A New Competitor. San Francisco, Sept. 1 .- China has thrown down the gauntlet to the big coal miners of the United States. The American bark Colorado, which has just arrived in port, brought a mixed sample cargo of anthracite and manufacturing coal, mined and made in the Tonquin district. It was consigned to a coal dealing firm in this city, which promises to push the Chinese fuel on the coast market at prices greatly below those which Pennsylvania and Welsh coals of the same character are now bringing. Examining experts have pronounced the Tonquin coal almost inexhaustible. The Chinese article is in the market to stay, it is said, at least as long as present conditions exist.

Tonquin, since the Tonquin war, has been under the control of the French, and it is French capitol that is now developing its mines, but the land is still populated by Chinese labor that is employed in the mines, hence the extremely low cost of production which cer of other countries where labor is better paid.
