R. A. Mattson of Looking Glass was on our streets today.

Don't fail to hear Mrs. Baxter at the Baptist church, July 7th.

Mrs. Mary Byron, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Wells of Oialla are at the McClallen.

The excursionists to the Boswell Springs celebration report a very pleasant time.

Leather suspenders, the latest and best suspenders out, at Richards Cash Racket Store.

P. T. McGee of Myrtle Creek made the PLAINDEALER a pleasant call while in the city today.

G. W. Kimball went to Ashland on the Fourth and will spend several weeks in that vicinity.

Thos. Day of Oak Creek dropped in on the PLAINDEALER today for a few moments pleasant chat.

E. L. Woonacott held lucky No. 4, drawing the jar of money at Richards Cash Racket Store.

To Trade—A good young work horse for wood, hay or grain. Leave word at Richards Cash Racket Store.

The K. P. band returned from Fort Jones and the celebration on last night's overland. They report a way-up time.

E. M. Moore and family are here on their regular yearly visit. They have many acquaintances here who are glad to see them back.—Bandon Recorder.

Robert Wilcox, who went to Canyonville on the Fourth, returned in capturing two of the bicycle races—the half-mile and the three-mile race.

The Oregon Observer and Myrtle Point Enterprise issues of the 4th inst. bloom up grandly in patriotic colors—red and blue ink on white paper.

Low Johnson's Colored Minstrels gave a bright interesting performance at the Orpheum. The singing and comedians were particularly good.—Portland, Ore., Mercury.

Caro Bros., closing out sale is drawing crowds to the Boss Store. Low prices and quick sales is the order of the day. Goods must be sold at any sacrifice. Call and see.

E. McElroy was installed N. G. and Sam Vanille V. G. last Saturday night. The other officers-elect were not present and so were not inducted into office by the D. D. G. M.

Coming. Low Johnson's colored minstrel company is coming to Roseburg. Opera house, Wednesday, July 5, one night only. Look out for our brass band and noon street parade.

John Beard has sold his interest in his cigar stand and retired to Jerusalem. From there he goes to Armenia, thence to Timbuctoo, then he will report to the PLAINDEALER a full account of his experiences on route.

J. W. McCully of Canyonville is in the city today. He reports a shooting scrape as occurring there Sunday morning, which originated from a violation of the fourth commandment. It is expected the parties will be brought to the city today or tomorrow.

Died, at her home near Roseburg, June 30th, 1896, Mrs. Lizzie Wilkinson, wife of Ralph Wilkinson, aged 59 years. She was an exemplary and amiable woman, and during her brief residence among us had made many warm friends. She was the mother of twelve children, eleven of whom survive her.

Low Johnson's colored troupe brought back word from Stutz Theatre company that their bad luck was still clinging to them. Johnson's company met them about twenty-five miles south of Gold Beach, and were informed that Stutz's company had just gone through their third accident since leaving Cowe and the last one resulted in the loss of the cover from their wagon.

H. W. Holden, who has been sojourning in Texas and Southern California for the past year, has returned to Oregon and will remain in Douglas county until fall. He does not bring a very favorable report of the prosperity of the localities he has visited, and thinks that Oregon will compare very favorably with them, notwithstanding times are not so brisk here as they might be.

Low Johnson's colored jubilee singers arrived here from down the coast Wednesday, and that night gave an exhibition in Armory hall. The band and orchestra, accompanying the show, are superior to any that has been in Bandon lately. The show itself is one that well deserves the praise and success that has attended it. The irrepressible Hamden and Bailey, are among the stars in this combination, and as they have been before the Coos county public on three former occasions, they need no words of commendation. The company is composed of artists in their line, the songs, dances and gags being new.—Bandon Recorder.

The friends of Rev. Edward Eccleston will be pleased to know that in addition to his having graduated at the S. F. Presbyterian Seminary at San Anselmo, on April 30, he was ordained June 17, and also installed pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Davisville, Cal., where he has ministered to the people for the past year. The services on the latter occasion were quite interesting, and the handsome little church was decorated with a wealth of flowers, such as few countries outside of the Pacific Coast know, and was also crowded by interested spectators, many of whom came from Dixon, a former church, and other places in the vicinity. Rev. Sherman and Judge Mayhew of Sacramento, and Dr. McDonald of Dixon officiated. By this service he is free to perform all the duties of his sacred calling.

S. D. McKesson will soon have on hand a supply of spectacles at reasonable prices. He will also carry a full line of groceries and exchange for country produce. Mr. McKesson shipped a large number of buckskin gloves to Chicago last week.

The members of Douglas Camp, No. 258, W. of W., are requested to attend the meeting on Thursday, July 6, 1896. A full attendance is desired, as installation of officers will be the order of the evening.

TRIVIA.

The Glorious Fourth.

As per programme in last Thursday's PLAINDEALER there was a fine Sunday school celebration in Rose's Grove Saturday.

The published programme, with a slight exception, was carried out. Judge Loughary's oration was pronounced a fine one. Rev. Mr. Kennedy made an able patriotic talk, well worthy the occasion. Mr. G. M. Brown, who was billed to speak did not appear, and Rev. Mr. Davis of Oakland, Cal., was pressed into service and made an excellent speech, which was well received.

The main features of the programme were observed and the large attendance of pleasure seekers were well entertained.

GLENDALE.

Elmer Totten spent the 3d, 4th, and 5th with friends at Days Creek.

W. P. Totten returned from a visit to Days Creek Tuesday and left for Grants Pass Friday to spend the 4th.

Wm. Wilbitt moved his family from Rowe's mill to Tunnel Five.

Mrs. L. P. Beals of Days Creek is expected for an extended visit to her niece, Mrs. Ed. Garrett, and will bring with her the daughter of John Beals who will spend the summer with Mrs. C. P. Totten.

Caro Bros.

Must sell their immense stock inside of sixty days, regardless of cost. If any one wishes to get bargains they must call soon, as they mean business. This is no humbug. If you doubt their word, call and be convinced.

THE FOURTH AT GLIDE.

The Fourth has come and gone, and the good folks of Glide have celebrated in true patriotic style. The oration was delivered by Rev. Geo. Black of Roseburg and was a marvel of oratory, a gem of logic and rhetoric, and last but not least, patriotic in the fullest sense of the word.

The reverend gentleman pointed out the dangers which threaten our country, in a clear and forcible manner. He handled the difficult problems which confront us at the present with the greatest of ease, and clearly defined to us our duty toward our country in the future. He also defended our public school system in an eloquent and earnest manner, claiming that our public school is the cradle of patriotism.

He was heartily applauded at the close of his speech, the audience apparently concurring in his views. Dinner, which was free to all, was then partaken of. The table, although built of 2-inch planks, fairly groaned and creaked under the load of good things to eat. Good order was one of the features of the day, and great credit is due the several committees for the manner in which every thing had been arranged.

After dinner, A. M. Crawford of Roseburg was called upon for a speech and promptly responded. Mr. Crawford is a good speaker and knows how to interest his audience. Patriotic songs were sung by the choir, assisted by Miss Phinetta Blakey with her organ. Horse and foot racing was also indulged in. There was a large crowd on the grounds all day, probably numbering 400 at one time. Conspicuous among those present was his holiness, Pope Innocent I, of Glide. He was the object of considerable attention by the faithful because a rumor was in circulation to the effect that he had in his possession several bottles of "holy water" which was said to have been especially blessed for the purpose of taking the "razor edge" off Mr. Black's remarks. It was further hinted that his holiness had issued several bulls to the faithful during the day. But that is mere rumor. As a whole, the celebration was a gigantic success and had a tendency to awaken the almost dormant patriotism of the people and to ally political strife among neighbors.

FARMERS.
