

THE PLAINDEALER

SEPTEMBER 10, 1896.

LITTLE LOCALS.

A Salzman, the reliable jeweler. Coal tar and resin at Marsters'. Lime and sulphur at Marsters'. Caro Bros. are the busy merchants. J. T. Bryan, the Boss Watchmaker. Go to the Roseleaf for the best cigar. Good goods at the lowest prices at Salzman's.

BRIEF MENTION.

The City Council meets tonight. Oats are being sold in the city for 25 cents per bushel. Elmer Hoover has gone to St. Louis, Mo., to study medicine. For a good smoke call at Slow Jerry's bar, and get a Los Amores cigar.

YONCALLA.

YONCALLA, Sept. 8.—There are lovely town sites in Douglas county, and Yoncalla is one of the most attractive. It is on the broadening of a grand valley with level rolling lands. The village is beautified by its surroundings of hill, tree and boulder, gay, and blooming young orchards, and trim cottages, and near the confines of the town a majestic school house stands monarch of all it surveys.

KANSAS CITY GHOSTS

FAMOUS SPOOKS OF THE TOWN ON THE BIG MUDDY. The original ghost is from a case of fratricide—How the Santa Fe Spook Was Laid—How a Man With the "Jim-Jams" Stirred Up a Jail Full of Criminals.

It may be true that conscience makes cowards of us all, but with the ignorant and superstitious conscience is not a circumstance when compared to a vivid imagination. The greatest coward on earth is the person who sees in every dark shadow, in each deserted house and around every dismal building the restless spirit of some departed sinner whose crimes will not allow him to enter heaven, who is doomed to wander around this earth until Gabriel's trumpet is sounded, who must hover near the scene of his former misdeeds until the last day.

The place by popular consent most adapted to ghost wanderings and the place most fruitful in the production of the bona fide article is naturally the graveyard. The drearier, gloomier and more mournful the aspect of the graveyard the more ghosts. But the real believer in spooks and spirits does not deem it necessary to go among the tombs and graves of the dead to find a spirit. Ghosts are numerous. They can be found in all sections of the country.

The oldest, the original ghost that is most vividly in the memory of the superstitious and is most often the topic of gossamer whispers among the people mentioned, walked the levee between Main street and Broadway 12 years ago. One winter's night, the story goes, a man was lying in wait for an enemy on the levee. In his hand he clutched a ponderous double barreled shotgun loaded with nails and slugs. He saw a man walking down the levee. In the dim, flickering light he thought he recognized his enemy. He raised his gun, fired and hurried away.

Notes from the State Normal School at Drain. The state Normal School at Drain began its work for the present year last Monday with an attendance 57 per cent larger than on the opening day last year. This was much better than was expected, although it was known that the number would be greatly increased.

Cleveland McKinley Club. The republicans of Cleveland, have organized a McKinley club. Hon. Geo. M. Brown and Judge Loggery will address the club Saturday, September 12 at 2 p. m. Messrs. Brown and Loggery are very interesting speakers and will doubtless meet a large audience on that occasion.

Did You Ever Try Electric Bitters as a remedy for your troubles? If not, get a bottle now and get relief. This medicine has been found to be particularly adapted to the relief and cure of all Female Complaints, exerting a wonderful influence in giving strength and tone to the organs.

Condensed Testimony. Chas. B. Hood, Broker and Manufacturer's Agent, Columbus, Ohio, certifies that Dr. King's New Discovery has no equal as a Cough Remedy. J. D. Brown, Prop. St. James Hotel, Ft. Wayne, Ind., testifies that he was cured of a Cough of two years standing, caused by La Grippe, by Dr. King's New Discovery.

For City Treasurer. I hereby announce myself a candidate for re-election to the office of city treasurer at the coming city election. Respectfully, J. A. PERKINS.

Notice. The secretary of the district fair will be at the Van Houten House Saturday, Sept. 12th, at 1 p. m. and will issue warrants for premiums and expense of said fair.

Auction Sale. At Fraitvale, September 19, I will offer for sale at auction, farm implements, furniture and other household goods for cash. Mrs. F. GALLON.

City Treasurer's Notice. Notice is hereby given to all persons holding Roseburg city warrants indorsed prior to April 1, 1893, and also warrants numbered 513 and 514 indorsed April 1, 1893, to present the same at the city treasurer's office in the city hall for payment as interest will cease thereon after the date of this notice.

A good many of the farmers are hauling wheat and storing it in the warehouses here. M. W. Pruner and brother of Riddle made this office a pleasant call while in town today. Hon. C. A. Sehlbrede will address the Coles Valley McKinley club, Saturday, September 13th.

James Cole, one of Calapooia's substantial citizens was in town Tuesday, transacting business. Mrs. P. Eubanks and Mrs. Nancy Hermann of Oakland are visiting friends in this city this week. Miss O. Green of Walla Walla was visiting friends in this vicinity Monday and Tuesday of this week.

There will be a social hop at Sloum's Hall Saturday night in honor of Bert Benjamin, who leaves Sunday night for San Francisco. The county court is now in session. Present, W. L. Wilson and M. D. Thompson, commissioners. Judge Stearns, presiding. Rev. G. W. Black will preach at the Soldier's Home, Sunday at 3 p. m., and his farewell sermon at the Baptist church Sunday evening.

Remember that Congressman Hermann speaks at the court house tomorrow at 7:30 on the political issue now before the people. At the home of Mrs. Short, September 11, 1896, E. A. Hinkle and Miss Mary Short were united in marriage. Rev. G. W. Kennedy, officiating. Miss May Benedict of Elktion was adjudged insane Tuesday, and was sent to the asylum in care of her father, on the overland Tuesday night. The S. P. R. R. Co. is constructing an elevated track in this city on which will be switched wood trains to economize time and space and at expense.

Meers, Wm. and Grant Levens of Galesville are in the city today on business. These gentlemen are out-and-out McKinley men without an if. At the home of the officiating clergyman, September 5, 1896, Ezekiel Allen and Martha Reno were united in marriage, Rev. G. W. Kennedy, officiating. Leonard Perdue, postmaster at Perdue on the South Umpqua, above Canyonville, was in the city Tuesday on business.

Regular meeting of Roseburg Lodge No. 326, B. P. O. Elks tonight in their hall in Odd Fellows Temple. Initiation and other important business. All members of the order are requested to attend. The new front to Mrs. Josephson's drygoods emporium is having the finishing touches made by the workmen. These large plate fronts will greatly facilitate business by the admission of more light.

Rev. Ed Pugh, who has been laboring in California for several months, has returned to Roseburg, and is ready to point out to the sinner the straight and narrow path that leadeth to life—the other way he knows already. W. P. Hayden, county surveyor, who has a government contract for surveying lands in Coos county, returned Wednesday evening after finishing one township. He will go back to Coos in a few days to survey another township. W. W. Catcart, our affable ex-deputy sheriff, has returned to Roseburg to reside since his retirement from office and will be a citizen of Roseburg. Mr. Catcart is now the agent for the Hudson mill lumber company at this place. Divine services will be held in St. George's Episcopal church, Roseburg, Sunday, September 13th, at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sunday School at 10 a. m. Holy communion will be administered after the morning service.

Miss Kate Field is dead. In her will she provided for the disposition of her remains by cremation and that the ashes and a certain gold ring worn by her be buried in a box in the Mt. Auburn cemetery, Cambridge, Mass. Le Hung Chang, the Chinese viceroy to this country, is creating considerable attraction in the United States. He is being feasted and treated to with his brethren of less note are ostracized and roundly scolded by the majority of the citizens of this country. And so goes the world.

Mrs. Al Morris and daughter have gone to Yaguina for a season, and now Al has to do culinary work, and says it is a novel but not interesting, and though he has devoted much attention to the business, the copy makes and has been improved, as has since begun his apprenticeship to cookery.

Timber, fir and oak, is plenty and hundreds of cords are piled along the railway track. Water pure and cold is unlimited in quantity at fourteen feet, and the climate is delightful. A few miles from Yoncalla are the Roswell springs, a capital summer resort, rich in remedial waters which are shipped to California, over Oregon and Washington, and this is only one of the many little towns in Douglas county which combine the grandeur of Nature with good soil, pure water and all the elements which make lovely and happy homes. Yoncalla receives two mails a day and has four passenger and two freight trains all carrying passengers, and the roads are in excellent driving condition. The postoffice is a model of neatness and dispatch and is located in the business house of H. D. Yett, who is also postmaster and one of the liveliest business men in the county. His mercantile house is 110 feet in length and is amply stocked. His warehouse proves this is a great country country as therefrom are shipped hundreds of dozens of eggs a week, and produce of every description comes to center here.

H. D. Yett is a native of Tennessee and narrowly escaped being a North Carolinian. He came to Oregon in '81 and settled in Douglas county and has been successful in everything he undertook, including teaching, farming, stock-raising and merchandising. He owns the best properties in Yoncalla, including hotel, store buildings, dwellings and lots and a big sheep ranch. Mr. Yett in business and society is worthy of all respect and regard. His chief clerk, E. W. Hebard, is a son of the Mother of States, and ever bright and enterprising.

G. W. Cartwright, general merchant, is having the wind blowing through his whiskers at Bandon, and Grant Applegate, the railway agent, is weighing sugar and measuring tape, checking baggage, telegraphing and expressing. W. F. Louman, merchant, moved into his new building on Monday. He built the store himself and proved that he has mechanical ability. O. H. Starr was away lately to Eugene attending a grand family reunion, the occasion being the golden wedding of his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Starr of Junction City, who met all their living children and grandchildren at the home of their son, J. F. Starr of Eugene. The veteran couple had joy heaped upon them, and were the recipients of many gold presents, including gold spectacles, gold trimmed umbrellas, gold headed cane and other golden tributes of love. O. H. Starr was brought from Illinois to Oregon in 1857, locating in Benton county, and has been in Yoncalla six years. He owns a ranch of 137 acres, and has sixty acres platted in five-acre lots. He has planted various fruits, including 300 prune trees, and all are growing nicely. Mr. Starr is a hardware merchant in Yoncalla, and his father is in the same business at Junction City. Three years ago E. Jones became quite an acquisition to Yoncalla, not only as a business man with principle and enterprise, but as a broad-gauged man and exemplary citizen. He owns twenty cultivated acres adjoining town, a hardware and implement house admirably stocked and managed, and in which he has built and is building a wide track. He also owns property in the state of Washington.

The gentleman was born in Indiana, and visited several states before choosing Douglas county as a permanent place of business and abode. Mr. Jones has been a soldier, a farmer, a carriage builder and a merchant, and did honor to every vantage. During the war he served with the respectable 12th Indiana, and in peace he is over progressive in all pertaining to development. Talk about having many irons in the fire, S. K. Adams of Yoncalla, has lots of them and is successful as well. He is furniture dealer and undertaker. He makes harness and has a shoe shop. He

We issue a supplement with today's PLAINDEALER. On first page, is William McKinley's letter of acceptance. It is a manly, courageous and inspiring appeal to the intelligence, conscience and patriotism of the voter. It is truly worthy of the statesman he is. We also call the attention of the readers to the letters of Senator Woodcock of Nevada, and Governor McConell of Idaho, and quotations from speeches of Senator Stewart of Nevada on the gold standard and unlimited coinage of silver question in 1874, and to extracts from Senator Sherman's great speech at Columbus, Ohio. This supplement is a superb campaign document, which we issue as an extra for our readers. It is a good document to preserve for future reference and to show your free silver neighbors.

Quite a number of republicans have united and formed a republican club whose object is the better to do effective work for the republican ticket. They met at Hon. C. A. Sehlbrede's office Tuesday night and organized by electing C. A. Sehlbrede, president; L. A. Sanctury, vice president; H. T. McClallen, secretary and C. W. Parrott, treasurer. This club starts with a membership of 70. The usual committee will be announced in due time. The club will meet every Tuesday evening to discuss measures and means of success. It is composed mostly of young men.
