Cincinnati Commercial-Gazette: The kind of free silver work which Arkansas Jones now advocates is a "quiet, noiseless campaign, without bluster." Yes it must have been a great educational campaign.

Sneak-thieves broke into the dressing-room of the Columbia theater at Astoria Thursday afternoon and stole a quantity of male apparel belonging to members of the Ada Levick company, preventing the appearance of the troupe in the evening.

It is said proffered advice smells rank. There are quite a few quinduncs busy making up a cabinet for Major McKinley. But we opine that after the 4th of next March these wisecracks will wake up some morning to find their slate broken into smithereens.

New York World: "You were chums on earth, were you not?" queried Satan. "Yes," replied the two newly arrived shades. "Good. You may continue to smoke together." His majesty chuckled softly as he closed the door of oven No. 2,146,783,164 with a bang.

Secretary Olney may be a profound counselor, well versed in the law of nations and able to give sound advice, but he is an attorney for Cleveland and knows his wishes on the Cuban question and doubtless knows how to hold down his position in the cabinet.

A Madison-street cable car at Seattle lost its grip last week and plunged backward down a hill, two blocks long, at a terrific rate of speed. It was crowded with frantic passengers, and after its wild flight was checked it was discovered that somebody was hurt, the car being stopped without injury.

H. S. Conn of Melrose came up Saturday from that locality. He reports that Chas. LaPoint, who was stricken with paralysis several days ago, is still alive and conscious but unable to speak and slowly sinking, with little hopes of his recovery. Mr. La Point is an old pioneer of Douglas county and extensively known as one of Douglas' substantial citizens.

Gov. Lord of Oregon has been invited to attend a national good roads congress at Orlando, Florida, Feb. 2, 1897, and to appoint also delegates to represent Oregon in that congress. It is a worthy move and may materialize in some practical plan of betterment of public roads. Let it be tried and see if our solons can do anything to that end. Better roads are needed very much.

Elks' Xmas Tree and Ball. The Roseburg Elks, with their families and friends, had a glorious time Christmas night. A tree had been set up in the lodge room handsomely decorated, illuminated by electric lights and loaded with presents, mostly for the little folks, but liberally sprinkled with dolls, diminutive goats, tin rattles, hair oil, etc., and other articles of greater or lesser value for the members of the herd. A brief but interesting program, consisting of vocal and instrumental music, recitations, etc., opened the exercises, after which the presents were distributed amidst much hilarity and perfect babel of noise. After the distribution of presents most of the audience marched to the ball room below and to the inspiring music of the Roseburg orchestra danced until long past midnight. An excellent supper was served at the Van Houten at 11 o'clock and all went merry as a marriage bell. Altogether it was a great success, and will long be pleasantly remembered by those participating.

Exports and Imports. The Oriental Way. They send no glittering statements out. When a bank goes to smash in China, To show 'tis solvent beyond a doubt, When a tank goes to smash in China, No pitying tears you see them shed, But they take a big cheese-knife instead, And amputate the president's head, And banks never break in China. —Chicago Tribune.

Maximum Freight. The Corvallis Gazette favors the repeal of the railroad commission act and in its stead have a maximum freight bill passed. That might remedy the evil so far as Corvallis is concerned, but would that help towns where there is no competition, is a serious question. Of course the railroad commission is of no benefit to Corvallis, but how would a maximum freight bill benefit Douglas county?

The Oakland Orchestra will give a ball next Thursday night, the 31st inst. Dr. Page was called to Yoncalla Saturday on official business. The doctor reports Mr. W. L. Estes, one of our citizens, improving in health. Mr. E. has been seriously ill with neuralgia.

A festival was held at the Baptist church Thursday afternoon which was enjoyed by all attending.

We feel very grateful to the ladies who left their filled stockings attached to our door Christmas night. It is very pleasant to be remembered by the ladies. The fruit the stockings contained was as delicious in flavor as any of its kind that has been our good fortune to partake of.

The Christmas tree at the Presbyterian church Thursday evening was well attended, and the little folks enjoyed the presents very much. The exercises by the Junior and the Sunday School classes were excellent. The decorations and inscriptions were quite elaborate and tastefully arranged, which added to the evening's entertainment very much.

Salvationists Again. These strange religionists are again with us. They are a simple minded folk, zealous and aggressive in their line of work. "They carry the war into Africa." They have declared war against the devil and all his imp. They pitch their tent upon the enemy's ground and quarter on his substance. They will take recruits from the ranks of Satan and encourage desertion from the army of sin, and beg all the goods and chattels they can persuade sinner or sinner to turn over to their commissary store and give them vouchers to be cashed on the other side of Jordan. They throw out what they deem a poultice bridge to cross on, to every one who will throw a nickel in their gospel pail. One sister, last Saturday night passed round through the gaping congregation begging for 45 cents. "Only 45 cents, to make up the dollar." She returned and reported at headquarters her failure. Then the commissary remarked: "From so good a looking crowd I had expected better things. Pass round again sister, we must have 45 cents—need it in our business."

The Pulpit. Rev. J. T. Day of Eugene, Or., preached last Sunday night from the text, "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and you shall be saved." The speaker said that belief is passive, while faith is active. Belief, he said, is necessary for one to come to Christ. Faith lays hold of the promises of God and works out individual salvation. Without belief it is impossible to come to Christ. The speaker essayed a definition of the command, "Believe in Christ." If one believes in the scriptures he will obey its injunctions. An implicit faith makes the sin-sick soul whole. Faith is the all potent factor in the Christian religion. Without faith in the divinity of Christ, the saving ordinances of baptism by water and by the Holy Ghost for the remission of sins, man is lost. The salvable ordinances of good works are the results growing out of belief, faith and baptism. Belief precedes, faith follows with their sequences, a holy and upright life. A just life is impossible except as the consequence of belief in Christ as the author and finisher of our faith.

Notice of Annual Meeting. To the Shareholders of the Roseburg Building and Loan Association of Roseburg, Oregon: You are hereby notified that the annual meeting of the shareholders of the Roseburg Building and Loan Association of Roseburg, Or., for the purpose of electing a board of seven directors and an auditing committee of three, to serve during the ensuing year, and for the transaction of such other business as may lawfully be brought before it, will be held at the secretary's office in the Marks' brick building, Jan. 11, 1897, at 7:30 p. m. By order of the board of directors. HERMAN MARKS, Secretary.

Remembered the Poor. Mrs. Jack Scott, on Mill street, with that kind consideration worthy the highest praise gave a large number of poor boys and girls an entertainment at her residence Christmas night. She made 18 little fellows' hearts glad by her kindness. She had the Dupleman boys, the noted zither players, furnish sweet music, while cakes, candies and nuts were freely passed around. Such acts of charity will rise like incense to the giver of all good, and place the donors name in that crown of righteousness which we are taught is the highest adornment of human character—the true Christian.

Cared a Chinaman. P. Benedict our enterprising manufacturer and undertaker in the abundance of his kindness for all worthy people, has made and presented to our affable Chinese merchant a nice mazzineta, gold banded cane with a myrtle head. The gold band bears the inscription "Young Sam", who is justly proud of the present.

Annual Church Meeting. The regular annual business meeting of the Christian church will be held at the church parlors next Wednesday evening. At this meeting reports of the various departments will be presented, and officers for the ensuing year elected.

FRATERNAL SESSION.

Philatelist Lodge, No. 8, I. O. F., gave a fraternal session to Roseburg Rebekah Lodge, No. 41, in honor of the closing of a very prosperous year on December 6, 1896. After a very short lodge session the doors were opened and the Rebekahs marched in a body, and with appropriate remarks were introduced and welcomed to the lodge, after which the families of Odd Fellows joined in the celebration.

Great credit is due for the success of the entertainment to the following committee: Joseph Micelli, J. W. Strange, C. A. Sehbredre, E. McBroom and W. T. Wright. A very interesting program was rendered as follows:

Music, Pearl Wright. Opening ode, members of the order. Solo, J. W. Strange.

Address, C. A. Sehbredre. Trio, J. W. Strange, W. T. Wright and E. W. Strong.

At the conclusion of the programme, which was rendered in a most excellent manner, all were invited to remain and participate in different games, which the committee had previously arranged, after which the doors of the banquet hall were thrown open and to the delight of all, the committee displayed a supper superior to any ever given on similar occasions, and fully one hundred and fifty enjoyed the repast. After supper they again assembled in the main hall where the games resumed, until a very late hour, when all departed well pleased with the evening spent.

Concerning Testimony. Roseburg, Or., Dec. 25th, 1896. Ed. PLAINDEALER: Will you kindly allow us a little space in your paper to correct some misstatements made by the Roseburg Review of Dec. 24th, concerning the testimony of Monroe Isaacs and Mrs. Miller. The Review says: "Monroe Isaacs swore that Hinman and Yocum had proposed to him about April 1st, to rob Mayes' store." Here are the facts in the case: Monroe Isaacs swore that Hinman proposed, in the presence of Monroe Isaacs, witness, and Nat Yocum, to rob Mayes' store and Monroe Isaacs replied: "I am not out helping rob stores." On cross examination he testified that Nat Yocum never made any answer whatever, whether he would rob Mayes' store or not.

Error No. 2. The Review states that Mrs. Miller testified that shortly after the robbery Hinman and Yocum gave her some chewing gum, saying it was Mayes' best and that if she would "come over to the house" they would give her enough to last her a year. Here is what Mrs. Miller swears: That if she would go with them they would give her the gum. House was not mentioned. Now we believe that when making reports to the public facts only should be reported. Yours Respectfully, ONE OF THE JURY.

A Thrilling Adventure. The "Three Friends," a filibustering steamer from Ferdinand, Fla., had quite an exciting, and it appears, a successful adventure with a Spanish steamer off the coast of Cuba a few days ago. A Spanish patrol ship discovered the Three Friends and gave chase, firing upon the filibuster, but when the Three Friends sent back a Hotchkiss 12-pound shot followed by a rattle of small arms at short range and a repetition of the 12-pounder's shots, the Spaniards beat a hasty retreat and the Three Friends landed their cargo of ammunition safely on Cuban soil, which was quickly carried inland. The Three Friends then made her way back to Florida. Spaniards are bold and doughty when they think they have an enemy in their power but when they meet an "enemy worthy of their steel" they get out of their way on a double quick.

Keep Him Afloat. So they are going to take "Fighting Bob" Evans from the Indiana and put him at shore duty in Washington, are they? You navy needs such men as Evans in active service. It was he who said that if the government would give him the Indians and a week's time he would go to Havana and give a written guarantee that after he had been there a couple of days Spanish would be the only language spoken in hell for the next five years. That's the kind of men that made the old navy famous, and the new navy cannot spare them.

Passing Away. Joe Rossin, an old soldier, died and was buried Thursday at the Soldier's Home cemetery. This old vet had been an inmate of the home for about one year, but drew out and bought a house and lot on Main street near L. Schmieer, where he resided at the time of his death. He was borne to his last resting place by the inmates of the Home who turned out under the orders of the commandant and laid him away under the stars and stripes he supported when the life of the nation was imperilled. So one by one these old veterans pass on to that bourn from which no traveler returns.
