A COINCIDENT.

For three thousand years after the Egyptians had advanced along the intellectual plain so far as to take note of passing events in the material world, the observed that the appearance of the star sirius, rising about the latter part of June, coincided with the commencement of the overflow of the river Nile. The simultaneous rising of the sacred river which gave them their bread, and the appearance of the star sirios, they attributed to the god of the harvest who made his appearance in the form of a star. They did not know that these phenomenas were only coincidents and not one the cause of the other. They did not knew as we do now that the overflow of the Nile was not and is not caused by the appearance of sirius in the heavens in the latitude of Egypt about June 20.

So the decline in the prices of silver bullion and wheat since 1873 are only coincidents. The decline in the price of wheat is no more caused by the decline of silver bullion, nor the decline of silver bullion the result of the act of 1873. than the rise of the Nile is caused by the appearance of the star sirius about June 20. This fact is more apparent now, for while silver bullion is still on the downward grade, wheat is on the up

A New Ten Commsudments.

CHICAGO, Oct. 3 .- William Schmeckebier says be is a good man. He declares Estate Office, or on that he has never broken one of the commandments as laid down in Excdus. He believes they are good, but when his wife, Tillie, prepared a new set for the governing of her husband, William rebelled and he straightway went before Judge Hanecy and asked for a decree of divore. There are the commandments which the husband said he

These are the new commandments ten, Which wives now make for married men. 1-Remember that I am thy wife, had been asked to heed:

Me thou must cherish all thy life, 2-Toon shalt not stay out late at night When lodges, friends or clubs invite

Or chew tobacco "round about." 4-Thou shalt with praise receive my ples Nor pastry made by me dispise.

5-My mother thou shall strive to please And let her live with us in ease. 6-Remember, 'tis thy doty clear

To dress well throughout all the year. 7-Thou shalt in manner mild and meek

Give me thy wages every week. 8-Thou shalt not be a drinking man, But live on prohibition's plan.

Thou shalt not flirt, but must allow, Thy wife such freedom anyhow. 10-Thou shalt get up when baby cries

And try thy child to tranquaize. These, my commands, from day to day, Implicitly thou shalt obey.

The complainant in the case told the court that his wife was in correspondence with a number of men, and that when he remonstrated with her, she produced the above and said. "That is the way we treat them." Schmeckebier obtained his divorce.

Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunderman, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost rearvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist church at Rives Junction she was brought down with Pneumonia succeeding La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results," Trial bottles free at A, C.
