PIANOS.

In order to close out our stock of new and second hand pianos, we will offer them at cost. It is our intention to close out our business as quickly as possible, and in order to do this we will be compelled to sell at a very low figure and on each small installment that it will not pay you to rent. Therefore we will call in all our rented pianos and organs and give you the benefit that we have received as rent. We have in all sixteen pianos which we will sell from $100 to $400; $5 and $10 per month installments. Reasonable discount for cash.

Great reduction in violins, guitars and all musical goods. Sheet music 50 per cent discount. Send for catalogue. All orders promptly filled.

T. K. RICHARDSON,
Roseburg, Or.

Competition never worries us, because we "buy right" hence "sell right." The facts are these; every move in our business is only made after the most careful consideration, nothing left to chance. Shoes have advanced in price but not with us. We sell you a good oil grain shoe for $1.25 and upwards, fine shoes in proportion. If you doubt us, come and see us, convince yourself that we have what we advertise. We don't care to do all the business in town, but want to get a share of it. We firmly believe that a concern that gives its customers exceptionally good values in every instance is bound to go ahead year by year. This idea prevails throughout our entire business. Every dollar worth of goods must give the wearer satisfaction, even the all wool absolutely fast color $9.00 suits.

J. ABRAHAM'S Clothing House.

To the Public.

On and after this date, I wish it understood that my terms for all undertaker's goods are cash with the order. I find it impossible to do business on a credit basis, and believe that I can do better by my patrons and myself by selling strictly for cash.

P. BENEDICK, Undertaker.

PROTECTION WILL BE PERMANENT.

Six years ago, when the McKinley bill was passed, a doubt of the value of protection was created in the minds of the people by the free-traders, who made no end of promises. The days of free-trade were far in the past, and the people had forgotten them. In the fight for the continuance of the McKinley law the battle had to be waged at two points. The policy of protection as a general principle had to be battled for and the specific provisions of the McKinley bill had to be defended. Today the doubt of the wisdom of protection as a general principle has practically vanished. Experience has banished it from the minds of the people. The theorist and brainless philosophers are once more severely alone in their adherence to the fallacy of free trade. The new law which President McKinley will sign his name will not have to do battle for the cause of protection, but only for itself as a fit exemplar of the American system. It has only half the battle which the McKinley bill had, and it will have nearly double the time in which to fight it before the next presidential election. In six years the McKinley bill, because of the prosperity of the country during its existence, and still more because of the industrial disaster which has followed its repeal, has won its double battle. In the three years which the new law will in all probability have in which to fight its battle there is no doubt but that it will win gloriously and that the country will settle down to a long period of enjoyment of protection and prosperity. The people will have no desire to repeat the evil experience of the past four years. Boy Orator Bryan will, with truth, then be able to say, "The tariff is not an issue." It will not be an issue, because it will have been settled in a proper manner for the protection of all American interests.—American Economist.

No More Whiskey.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—The attendance in the house today was very light, a dull session being anticipated. An arrangement had been made whereby the day was to be given to business reported by the committee on the District of Columbia. There was a first general call of committees.

From the committee on Indian affairs a bill to prohibit the sale of intoxicating drinks to Indians was called up, and occasioned some debate. The bill imposed a fine of $100 and imprisonment for 60 days upon any person who shall sell intoxicating liquors of any kind whatever

W. C. T. U.

There is a great profit in the cigarette business and largely for this reason it is carried on in its present enormous proportions. The American tobacco trust claims that in one year it made a clear profit of $4,000,000 from the sale of cigarettes. In Indiana we have a law prohibiting the sale of cigarettes to children.

The accomplished cigarette smoker is not content with a regular puff; he draws the smoke into the depths of his lungs, holds it there a moment and then expels it through his mouth and nose. This poison is thus allowed to penetrate every portion of the lung cavity and by absorption is taken into the blood.

Physicians who have made this a special study declare that cigarette smoking is another form of the opium habit!

Senator McClung's joint resolution presented and passed in the senate Wednesday afternoon providing for the distribution of ninety sets of Hill's Annotated code to the several legislatures gave rise to a palpable breeze of disfavor among certain senators who feel that this bennet custom is a needless extravagance and the resolution was loaded with amendments abating the number of sets to various and meagre lots. Reed of Douglas talked straight to the point in behalf of an abridgement of the order, declaring that neither house had use for such a number of codes; that eight or ten sets to each house was ample, and that even those should be marked and held as property of the house and senate respectively and should be used from session to session until worn out, and then replaced. Selling of Multnomah was well to the front with a similar expostulation, urging the necessity of the senate itself setting an example in retrenchment and economy in its own expenditures; but, despite these thrifty conclusions, the resolution carried by a very decided affirmative vote.—Salem Statesman.

Secretary Carlisle's "comfortable surplus" has now resolved itself into an estimated deficit of $64,500,000 for the current fiscal year. This result has been arrived at by the secretary of the treasury "upon the basis of existing laws." This means the democratic "tariff for revenue only," known as the Gorman-Wilson bill, which President

Cleveland denounced as a bill of "perfidy and dishonor," but of which he now says, "if allowed a fair opportunity," "it will in the near future yield a revenue which, with reasonably economical expenditures, will overcome all deficiencies." It has been in force now for two years and four months and the president or his secretary of the treasury should explain why it has not been "allowed a fair opportunity." Nobody but the present administration has placed any obstacles in its way. For the next fiscal year ending June 30, 1896, a further deficit of $45,718,970 is estimated, so how long a period of time must a "fair opportunity" be expected to cover?

The National Recording Secretary of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, Mrs. Clara Hoffman, will come to Roseburg, February, 22. She comes with the full and expressed determination to do us good. Miss Willard says of her: "We are sending our very best to you—Mrs. Clara C. Hoffman—whom we call 'Great Heart,' and whom you will call by the same name when you know her as we do. She is the Thousas H. Benton of the prohibition cause, every whit as able as that great senator of Missouri. She will strengthen and build up every righteous cause and no one will have a word to say against her—except the oligarchy of the liquor traffic." Mrs. Barker, National Treasurer, says of her: "Mrs. Hoffman is one of our very best speakers—a born orator. Her fine education and quick perception gives her unusual power over her audiences."
