The Democratic party offers "currency reform" for another four years in ary, Wright and McKenzie. the White House. Thanks, no .. not till the country has got the taste of "Tariff Reform" out of its mouth,

A few years ago Democratic speakers cried that protection fostered monopolies, trust and combines, that its operations made such burdensome affairs very natural. But we have not seen a decrease in the number of trusts since a good time is expected. Come and the Wilson bill went into effect, but on bring your dinner. the contrary combines have become
