A GREAT TOURNAMENT

The Field Sports Prove a Decided Success.

Monday was quite a gala day for Roseburg. The day was fine in the forenoon. The parade of the fire companies was in uniform, and, though not as fully represented as they might have been, they presented quite a fine appearance on the streets.

A STRANGER HERE.

But Widely Known Throughout Three States.

Although scarcely known here, Dr. Darrin is not an entire stranger, as he has treated many residents during the past 10 years. He has not as yet referred to them, as he has not secured their permission, and he never refers to a patient without his or her consent.

But he has the consent of a well-known resident of Cleveland, who is very grateful to Dr. Darrin, and who wishes to recommend him to her acquaintances. That is Mrs. Martha Woodruff, who is known to nearly everybody here.

Mrs. Woodruff has been a great sufferer from partial paralysis and a general breaking down of the system. For years she did not have a well day.

Nine years ago she was induced to try Dr. Darrin, of Portland, Or., the gentleman now here. She felt relieved at once, and in a very short time was treated with such success that she pronounced herself cured.

Dr. Darrin has cured many persons in this vicinity during the past few years, and has hundreds of testimonials from prominent persons, testifying to his success in Idaho, Washington and Oregon.

Dr. Darrin is no traveling fakir. He has been established many years in Portland, where he has an elegant residence and a handsome suite of offices in the fashionable residence portion, and a practice that requires all the time of himself, his nephew, and two assistants.

When needing a change or vacation he goes on such a trip as this, and returns to Portland refreshed.

Dr. Darrin remains here until September 5th, at the McClallen House.
