We notice by a late copy of the evening Telegram, that Pool and Case, who are accused of robbing the train in the Cow Creek canyon last summer have been granted a new trial by Judge Bellinger. It seems to be a matter of great justice to the accused, who were committed upon evidence which has been proven to be contradictory and distorted and in this instance the weather bureau became a silent and positive witness in favor of the accused, by contradicting the assertion made by witnesses, that there was only a slight rain, when every person in this valley knew that a general and heavy rain fell during the first week of July last. We, in common with a majority of the residents of south Douglas, honor and commend the wise and just decision of Judge Bellinger in giving those young men a new hearing, and we expect that the result will cause others to be brought to justice, and these two who have waited nearly one year to regain their liberty. Abraham and Cardwell, who are the counsel for the accused, have been tireless in their work for their clients. MOLLIE.

One Hundred Thousand.
The annual clean-up has been finished at the Hampton mine on Grave creek, and the result shows $100,000 in virgin gold. This was obtained from only three of the 100 acres of ground owned by the company. If the yield of the entire property is about the same per acre, it ought to produce over $3,000,000. But the said $100,000 must be offset by heavy expenses. Last year a $50,000 ditch was built, and the year previous another costing a large sum, and for two of the claims $40,000 was paid. On the average 16 men are employed, night and day shifts, who are paid $2 per day without board. Grave creek has been a great producer for years, and many millions lie yet hidden in its bars.

Mr. James Perdue, an old soldier residing at Monroe, Mich., was severely afflicted with rheumatism but received prompt relief from pain by using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. He says: "At times my back would ache so badly that I could hardly raise up. If I had not gotten relief I would not be here to write these few lines. Chamberlain's Pain Balm has done me a great deal of good and I feel very thankful for it." For sale by A. C. Marsters.
