

THE PLAINDEALER

NOVEMBER 2, 1896.

Ladies' fine shoes at Parrott Bros.
J. T. Bryan, the Busy Watchmaker.
Ladies $1.50 shoes for $1.20 at the Racket Store.

Hair ornaments, side combs at the Novelty Store.
Shasta Water at Slow Jerry's cigar and drink emporium.

Large line of blankets, call and get our prices at the Novelty Store.

Buy your Ribbons at the Novelty Store, 10 cents per yard, any width.

A girl wanted to do country house work. Address, box 93, Roseburg.

For a good smoke call at Slow Jerry's bar, and get a Los Amores cigar.

Stamped doilies at 5 cents and big squares at 10 cents each at the Novelty Store.

Nice looking shoes are not always good shoes. Call at the Novelty Store and be convinced.

Delicious "salt-rising" bread at the Home Bakery, corner Oak and Rose streets.

Nothing but the best material used by R. W. Benjamin, dentist, Room 1, Marsters' block.

Private lunch room at the Home Bakery, corner Oak and Rose street. Also lunches put up.

Fresh home-made bread at the Home Bakery, corner Oak and Rose streets. Alice Baldwin, proprietor.

Pianos and organs at greatly reduced prices. Cash or installments at T. K. Richardson's.

Teeth extracted absolutely without pain by R. W. Benjamin, dentist, room 1, Marsters' block, Roseburg, Or.

Miss Edith Smith, graduate of the Albany conservatory of music, will give lessons on piano and organ, and also in voice harmony and counter point.

One extra large box stove for sale at H. M. Wead's Hardware Store. Suitable for dry house or large store room, price $15. Takes three foot wood.

The bowling alley is again open for business at the old stand. We will be glad to welcome our friends and patrons. MOON & LAMBER.

Go to M. F. Rice's Second Hand Store, Hendricks' block, for late improved Singer Sewing machines, needles, oil, etc. W. C. MASON, Agent.

FOR TRADE.—I have a well broken 5 year old horse, weight 1500. Will trade for a good buggy horse. Must be young, sound and gentle. C. VAN ZINN, Roseburg.

The Kandy Kitchen keeps catching them and will eventually catch all the trade in their line, because they keep everything fresher and better and just as cheap or a little cheaper than stale stuff around town.

When I walk Roseburg 'round, I'm a lookin' for that Kandy Kitchen and it must be found, where they keep the best of everything. Fresh nuts, fresh gum and fresh candies made daily.

The time of the year has come when people eat candy. You can tell one who has good taste. He buys his candy at Niece's Kandy Kitchen, the only place in town you can get candy that is fit to eat.

If you have hay, grain, bacon, beef cattle or a good buggy you wish to trade for lumber, or if you wish to buy a bill of first class fir or cedar lumber, you will save money to call on Otto A. ASKAMP, Cumstock, Oregon.

T. K. Richardson has just received another car of lumber, including a lot of fencing, shiplap lumber, and first class flooring, which will be offered to the public at greatly reduced prices. Call on or address, T. K. Richardson, Roseburg, Or.

Mrs. E. L. Appelfel, teacher of vocal and instrumental music, wishes to announce to her pupils and the public that after October 1st she will take a limited number of pupils at the residence of W. A. McKenzie, corner of Cass and Main street. Those wishing her instruction should engage the hours before that date.

If your children are subject to croup watch for the first symptom of the disease—hoarseness. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse it will prevent the attack. Even after the croup cough has appeared the attack can always be prevented by giving this remedy. It is also invaluable for colds and whooping cough. For sale by A. C. Marsters.

Don't buy of Wanamaker & Brown if you want shabby, ill-fitting and unreliable clothing.

But buy of Wanamaker & Brown if you want good reliable all wool clothing, with their guarantee of quality, fit, etc., and at prices below that of regular, shoddy goods.

Over 500 fall and winter samples just received. Call and see them at the Racket Store.

Competition never worries us, because we "buy right" hence "sell right." The facts are these; every move in our business is only made after the most careful consideration, nothing left to chance. Shoes have advanced in price but not with us. We sell you a good grain shoe for $1.25 and upwards, fine shoes in proportion. If you doubt us, come and see us, convince yourself that we have what we advertise. We don't care to do all the business in town, but want to get a share of it. We firmly believe that a concern that gives its customers exceptionally good values in every instance is bound to go ahead year by year. This idea prevails throughout our entire business. Every dollar worth of goods must give the wearer satisfaction, even the all wool absolutely fast color $8.00 boots.

J. ABRAHAM'S Clothing House.

BRIEF MENTION.

Mince meat at the Home Bakery. County claims and warrants bought by D. S. West.

R. W. Benjamin, dentist, room 1, Marsters' block.

Skating at the Armory every Tuesday and Saturday nights.

Gents' ties new line; also a large line of hats, Novelty Store.

J. Jaskulek, our old time citizen, came in this p. m. on the freight.

Call and see the new line of ladies' shoes, just received at Parrott Bros.

One pair of glasses that fits is worth ten mis-fits. See Dr. Lowe and get a fit.

The new White Granite Iron was selling fast at Churchill, Woolley & McKenzie's.

Hon. C. A. Sehlbrede spoke to a large and enthusiastic audience at Riddle Saturday night.

You can get Standard hunting flags at a special price for Flag Day, at Churchill, Woolley & McKenzie's.

Hon. Ringer Hermann speaks today at Myrtle Creek for sound money, good government and prosperity.

We carry a full line of rubbers, boots and shoes. Call and see them when ready to buy, at Novelty Store.

Our $3.00, hand sewed Gents' Shoes are the best in the market. Call and see them at the Novelty Store.

Miss Laura Feikert left for Salem last Friday to attend the university and prepare herself for missionary work.

Get your cowboy rope at Wead's Hardware. The special four ply manilla stands twice as much as sisal rope.

Slow Jerry has got a move on him and changed to the shop formerly occupied by Miss Baird on Jackson street.

WANTED.—Man and wife want a situation on farm—to take care of place, or will work the same on shares. Address this office.

Buy your shoes at the Novelty Store and if they contain shoddy insoles, etc. they will tell you. Our aim is to tell you a good shoe.

Boston coach oil is the best buggy or carriage grease in the world. Try a can at H. M. Wead's Hardware and you will never use anything else.

The celebrated DeMoss family will give one of their grand vocal and instrumental concerts at the Baptist church in this city November 12th.

E. Du Gas, Physician and Surgeon, office in Marsters' building. Calls in town and country promptly answered night or day. Residence, 911 Mill street.

J. F. Givans went to Portland Saturday to join the McKinley parade and returned Sunday night and reports it the grandest demonstration ever held in Oregon.

Judge Fullerton who has been holding court at Eugene, Lane county, returned Sunday evening on the local, and will return to Eugene next Wednesday to resume court.

Western Union election return bulletins will be read at the court house tomorrow evening as fast as received. Everybody invited to be present and join in the applause.

We call attention to Hon. La Fayette Lane's letter in today's paper. It is unique, pointed and full of good advice, good sense, and abounds in the true spirit of patriotism.

Hon. S. L. Abraham, who has been at Glendale directing operations on his mine there, came back last Friday and reports the prospects good for a good yield of the yellow metal.

The mothers' meeting will be held at Mrs. Ida Marsters' on Thursday of this week at 3 p. m., after which a business meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held. A full attendance is desired.

Mr. C. B. Marsters of Coos county came in last week to be at the bedside of his sister, Mrs. Carl, who is quite better. He reports her as somewhat better and hopes of recovery is entertained.

Two tracts of land for rent, containing one 10 acre and one 15-track within 1 1/2 miles of town, fair orchards on each place. For further information call on I. F. Rice, Real Estate Dealer, Roseburg, Oregon.

You can't get five or ten-cent knives at H. M. Wead's Hardware. He doesn't keep worthless goods of any kind. But when you find you need a good knife come in and get the best made and have it guaranteed to stay sharp.

Bargains, bargains, at M. F. Rice's second hand, hardware and furniture store in Hendricks' block, opposite the depot. Second hand goods bought and sold. Call and examine my goods before purchasing elsewhere. Buy of me and save money.

During the procession on last Thursday night many houses were prettily decorated and especially the residence of Mrs. Fred Page-Tustin. Every room in the house was brilliantly lighted and the windows decorated with pictures of McKinley and Hobart, flowers, flags and bunting, while Chinese lanterns lighted up the lawn.

In the matter of the estate of M. B. Holmes, deceased. It is ordered and adjudged that Wm R. Willis, administrator of said estate, is directed to commence and prosecute to final judgment against Geo. A. Smith and to have the conveyance transferred and sale of said property of said estate made.

All patriotic ladies of Roseburg are invited to the court house Tuesday evening to help serve refreshments to the multitude there assembled to hear the election returns. Bring a couple of dozen or more sandwiches with you. The gentlemen will furnish the coffee.

Mrs. B. W. STRONG, Mrs. C. A. SEHLBREDE, Mrs. A. C. MARSTERS, Mrs. C. H. FISHER, Mrs. C. Y. BENJAMIN.

OAKLAND.

George Haynes was over from Roseburg Tuesday.

Ben Shambrook of Umpqua Ferry was in town several days last week.

C. L. Chenoweth made a trip to Roseburg Saturday.

S. M. Kelly went to Roseburg on business last week.

Rev. Dulin of Southern Oregon, was calling on friends here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Bodley of Portland were here a short time last week calling on friends.

Messrs. A. M. Crawford and F. P. Tustin of Roseburg were interviewing friends here Tuesday.

Mrs. J. Grubbe is the happy possessor of a fine new parlor organ, which is an excellent instrument.

Judge L. Loughery, F. W. Benson and Judge Stearns of Roseburg were in town Wednesday.

Hon. J. T. Cooper has been quite seriously ill recently, but is improving so that he is about again.

Creed Chenoweth's new barn is completed and is a model of convenience, and when the painting is completed it will be a beauty to look at.

A large number of our citizens went to Roseburg Thursday, to attend the McKinley rally.

Halloween was observed Saturday night by our patriotic citizens. The streets were decorated with various articles during the night.

A son was born to the wife of C. T. Wilson last Saturday. It is said that he weighs for Bryan and a silver dollar.

E. G. Young & Co. shipped to Portland last week, one car load of cattle and three cars of wheat, and received a new supply of dry goods.

The Y held an interesting meeting at the home of Mrs. C. H. Medley, Thursday evening. Miss Mary Medley read a very interesting paper which was read by her. Their next meeting is to be held at Mrs. S. M. Kelly's three weeks from last Thursday.

C. W. Fulton of Astoria addressed the people here Wednesday evening, giving them a sound, logical argument on the political issues at the present time. The Multnomah Quartette of Portland was in company with Mr. Fulton and rendered their valuable assistance with campaign songs which were enjoyed very much.

THE EMPTY DINNER PAIL.

As I sat here idly dreaming
Of the happy time that's gone,
Not a dollar in my pocket,
And the winter coming on;
The thing that breaks me up the most,
And makes me feel so small,
Is the sight of that old dinner pail
Hanging on the wall.

I've carried that old dinner pail
For fifteen years or more,
And it never saw me out of work
Or destitute before.

For with shops and factories running,
And the best of wages paid,
A prosperous lot of fellows were
The dinner-pail brigade.

But you see we wasn't satisfied,
Though it seemed most mighty strange,
And we said we thought the country
Would be better for a change;
And we railed about the tariff,
And we blabbed about free trade,
And we voted democratic,
But the dinner-pail brigade.

Well, a change was what we wanted,
And we got it, too, you bet;
For the shops and factories all shut down,
And let us in the wet;
The banks suspended payment,
And I lost my little all,
And the dinner pail is empty now
That's hanging on the wall.

I'm dependent now on charity
For the roof above my head,
And I've seen my wife and little ones
Go hungry to their bed;
But I've plenty of time for thinking,
For I voted democratic,
Just to have a little change.

Yes, we voted democratic,
And you see the change has made
A lot of hungry beggars
Of the dinner-pail brigade;
The workmen are idle,
But the wormwood and the gall
Is to see the empty dinner-pail
Hanging on the wall.

The Quartette Club rendered several patriotic selections, when Chairman Benson introduced, with a neat and appropriate speech, Hon. C. W. Fulton, the speaker of the evening. Upon Mr. Fulton stepping to the front an enthusiastic cheer went up such as was never heard in the court house before and it was several minutes before the speaker could proceed. Mr. Fulton spoke for two hours the most learned, convincing and masterly speech that has been listened to in this county during the campaign, and the appreciation of the speaker was fully demonstrated by the marked attention of the immense audience who were not only packed in the room but were standing in the halls, passages and adjoining rooms. At the close of Mr. Fulton's address several selections were rendered by the Quartette and with three cheers for McKinley and Hobart as well as for the two gentlemen speakers there was dispersed the largest political assembly ever before gathered in Douglas county.

Free Pills.

Send your address to J. E. Bucklen & Co., Chicago, and get a free sample box of Dr. King's New Life Pills. A trial will convince you of their merits. These pills are easy in action and are particularly effective in the cure of Constipation and Sick Headache. For Malaria and Liver troubles they have been proved invaluable. They are guaranteed to be perfectly free from every deleterious substance and to be purely vegetable. They do not weaken by their action, but by giving tone to the stomach and bowels greatly invigorate the system. Regular size 25c per box. Sold by A. C. Marsters, Druggist.

Died.

Elbert Casebeer, son of John L. and Lorella Casebeer, was born January 20, 1891 and died October 30, 1896, aged 5 years, 9 months and ten days. The funeral was conducted from the Pine Grove church, Sunday afternoon by Frank L. Moore. A large number of friends were in attendance.

Some McKinley Processions.

Roseburg..... 1,000

“ (Democratic estimate)..... 140

Portland..... 10,000

San Francisco..... 30,000

New York..... 140,000

A MCKINLEY DEMONSTRATION.

The greatest political demonstration ever witnessed in Roseburg was successfully carried out on Thursday last. It having been generally advertised that the republicans had fixed that day for a general rally and that Hon. Rufus Mallory and Hon. C. W. Fulton accompanied by the Multnomah Quartette would be present to discuss the political issues of the present campaign. Early in the day large crowds of voters with their wives and families commenced coming into town and at 2 o'clock the court house was filled, when after a song by the Multnomah Quartette, Mr. Benson, chairman of the County Republican Committee, introduced the Hon. Rufus Mallory, who was received by his old friends and neighbors by a fitting tribute of applause showing their esteem for him. Mr. Mallory in his usual eloquent and logical manner spoke upon the question of most interest to the voters at this time and was attentively listened to for upwards of two hours.

At 7 o'clock the throng gathered at the court house under the marshal of the evening, J. W. Wright, headed by the K. P. Band to parade in a torch light procession, the line being formed, the march commenced being composed of a column more than 1000 strong. All along the line of March, red fire was burst and fireworks exploded. The speakers of the day, members of the Multnomah Quartette Club, and the various committees being in carriages and a beautifully decorated bicycle with a young lady representing the state of Oregon was a pretty feature of the procession. Then there were sixty boys under the captaincy of Frank Tustin and Cliff Benson, carrying dinner pails and wearing McKinley hats and badges which made a pretty sight in the light of the flaming torches. All along the line of march there came from the procession as well as from the vast concourse of people on the sidewalk, continued shouts of hurrah for McKinley and Hobart and upon reaching the court house that building was crowded to its utmost capacity and hundreds were turned away being unable to find even standing room. Upon the evening's meeting being called to order the boys representing the dinner bucket brigade were lined up on the platform and Frankie Tustin recited:

THE EMPTY DINNER PAIL.

As I sat here idly dreaming
Of the happy time that's gone,
Not a dollar in my pocket,
And the winter coming on;
The thing that breaks me up the most,
And makes me feel so small,
Is the sight of that old dinner pail
Hanging on the wall.

I've carried that old dinner pail
For fifteen years or more,
And it never saw me out of work
Or destitute before.

For with shops and factories running,
And the best of wages paid,
A prosperous lot of fellows were
The dinner-pail brigade.

But you see we wasn't satisfied,
Though it seemed most mighty strange,
And we said we thought the country
Would be better for a change;
And we railed about the tariff,
And we blabbed about free trade,
And we voted democratic,
But the dinner-pail brigade.

Well, a change was what we wanted,
And we got it, too, you bet;
For the shops and factories all shut down,
And let us in the wet;
The banks suspended payment,
And I lost my little all,
And the dinner pail is empty now
That's hanging on the wall.

I'm dependent now on charity
For the roof above my head,
And I've seen my wife and little ones
Go hungry to their bed;
But I've plenty of time for thinking,
For I voted democratic,
Just to have a little change.

Yes, we voted democratic,
And you see the change has made
A lot of hungry beggars
Of the dinner-pail brigade;
The workmen are idle,
But the wormwood and the gall
Is to see the empty dinner-pail
Hanging on the wall.

The Quartette Club rendered several patriotic selections, when Chairman Benson introduced, with a neat and appropriate speech, Hon. C. W. Fulton, the speaker of the evening. Upon Mr. Fulton stepping to the front an enthusiastic cheer went up such as was never heard in the court house before and it was several minutes before the speaker could proceed. Mr. Fulton spoke for two hours the most learned, convincing and masterly speech that has been listened to in this county during the campaign, and the appreciation of the speaker was fully demonstrated by the marked attention of the immense audience who were not only packed in the room but were standing in the halls, passages and adjoining rooms. At the close of Mr. Fulton's address several selections were rendered by the Quartette and with three cheers for McKinley and Hobart as well as for the two gentlemen speakers there was dispersed the largest political assembly ever before gathered in Douglas county.

Free Pills.

Send your address to J. E. Bucklen & Co., Chicago, and get a free sample box of Dr. King's New Life Pills. A trial will convince you of their merits. These pills are easy in action and are particularly effective in the cure of Constipation and Sick Headache. For Malaria and Liver troubles they have been proved invaluable. They are guaranteed to be perfectly free from every deleterious substance and to be purely vegetable. They do not weaken by their action, but by giving tone to the stomach and bowels greatly invigorate the system. Regular size 25c per box. Sold by A. C. Marsters, Druggist.

Died.

Elbert Casebeer, son of John L. and Lorella Casebeer, was born January 20, 1891 and died October 30, 1896, aged 5 years, 9 months and ten days. The funeral was conducted from the Pine Grove church, Sunday afternoon by Frank L. Moore. A large number of friends were in attendance.

Some McKinley Processions.

Roseburg..... 1,000

“ (Democratic estimate)..... 140

Portland..... 10,000

San Francisco..... 30,000

New York..... 140,000

BRYAN PARADE.

The Bryan parade that was to be a grand affair, came off Saturday and proved to be a very tame one. There were about 70 voters in the parade, the balance of about 100 were of boys and about 10 women on the sidewalks wearing Bryan badges. The most notable feature of the parade was the marshal, a wild Dutchman, not long from the old country, who made himself very conspicuous in directing the movements of the parade. The managers of the local Bryan Club did not seem to be in it. But August was not so slow as his patronage would indicate. He found his services were more appreciated on this occasion than when he tried to get up a crowd to lynch Beckman about two years ago.

The paraders numbered about 180 all told. They made some show by marching through the principal streets of the town, the boys ringing cow bells and blowing horns. But they made up in noise what they lacked in numbers. After marching around a few blocks, they pulled up in front of the court house and broke ranks, the 16 white horses and one buckskin pony trotted off and hitched to posts, and then with the rest of the crowd, the riders filed into the court house where Col. J. H. Hager dressed them in the usual manner, heaping unstinted abuse upon the republican party, Hanna, and Cleveland, who is charged with being no better than a republican, ringing the charges upon the crime of '73, gold bug rascality, free silver coinage, 16 to 1, Bryan the patriot, the poor man's friend, the Moses who is to lead poverty from thrall-dom and make wheat $1.50 per bushel when we get cheap money that millionaires can't corner, and all the other political rot, that is the chief stock in populistic oratory. At night the undisciplined middle-of-the-road men and their allies, free silver democrats, again partially filled the court house and were this time addressed by our fellow citizen, Judge McFadden.

The whole affair was rather tame considering that it had been heralded for a week, by hand bills sent to all parts of the country and posted in shop windows and private residences all over the city. We were looking for a grand demonstration but looked in vain. It was not half so much of a demonstration as was made by the McKinleyites, Thursday night.

BANQUET.

After the political meeting on last Thursday night, Hon. J. T. Bridges gave a banquet at the Hotel Van Houten to a few of his friends. The menu was composed of simply every delicacy the market could afford and the wines were of the choicest brand. For about two hours there was some formality as Mr. Asher Marks acting as toast master called for the following toasts: McKinley and Hobart, responded to by Hon. G. M. Brown; Hon. Rufus Mallory, responded to by Asher Marks; Hon. C. W. Fulton, by Judge Langhary; The Multnomah Quartette, Hon. John H. Shupe; and our host, Hon. J. T. Bridges, responded to by General Fred Page-Tustin. After these toasts were disposed of time rolled jingly along till the wee small hours. Songs, speeches and stories being indulged in. Those present were: Messrs. Bridges, Mallory, Fulton, Tustin, Langhary, Brown, Marks, Asher Marks, F. W. Benson, Shupe, W. A. Frater, H. Benson, Meyers, Buick, and the Multnomah Quartette.

From Scottsburg.

ED. PLAINDEALER: If you will allow me space in your paper, I will explain what class of men are going through our section of the country hollowing for free silver. Yesterday an eyesore plaid engaged a lad of ten years to take him a distance of 16 miles with a horse and cart with a promise of $1.50. But when the work was done, and the humbug safely landed, and the little boy had done all that he had agreed to, he was sent home with a pair of ten cent cuff buttons as remuneration for his services. This is the class of men that condemn Supreme courts and honest money, uphold repudiation and riot, howl that labor is not properly paid, cuss business men because they want to pay honest labor in honest money, and money lenders for wanting money as good as that which they have loaned.

T. W. A.

W. C. T. U. Entertainment.

An entertainment will be given in Edenbower school house, on the evening of Nov. 10th. An admission fee of 10 cents will be charged, and the proceeds are to be the nucleus of a building fund for a W. C. T. U. hall in this neighborhood. The program will consist of music, singing, readings, speeches, recitations, etc., on temperance and other topics, both instructive and humorous. All are invited to attend and have an enjoyable time as well as aid a worthy cause. Remember the date, Tuesday, November 10th, 7:30 o'clock, p. m.

Odd Fellows, Attention!

All Odd Fellows in good standing are hereby invited to attend the meeting of Philatetan Lodge No. 8, Saturday, Nov. 7th. The Grand Master will officially visit this lodge and all the lodges in the county are expected to be present. The degree staff will exemplify the several degrees. By order of

E. McBRIDE, N. G.

FRANK G. MURPHY, Sec.

Married.

On Sunday evening, November 1st at home of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. West, in Roseburg, C. F. Davis to Miss Gertrude Wright, Frank L. Moore, officiating. The occasion was a very pleasant one. J. W. Frater was best man and Miss Myrtle M. Gillett, bridesmaid. Mr. and Mrs. Davis will reside at Mr. West's.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

THE ORIENT EXPRESS.

A bold Bulgarian shepherd boy looked so like a sheep,
So gentle yet so sportive in his shaggy shepherd's dress,
Lay down upon the railroad track and played he was asleep.

To fool the engine driver on the Orient Express.

The driver, who declined to slay the ram upon the rail,
Put on the brakes, reversed the wheels and turned his face away.

The stoker stood beside him, for it seemed his heart would fail,
Whereat the shepherd boy stood up and laughed and ran away.

Then came the Irish section boss the day the train came back
And poured about a barrel o' tar between the ties that day:

So when the shepherd boy lay down the tar upon the track
Trickled through the whiskers of his robe and held him where he lay.

The driver could not hear the cry that swept the right of way,
The death cry of the shepherd, and his soul was filled with mirth.

He opened up the throttle valve and turned his face away:
The train bore down upon the boy and swept him from the earth.

—Cy Warman in New York Sun.

MARVELOUS JENNY LIND.

Interesting Reminiscences of the "Swedish Nightingale."

Among the most interesting of those of whom John Addington Symonds gives reminiscences in his recently published autobiography is Mme. Jenny Lind Goldschmidt, of whom the