "gloried in the assassination of Abraham Lincoln," and that he would have done the same thing himself. What will the old soldiers think of this, and what will they do when it is backed up by the Review by patting such men as this man Bridges on the back. This is how Schoeman and Bridges refuted Mr. Baxter's arguments.

The Review says Mr. Baxter "attacked the county democratic ticket, and advocated the election of the A. P. A. ticket." Mr. Baxter never spoke one word against the democratic ticket nor did he advocate the election of any ticket in either of his two lectures. He never spoke one single word either for or against any party ticket in Douglas county. Now what does the Review expect to gain by such misrepresentations as this? Does it not know that Mr. Baxter delivered a second lecture at the Free Ferry school house and that both Schoeman and Bridges were there? If they were a match for Mr. Baxter why did they not reply to his second lecture? Does the Review not know that it has made no friends by its article, in Mt. Scott precinct? Does it not know that the two large audiences that greeted Mr. Baxter cannot read its article without a feeling of shame and disgust? Does it not know that even those who were opposed to Mr. Baxter, and who will countenance fairness and justice feels ashamed of this kind of championship by it?

CHAS. BANSCH, W. H. LOTT, G. E. BANSCH, H. A. BLAKELY, W. M. TIPTON, H. BARKEE, R. H. BARKEE, LESTER BLAKELY, R. T. BLAKELY, J. M. CADY.

The last signer, J. M. Cassidy, can substantiate only in so far as Schoeman is concerned, he having left the hall before Bridges spoke.

ED. PLAINDEALER: In another article in the Review of May 25 and signed by some coward that was ashamed to put his name to such an infamous falsehood, the Review says, "We teach justice and liberality." Great God, what a misnomer! We propose to give these malicious lies to the public, for the reason that they are published by the Review as its favorite method, and seems to be the only kind of campaign it is capable of conducting, for no other reason than the defeat of the republican party.

Le No. 1. Mr. Baxter never made the statement that a "Catholic institution burned at San Francisco and that 100,000 Winchester rifles and three or four our loads of cartridges were stacked on the sidewalk."

Le No. 2. Mr. Baxter never stated that a "little woman" whipped the entire Catholic force down there with a Winchester.

Le No. 3. Mr. Baxter never spoke of nor gave utterance to Phil Sheridan. He quoted from Gen. W. T. Sherman.

Le No. 4. Mr. Baxter never stated that "ex-President Harrison had established 40 banks on Wall street in New York for the purpose of helping the Catholics pay the expenses of its own banks to this country." He quoted from the Congressional Record that congress authorized President Harrison to appoint a commission to investigate into the question of the enormous immigration of undesirable immigrants into the United States, and that Mr. Schmitt was placed at the head of that commission and began his investigations in the city of New York, and that he found 40 Italian banks which had in their employ in Italy 200 agents, who had in their employ 2000 sub-agents, who received 45 cents for every person they induced to migrate to the United States, and that it was found out that the Romanists deposited the money in these banks for this purpose.

Le No. 5. Mr. Baxter never stated that the Catholics offered "some three or four millions armed soldiers when the disturbance was going on between the United States and Venezuela." Mr. Baxter stated that to prove there were secret armed and political orders in this country inimical to the interests of the people at large that "it was only necessary to note that the American Order of Hibernians rendered the services of 25,000 men in the city of San Francisco, Cal., armed, drilled and equipped and ready for action in ten days notice. Now this matter was published in the San Francisco daily papers, and Mr. Baxter asked "who armed, informed, equipped and drilled these Hibernians?" Who are they? They are no part nor parcel of the government of this country.

Le No. 6. Mr. Baxter never stated "that there was disturbance in the schools and the United States troops were called out and shelled the Catholics." Mr. Baxter quoted from a standard work from an eminent author, E. H. Walsh, ex-Treasurer and pastor of the Reform and Catholic church, and editor of the Primitive Catholic, author of "The Mark of Gethsemane Abbey," "The Confession Box," etc., as follows, page 45, "Romanism," by E. H. Walsh: "These public schools are a devouring fire and pits of destruction. They ought to go back to the devil from whence they come. Also, 'The common schools of this country are a nest of snakes, a den of vipers and a source of hell.' Also, 'I frankly confess that the Catholics are the enemy of the country as the enemies of the public schools.' Also, 'The public schools have produced nothing but a generation of thieves and blackguards.' Mr. Baxter quoted from the Catholic World for February, 1894, as follows: 'This paper condemns the Catholic platform of the republican party, September 8, 1876, for resolving that 'the free school is the bulwark of the American Republic in ten days notice. Now this matter was published in the Cincinnati, June 15, 1876, for declaring in favor of the public school system, but also condemned the same as 'anti-Catholic prejudice,' and 'hypocritical insincerity.' Several of our Roman Catholic papers are singing Te Deum in the streets of this city. The republican party, led by big game, reckoned with the Catholics.' President Harrison was elected as a bigot and was defeated, and Roman Catholic newspapers claim this as their victory."

Now the Review is doing what democratic papers are doing everywhere. Diagnosed with and to the Review, they speak the truth on that matter. There is not a man who heard Mr. Baxter's lectures and who will admit that the Review is a base, malicious mass of falsehoods from start to finish. They were published to deceive the people in this country, and prejudice them against the republican ticket. The people in Mt. Scott precinct don't believe these lies for they attended those lectures and know better.

CHAS. BANSCH, W. H. LOTT, G. E. BANSCH, H. A. BLAKELY, W. M. TIPTON, H. BARKEE, R. H. BARKEE, LESTER BLAKELY, R. T. BLAKELY, J. M. CADY.

YONCALLA.

We are enjoying fine weather at last. Born to Mr. and Mrs. John Kruss, on May 22nd, a son of the usual weight. All parties concerned doing well. John says that means another republican vote.

Also to Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Truax on May 20, a daughter. Mother and child doing as well as could be expected.

Little Emma Guth, the eight-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Guth, departed from this life after a short but severe attack of brain fever, on May 21st, and was buried on Friday, May 22nd. She was a sweet, loving little child beloved by all who knew her, and will be sadly missed by all of her playmates.

The most touching incident during the funeral ceremonies was the placing of a bouquet of lovely flowers on her grave by her playmates. The funeral ceremonies were conducted by Elder E. P. Billington, of the Christian church. The bereaved parents have the sincere sympathy of the entire community.

Hons. Geo. M. Brown and C. A. Schlabre spoke in Yett's hall at 2 o'clock p. m., yesterday, upon the issues of the day and presented the questions of protection and solid finance in a forcible and convincing manner and we think will have the effect of convincing those fellows who have been sitting on the fence so long that the policy of protection and sound money is what we are needing and that had, to cure the existing financial depression of the present time. We would like to say a word to the republican voters of Douglas county, and that is this, Let every one who believes in the prosperity and welfare of the nation, stand firm next Monday, and also in November next, for the nominees and principles of the grand old party. There is being circulated over this land vile and malicious falsehoods not only about the nominees of the republican ticket, but against the nominating conventions of this county, by the democrats, assisted by a few soreheads, so-called republicans, who failed to receive anything at the hands of the convention or the several primaries. But so mote it be. The G. O. P. can well afford to shake off these brackles and let them drop into the arms of the democratic party where they virtually belong. Let us beware of all these cries of wolf, wolf or A. P. A., for every sensible republican knows that it is all both, and used to divert the true republican from the obligations devolving upon him as a true American citizen in the coming campaign.

CHAS. BANSCH, W. H. LOTT, G. E. BANSCH, H. A. BLAKELY, W. M. TIPTON, H. BARKEE, R. H. BARKEE, LESTER BLAKELY, R. T. BLAKELY, J. M. CADY.

GRAND ENTERTAINMENT.

Tomorrow night, the Opera House will be the scene of the most interesting and edifying entertainments ever witnessed in Roseburg. It will be the occasion of Prof. Alex J. McIvor Tyndall's grand demonstration of his marvelous, psychic power, when he will read men's minds like an open book, and perform many other strange and beautiful feats in occultism, such as has not been seen by mortal eye in this city. The following is a sample of the thousands of exclamations elicited at the conclusion of each test from distinguished people: "I came to witness the drive full of skepticism, but returned home a converted man. It was a wonderful display of psychic force that every one should see."—Rev. Abbott, Albany, Or. "I had no confidence in Prof. Tyndall's ability to accomplish what he advertised but after accompanying him on his blindfold carriage drive I was non-plussed! dumbfounded! bewildered! I am convinced of his strange psychic power, but cannot comprehend it."—Prof. Hawthorne, professor of psychology, University, Eugene.

"Prof. Tyndall is the most mysterious man I have ever met, and his work is chaste, beautiful and most interesting."—Rev. Rose, pastor Christian church, Eugene.

"It is a grand exhibition of psychic mystery and must be seen to be appreciated."—Father Black, Pastor Catholic church, Eugene.

"All Eugene is talking of you. Some superstitious people fear you. The most scientific of us are profoundly puzzled, and after you are gone we will often wonder what you are anyhow."—Rev. W. S. Gilbert, Pastor lat Presbyterian church, Eugene, Or.

See his exciting and perilous blindfold carriage drive at 7 o'clock to-morrow evening from the McClallen house. Come early and get good positions. Admission to Opera House, 50 and 25 cents. Doors open at 7:15. Demonstration at 8:15.

Eight at a Clatter, CANYONVILLE, Or., May 27, 1896. EDITOR PLAINDEALER:—We the undersigned subscribers of the Roseburg Review, respectfully request that our subscription be discontinued on account of villainous attacks and the slanderous reports made upon respectable citizens of Douglas county. Please send us our bill and we will cheerfully remit.

Mrs. E. Briggs, Overland Hotel. J. S. Benson, Druggist. J. A. McCully, Miner. J. R. Pickett, Sawmill. J. F. Overstreet, Sawmill. Mark D. Briggs, Farmer. W. F. Briggs, Jr., Livery.

Let the Cat Out. One of Roseburg's saloon clerks was overheard to say last Tuesday: "Why don't Shambook put up for the whiskey? We have Avege whiskey here, but no Shambook whiskey."

A small "scrap" occurred on Jackson street today as the result of a little misunderstanding on "Jeffersonian democracy," but a third party stepped in, and no one calling "time," the scrap was brought to a stop and our mission is ended.

The W. C. T. U. will meet this evening the 28th inst., at the residence of Mrs. Clara Berry, corner of Jackson and Lane streets. All are invited to attend the meeting.

Sheep dip at Marsters'.

SCOTTSBURG.

Ed Patterson had a load of sturgeon one morning last week.

Rev. Mr. Huddleston of Elkton preached in the Long prairie school house on the 24th. He will fill appointments at that place on the fourth Sunday of each month.

Tom Patterson, a son of John Patterson, was quite severely kicked by a horse last Friday. It was feared some of the ribs were fractured.

Dave Butler and Stiles Hurd are logging a few miles above town on one of the numerous branches which flow into the Umpqua.

Nolan Grubbe expects to move his family down to Long prairie for the summer next month.

Movements have been made for a republican club, and will without doubt, find a full quorum and earnest interest. At no time for many years have voters become so enthusiastic as at the present time and many are the words were waged between those of adverse opinions, and very few turn from their original views.

The ebb and flow of candidates is quite steady, and although there has been but little public speaking the majority of the voters are gratified to see the men for whom they are expected to cast their ballots next Monday.

A Reed has returned to Gardiner, and it is a natural supposition that he will not wander far until after the votes are cast anyway.

Jobe Hatfield, E. H. Burchard, H. Weatherly, M. D. Thompson and several others were at Gardiner recently.

Mrs. John Hedden has gone to Elkton on a visit.

The rain stopped recently for a while and the farmers succeeded in getting their grain sown. It was never finished so late in spring before.

It is expected that the Long prairie Sunday school will reorganize next Sunday.

GLENDALE.

C. Jackson, populist candidate for representative, addressed a fair sized audience at this place on Sunday evening. The most noticeable event of the occasion was that the meeting was presided over and the speaker introduced by the Hon. James E. Blundell, one of the pillars of the republican party. Mr. Blundell is characteristically kind-hearted and sympathetic, and Mr. Jackson being a pupil of his in former years, and when Mr. B. noticed the scarcity of populists in the audience, in genuine sympathy he accorded Mr. Jackson his aid. And it seemed a due need of appreciation that Mr. Jackson's arguments were a continual malediction upon the republican party, and an individual attack upon all of our county candidates. He almost ignored the democratic party by saying that it was in a "hopeless minority." While we admit that fact was true, we are sure the populists will stand two degrees below the democrats in minority. Mr. Jackson's speech was well delivered on a clear enunciation of populist principles; and while we regard Mr. Jackson as a rising young man of intelligence, we regard his political views as one of the mistakes of the century.

M. Sheep dip at Marsters'.

M. Sheep dip at Marsters'.

M. Sheep dip at Marsters'.

M. Sheep dip at Marsters'.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report. Royal Baking Powder ABSOLUTELY PURE

SAMPLE BAALLOT Remember! Put an X between the number and the name of the candidate you desire to vote for, thus: FOR STATE SENATOR— Vote for one 23 J. F. Gazley, Jr., of Douglas county.....Peoples 24 X A. W. Reed of Douglas county.....Republican

TEETH WITHOUT PLATES.

Seamless Gold Bridges are the Latest.

Examine your teeth and see if you do not need a structure in your mouth like one of these bridges. Cut number 1, represents a month where the four front teeth have been extracted from the upper jaw. Cut number 2, represents the Bridge that will fill the space. Cut No. 3, shows the Bridge in position. Cut number 4, shows a space on right side of lower jaw, where the two large molars are gone. Cut number 5, is the Bridge that will make the chewing ability as good as it ever was. Cut number 6, is the Bridge in position. The above cuts represent Permanent Bridges, and when once placed and set you cannot get them out. They are just as easily kept clean as your Natural teeth. They are made of all gold, or gold with porcelain facing. Dentistry is holding its own in the race of progressive development compared to our other luxuries. To this end I am taking out cumbersome, annoying old plates and replacing them with beautiful Seamless Gold Crowns, and Permanent Bridges. Teeth filled absolutely without pain, also extracted by the use of Nitrous Oxide Gas. All kinds of Artificial Teeth made with Gold or Aluminum Teeth. Lower plate made of solid cast metal that will stay in its place and warranted not to bob up while eating. Prices as low as can be done for first-class work. For Further Particulars, Call on Dr. Jackson, In Dr. Davis' Old Office, Roseburg, Oregon.

Dr. Jackson, In Dr. Davis' Old Office, Roseburg, Oregon.

Dr. Jackson, In Dr. Davis' Old Office, Roseburg, Oregon.

Dr. Jackson, In Dr. Davis' Old Office, Roseburg, Oregon.

Dr. Jackson, In Dr. Davis' Old Office, Roseburg, Oregon.

Dr. Jackson, In Dr. Davis' Old Office, Roseburg, Oregon.

Dr. Jackson, In Dr. Davis' Old Office, Roseburg, Oregon.

Dr. Jackson, In Dr. Davis' Old Office, Roseburg, Oregon.

Dr. Jackson, In Dr. Davis' Old Office, Roseburg, Oregon.

Dr. Jackson, In Dr. Davis' Old Office, Roseburg, Oregon.

Dr. Jackson, In Dr. Davis' Old Office, Roseburg, Oregon.

Dr. Jackson, In Dr. Davis' Old Office, Roseburg, Oregon.

Dr. Jackson, In Dr. Davis' Old Office, Roseburg, Oregon.

Dr. Jackson, In Dr. Davis' Old Office, Roseburg, Oregon.

Dr. Jackson, In Dr. Davis' Old Office, Roseburg, Oregon.

Dr. Jackson, In Dr. Davis' Old Office, Roseburg, Oregon.

Dr. Jackson, In Dr. Davis' Old Office, Roseburg, Oregon.

Dr. Jackson, In Dr. Davis' Old Office, Roseburg, Oregon.

Dr. Jackson, In Dr. Davis' Old Office, Roseburg, Oregon.

Dr. Jackson, In Dr. Davis' Old Office, Roseburg, Oregon.

Dr. Jackson, In Dr. Davis' Old Office, Roseburg, Oregon.

Dr. Jackson, In Dr. Davis' Old Office, Roseburg, Oregon.

Dr. Jackson, In Dr. Davis' Old Office, Roseburg, Oregon.

Dr. Jackson, In Dr. Davis' Old Office, Roseburg, Oregon.

Awarded Highest Honors—World's Fair, Gold Medal, Midwinter Fair. DR. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER Most Perfect Made, 40 Years the Standard.