BRYAN ON PLATFORM.

W. J. Bryan, in his reply to the notification committee, uttered some truths, mingled with errors and some questions that are debatable. He disclaimed being a foe of social order and national honor. That is admitted as to intent, but it is debatable as to resulting consequences.

REPLY TO LENNER.

By one of those strange happenings the following fell into our hands, so we print it. Some other "editors" will enjoy reading it as well as those of us who are.

Friend Lenner, I wish to tender thanks for the copy of your paper which you have sent me. I have read it with interest and pleasure. You make it so clear that the present standard is all wrong. We must have a "cheaper dollar and denser labor and fiercer competition."

MARKET PRICE OF SILVER.
We give below an extract from Senator Sherman's recent speech on the financial question.
"The great law of supply and demand affects the value of all commodities, copper or iron. All have fallen in market value by means of new discoveries and improved methods of production."

Mrs. Logan's Trip.

Washington, Aug. 17.—Mrs. John A. Logan is again at home after a long trip abroad. She had Mrs. Logan went to Europe in an extended trip with a party of several young ladies and acted as their chaperone throughout the tour.

While abroad the party was present at the czar's coronation, which was the most magnificent and gorgeous spectacle of the century. At all of the capitals they were the recipients of attention from officials and courts of foreign countries.

She expects that the status of her husband, which is to be decided in a few days, will be decided in the best of ways. She expects that the status of her husband, which is to be decided in a few days, will be decided in the best of ways.
