BRIEF MENTION.

S. Fortin of Coles Valley is in the city on business. Shasta Water at Slow Jerry's cigar and drink emporium. A fine Kimball piano for sale cheap. Enquire at PLAINDEALER office. B. F. Ramp of Albany came up to this city Tuesday night on business. For a good smoke call at Slow Jerry's bazar, and get a Los Amores cigar. Large line of boots and shoes in our new department at the Novelty Store. W. Howell of Eugene and J. H. Siegel of Looking Glass are registered at the Van Houten. Mrs. James Porter and daughter, Ida, returned from a protracted visit at Portland Tuesday night. The union church service will be held at the Christian church next Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. Ginger ale, Aristas Water, soda, and other soft drinks at Slow Jerry's drink emporium, now on draft. Reserved seats for the Operetta, "Triumph of Love" are now on sale at the Roseleaf, without extra charge. Hard and soft drinks, and all other kinds, also, at Ad. Harmon's bar, next to the grand stand, during fair week. John Hartin of Looking Glass came over to the city today. He reports the grain crop in his section as quite light. Dexter Rice, who has been at Drain with Assessor Sterling for several months, returned home on the local Tuesday. Save money by doing your own horse and boy shoeing. Horse shoes and half soles and nails for each at H. M. Wead's Hardware. On account of the excessive hot weather, there will be no drill tonight. LAURIE, F. W. HAYNES, Commanding A. Co.

The ladies members of the Christian church will furnish meals and lunch on the fair grounds during fair week on reasonable terms. If you want a good smoke or get thirsty while at the races, call at Ad. Harmon's bar, near the grand stand, and be made happy. The base ball grounds are being cleared off and smoothed down, in anticipation of exciting battles on the diamond during fair week. Everything is booming at the fair grounds and every preparation is being made for the comfort and convenience of visitors to the fair next week. Let all our readers read Chapter VIII of the gospel as given by St. John, and meditate upon the lesson taught; especially in verses 3 to 11 inclusive. One extra large box stove for sale at H. M. Wead's Hardware Store. Suitable for dry house or large store room, price $15. Takes three foot wood. Alex McLeod, of Kingsley, finished threshing last Thursday, securing 1480 bushels of No. 1 wheat from 45 acres. Wasco county wheat is apparently not a failure. John Pentony of Victoria, B. C., W. H. Truesdale and O. G. Higenbotham of Mule Creek, and B. C. Trowbridge of Camas Valley, are registered at the McClallen.

Those attending the races during fair week can be supplied with the best cigars, and wet goods, too, by calling on Ad. Harmon at his bar adjoining the grand stand. The ball grounds at the fair are being put in first class condition. There will be some lively playing at the fair, as several good clubs have got their eye on that $50.00 purse. Say! If you want a stove somebody else has not used the life out of and that isn't made by convicts in the Salem Penitentiary, you want to call at Wead's Hardware. No convict trash there. Ad. Harmon, the genial proprietor of the Senata saloon, has secured bar privileges at the track on the fair grounds, and will supply all customers with the best goods in his line during the fair. L. H. McMahon of Salem and Dr. Eugene Hibbard of Portland were in the city yesterday. They intend to prospect for gold, on the headwaters of Myrtle Creek. May they find it in quantities galore. Oscar Agee, the thrasher, was in the city Tuesday on business relating to his thrasher. He says the grain crop in general, is below the average, so far as he has been able to learn. We hear, however, that early sown grain is very fair. J. K. Fitzhugh, Jr. was up before his honor, Justice Hamlin, Tuesday, on a charge of throwing Chas. Meyer's goods out of his house, without due process of law. The Judge placed Fitzhugh under $100 bonds, and the case continued for further adjustment. The successful applicants for teacher's certificates were as follows: Mrs. E. J. Clements, Mamie Winniford, Hattie Cloyd, Chas. W. Rice, Della Brown, Della Mulkey, Arthur Rice, Fern Orcutt and Mrs. M. H. Cockerleat. Number of applicants, 17. Hon. A. W. Reed, senator elect of Douglas County from Gardiner, passed through this city Tuesday on his way home from San Francisco. He made a visit to the soldiers home Tuesday afternoon. He left on the local this morning for Gardiner via Drain. James A. Sterling (Douglas county's assessor for the last thirteen years, called upon us Wednesday. Mr. Sterling will retire from service, taking with the best wishes of a host of friends for his prosperity. Good bye, Jimmy, and "may you live long and prosper."

W. S. Britt, assessor elect, has moved into the city preparatory to taking charge of his office in the near future. We welcome Mr. Britt and family to our city and bespeak for them every courtesy of Roseburgers. They are domiciled in one of W. F. Benjamin's cottages.

Wm. L. Chambers of Portland, adjuster of fire losses, is in the city today to adjust the loss sustained by Fred Laugh, whose house was burned last Saturday night. The State Teachers' Association convenes at Newport next Tuesday, and will continue in session four days. Governor William P. Lord, Congressman W. R. Ellis, Hon. H. B. Miller, president of the state agricultural college, and others will deliver addresses during the session. Rev. Father Noel for a long time pastor of the Catholic church here, but who has been traveling a bit for his health, returned Tuesday, showing that Time has laid his emaciating hand upon him as upon us; but he is the same genial soul as formerly, with a kind word and friendly greeting for all. We are authorized to state that Hon. John F. Caples of Portland will address the people of Douglas county Saturday during the fair. Judge Caples is one of the most eloquent and interesting orators on this coast. He can talk sense, with a little nonsensical pleasantry, which, like sauce with pudding gives it a relish. Eli Norcross of Looking Glass, an ex-soldier, who marched with Sherman from Atlanta to the sea, was in the city Wednesday. He has been unfortunate; having been stricken on one side by paralysis and thus rendered unable to make a living by labor as formerly. He has made application to be taken into the Home. Dried prunes, apples and apricots, green fruits of all kinds. Oregon hams and shoulders, also Eastern hams. Everything guaranteed. Groceries of all kinds, and best qualities. Flour and feed. Flour 75 cents per sack. 10 pounds of lard 75 cents. Cook Bay cheese, full cream, large or small, in any quantity. H. Easton defies all competition. Silvertown, Or., apparently is a nice, unconventional place of residence, according to the following item from the Appeal: "Baller, the young man who caused quite a commotion last week by running away with a Mrs. Ferder, and incidentally taking a lively team of Potter & Davis' with him, which he forgot to return, was tried in Justice Kaneby's court Saturday. No one appearing against him, he was released from custody."

Early hops in the valley are now about ready for picking. The Albany Democrat says that several yards of that variety in the vicinity of Albany will not be picked on account of the low prices prevailing. S. Smeed of Walterville, commenced picking his early hops last Friday. Branton Bros., of the same place, will begin picking in a day or two. The price paid is 25 cents per box, and pickers are said to be anxious to pick at this price. The Randon Recorder, in speaking of bathing by the camping visitors from the interior, said: "Bathing is fine in the cave below the Lookout and fat calves are in abundance." Brother Stett does not say what use the bathers make of fat calves—whether they are slaughtered for veal or whether the bathers hang on to the calves tails to keep them afloat while in the boisterous and treacherous surf. Of course he does not mean the muscles of the lower limbs in rear of the tibia? No, of course not. The editor is too modest for that. Competition never worries us, because we "buy right" hence "sell right." The facts are these; every move in our business is only made after the most careful consideration, nothing left to chance. Shoes have advanced in price but not with us. We sell you a good oil grain shoe for $1.25 and upwards, fine shoes in proportion. If you doubt us, come and see us, convince yourself that we have what we advertise. We don't care to do all the business in town, but want to get a share of it. We firmly believe that a concern that gives its customers exceptionally good values in every instance is bound to go ahead year by year. This idea prevails throughout our entire business. Every dollar's worth of goods must give the wearer satisfaction, even the all wool absolutely fast color $8.00 suits. J. ABRAHAM'S Clothing House.

Exposition Excursion. EDITOR PLAINDEALER: Referring to your notice of the excursion to the Oregon Industrial Exposition, which opens in Portland, Sept. 19th, you have the special excursion train scheduled to arrive at Portland at 6:30 p. m. GEO. ESTES, Excursion Manager.

Triumph of Love. On Thursday evening of next week, 27th of August, the fairy Operetta, Triumph of Love, will be presented at the Opera House, by sixty young people of Roseburg. Such a crowd of pretty children, lovely girls and gallant youths, are seldom seen on the stage. The affair promises to be the most brilliant, musical and dramatic event, which Roseburg has ever enjoyed. The high reputation of Mrs. Neumayer as a successful manager, and of the ladies of the Roseburg Rebekah Lodge, who never undertake anything that is not a success, is a guarantee to the public that the entertainment next Thursday evening, will be a grand success, pleasing to old and young. GLENDALE.

R. E. Porter, who has the contract for building the bridge across Cow creek at this place with a force of workmen, and they are camped on the creek at the bridge site and are at work. The new bridge, which is to be built on the lower site, is to be a fine piece of architecture and will reflect credit upon its builders. Mrs. A. P. Langenberg, who is conceded to be the most popular lady in Cow creek valley, was greeting her numerous friends at Glendale on Monday. Born, at the Wolf Creek section house, August 8th, to Mr. and Mrs. L. Weiland, a son. Extensive work is going on at the Mammoth Queen ledge south of Glendale, and the sound of the blasting awakens the echoes in the surrounding mountains. The quartz taken from the cut, which is now being made, shows free gold and gives evidence that this is one of Southern Oregon's most valuable ledges. Claude Grimes of the Starveout mines was trading at Glendale on Tuesday. Miss Mima Hamilton of Hamilton Heights visited friends on Upper Cow Creek Sunday. A. G. Clarke, the genial manager of Hotel Glendale, is at Grants Pass training for the bicycle races which are to take place at Roseburg on field day; and Mr. Clark's many friends here will be pleased to see him win the races. Frank Leslie Bailey is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Eliff and P. F. Roberts at Glendale this week. Mrs. E. J. Garrett and Miss Lottie Graham visited us last week. We acknowledge a pleasant visit. During last week we made six business trips to Wolf Creek, going by the passenger train and returning by the freight, and we acknowledge the most kindly attention from all conductors and brakemen, with one single exception, and we would remind that gentleman and ladies of our uncertain age need assistance in alighting from trains where such short stops are made as at Wolf Creek. We return our kindest thanks to Conductors Kearney, Morris, and to Morian, Bonebrake, Marshall, and to Agents Garfield and Farmer and other trainmen whose names we did not learn, for their considerate assistance. Mrs. Palmer and daughter, Miss Tillie, were trading at Glendale on Saturday. Mrs. A. Marshall, Mrs. L. Jones, Mrs. Mary Wood, Mrs. J. Hogen, Miss Addie Bailey and Mrs. Lindsey have our thanks for pleasant visits lately. George Russell, who was returning to his parents after a six month's absence at Edgewood, California, spent Saturday at Glendale visiting the Roberts brothers. O. F. Rohrer has taken charge of Judge Smith's fine farm near this place, which was, until lately, managed by Nathan Smith. Mr. Rohrer is making some substantial improvements, and Smithfield will eventually be one of the finest homes in this valley. We regret to say that Mrs. Edith Malory of Idelwilde was severely injured last week by being kicked by a vicious horse. She is getting some better now. MOLLIE.

A slight sprinkle this morning. G. K. Quine has gone to Brewster valley for a few days. Neighbor Britt and family moved to Roseburg to live Monday. We were all very anxious to have him for assessor but we did not propose to lose him from our neighborhood. Miss Etta Chapman is visiting her sister, Mrs. Stille Riddle. Jake Chadwick had three thousand bushels of wheat this year. Mrs. Robert Brown and son of Alt-houses are visiting Will Q. Brown's family at the nickel mines. Mrs. Dona Catching was doing business in Riddle the first of the week. Several families from here are intending to go to the Roseburg fair and camp for the week. Misses Jennie Duncan and Etta Chapman went to Missouri Bottoms to spend a day or two with Mrs. Sam Ball. Noah Corant's machine went up the river to thresh this week. Otto Logelson has rented Mrs. Dora Catching's house here. John Fullerton was here Tuesday visiting his sister, Mrs. W. L. Nichols, Tuesday. Mr. Day of Canyonville attended church here when Rev. Gillette preached Sunday evening. Henry Crow and family expect to move to Portland to live about the 25th instant. A. Riddle and his gold standard threshing crew have finished threshing for this year. Mr. Corant and his free silver crew are not through yet. Walter Riddle had a fine crop of wheat this year. ENID.

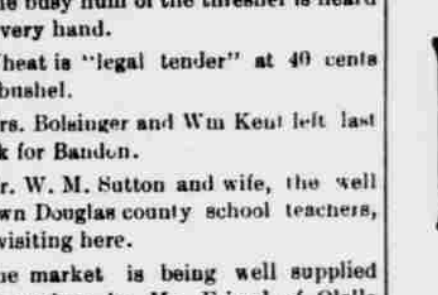

My little boy, when two years of age was taken very ill with bloody flux. I was advised to use Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and luckily procured part of a bottle. I carefully read the directions and gave it accordingly. He was very low, but slowly and surely he began to improve, gradually recovered, and is now as stout and strong as ever. I feel sure it saved his life. I never can praise the remedy half its worth. I am sorry every one in the world does not know how good it is, as I do.—Mrs. Lina S. Hinton, Grahamsville, Marion Co., Florida. For sale by A. C. Marsters & Co.

BROCKWAY.

The busy hum of the thrasher is heard on every hand. Wheat is "legal tender" at 40 cents per bushel. Mrs. Bolsinger and Wm Keut left last week for Bandon. Mr. W. M. Sutton and wife, the well known Douglas county school teachers, are visiting here. The market is being well supplied with venison by Mr. Friend of Ollaia and Cobb Bros. tempt us with melons. Hens are out on a strike, and Mr. Dillard has stopped his delivery wagon until the trouble is over. Mr. Challenger has just completed a well arranged and commodious barn, and Mr. Lenox has one in course of erection. Miss Kent has been employed to teach our fall term of school. Mr. Knapp has left for California. Dr. Pope preached at Dillard last Sunday, subject, "State of the Dead." Gen. T. J. Thorpe lectures at the Brockway school house, August 21st at 7:30 p. m. Miss Nora Bolsinger is again in our midst, jolly as ever. CUMTUX.

Sent it to His Mother in Germany. Jacob Esbensen, who is in the employ of the Chicago Lumber Co., at Des Moines, Iowa, says: "I have just sent some medicine back to my mother in the old country, that I know from personal use to be the best medicine in the world for rheumatism, having used it in my family for several years. It is called Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It always does the work." 50 cent bottles for sale by A. C. Marsters & Co. Camp Meeting. Since 1878 there have been nine epidemics of dysentery in different parts of the country in which Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was used with perfect success. Dysentery, when epidemic, is almost as severe and dangerous as Asiatic cholera. Heretofore the best efforts of the most skilled physicians have failed to check its ravages, this remedy, however, has cured the most malignant cases, both of children and adults, and the most trying conditions, which prove it to be the best medicine in the world for bowel complaints. For sale by A. C. Marsters & Co. To the Public. On and after this date, I wish it understood that my terms for all undertaker's goods are cash with the order. I find it impossible to do business on a credit basis, and believe that I can do better by my patrons and myself by selling strictly for cash. P. BENKED, Undertaker. Roseburg, Ore., April 12, 1895. Mr. C. D. Youker, a well known druggist of Bowling Green, Ohio, in speaking of Chamberlain's Remedy, says: "I take pleasure in recommending it to my customers, for I am certain that it will always please them. Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

A Cure For Diseases of Men.

Scientific investigation, supplemented by experience, has shown that urinary diseases are more prevalent and destructive in life, health and happiness, than any other class known to the medical fraternity. They are not confined to the low and degraded portions of humanity, as many suppose, but to be found among the pure in heart, the innocent, the truly pious and wealthy. Many of them are transmitted from parents to children, from generation to generation. Thousands of people suffer untold agonies from their ravaging effects and meet an early and untimely death, often ignorant of the cause. Though transmitted innocently, the effects of these diseases are not less terrible. It is a sad truth that the innocent are often greater sufferers than the guilty. Of all the organs of the body few are more important than those engaged in the urinary functions. In perfect health, that great blessing which so few enjoy, one will scarcely direct a moment's thought for these important organs and at the first unpleasant symptom good advice such as may be easily obtained, should be immediately solicited. Among the chief and most common of diseases is seminal weakness and nervous debility, or loss of nerve power, due to masturbation and venereal excess. Thousands of young and middle aged men suffer with nervous diseases for years and may be ignorant of the cause, when a little timely advice would make life's pathway full of cheer and happiness. When the first symptoms of seminal weakness manifest themselves the sufferer is noticed to become dull and morose and is troubled with indigestion, though the appetite may remain good. But the strength vanishes and the patient grows thin. He becomes indolent and debilitated, and loss of memory and all vigor of the sexual organs may follow. In time he may fall into a complete state of impotency—total loss of sexual power. Among its terrible effects may be mentioned weakness of memory, confusion of ideas, nervous despondency and general weakness. It needs no mirror; it reflects itself. The pale face, the sunken eye, the downcast countenance, the stooping, aged form—all serve to announce the victim's troubles. It seldom kills of itself, but it opens the gates to other diseases, such as consumption and diseases of the heart. The unfortunate sufferer cannot sleep. In that intermediate state, between life and death, intended for the recuperation of the mind and body, he can know no rest, for his dreams are dark and foreboding, and the constant drain upon his system robs it of its vital fluid. This affliction may be the consequence of self-abuse or the result of excesses in mature years. As "man is but a bundle of habits," how essential that he should start right in life; that his mind should be full of sublime thoughts and pure conceptions. All of you who suffer from this disease should lose no time in consulting Dr. Darrin, for the time may come when you will be beyond the aid of all medical skill. No matter what you have taken, or who has failed to cure you, call and see the doctor, as he can permanently, safely and privately cure you in one-third the time and at one-half the expense required by others. Consultation free. Dr. Darrin can be seen at the McClallen house, Roseburg, August 26, to September 5. Private School. I propose, by September 1st, to open a German-English day school with thorough instruction in all the branches of a common school, provided a sufficient number of pupils for a term of six months is secured beforehand. Short daily religious exercises, instruction in Bible truth and the maintenance of Christian discipline will be a special feature. Terms of tuition, 75 cents a child per month; two children from one family, $1.40; three, $1.75; four, $2.00. To poor children or orphans a part or the whole of the tuition will be remitted. For further particulars apply to or call on J. J. KERN, Opposite the Postoffice. The Ideal Panacea. James L.
