

THE DEVIL.

Men don't believe in the devil now, as their fathers used to do; They've forced the door of the broadest creed to let his majesty through. There isn't a print from his cloven foot, or a fiery dart from his bow, To be found on earth or sky today, for the world has voted so.

But who is it mixing the fatal draught that pales heart and brain, And loads the bier of each passing year with ten hundred thousand slain? Who blights the bloom of the land today with the fiery breath of hell, If the devil isn't, and never was? Won't somebody rise and tell?

Who dogs the step of the tottering saint, and digs the pit for his feet? Who sows the tares in the field of time wherever God sows his wheat? The devil is voted not to be, and of course the thing is true; But who is doing the old work of the devil alone should do?

We are told he doesn't go about as a roaring lion now. But whom shall we hold responsible for the everlasting row To be heard in church, in home, and state, to earth's remotest bound, If the devil by unanimous vote is nowhere to be found?

Won't somebody step to the front forthwith, and make their bow, and show How the frauds and crimes of a single day spring up? We want to know. The devil was fairly voted out, and of course the devil's gone; But simple people would like to know who carries his business on.

How It's Done in Wasco.

A young woman in Dufur, Wasco county, suing her ex-sweetheart for breach of promise, and The Dalles lawyers were, as usual, making all sorts of inquisitive interrogatories. "You say," remarked one, "that the defendant frequently sat very close to you?" "Yes sir," was the reply, with a hectic flush. "How close?" "Close enough, so's one cheer was all the sittin' room we needed." "And you say he put his arm round you?" "No, I didn't." "What did you say, then?" "I said he put both arms around me." "Then what?" "He hugged me." "Very hard?" "Yes he did. So hard that I came purty near hollelin' right out." "Why didn't you hollel?" "Cause." "That's no reason. Be explicit, please. Because what?" "Cause I feared I'd stop." The court fell off the bench and had to be carried out and put under the hydrant for the purpose of resuscitation. —Observer.

Men and Hogs.

Some one says that men are just like hogs, however distasteful this may sound to the hogs. When a hog gets an ear of corn every other hog will trot along behind him squealing and whining for a bite. But just let the front hog get set in a crack every son of a sow will jump on him and tear him to pieces. Just so with men. As long as a man is prosperous and has money he can't keep his friends off with a base ball bat. The minute he is unfortunate and his wealth is gone he is not only snubbed by his former alleged friends, but they at once begin to do all the harm possible. When a man starts up grade the world falls behind and pushes. When he starts down grade the world steps to one side, greases the track and lets him slide. —Adage.

How's This.

Tie a string about a yard long to a common door key and take the string in the right hand, holding it so the key will clear the door four or five inches. If you can hold the key steady enough the key will begin to swing back and fourth in a straight line. Let another person take your left hand in his and the motion of the key will change from the pendulum-like swing to a circular swing. If a third person will place his hand on the shoulder of the second person the key will stop. Try it and then explain if you can. —Ex.

The dispatches inform us that in his invocation of a divine blessing on the Benson house Monday morning, the Rev. J. Bowersox said that the different factions might be harmonized. It is not likely that the good Mr. Bowersox's prayers will be heeded. The good God knew very well what the result of the election of 25 populists to the legislature would mean, and having permitted it, will keep his hands off and look upon the voters of this state with prolonged commiseration. —Pendleton Tribune.

Grant county is at present in a perilous condition, for every desire of the neighboring counties is satisfied, the old commonwealth of Grant will be wiped off the map, says the Long Creek Eagle. The old Sutton county is to be revived at the present session of the legislature, Morrow county is going to strike for a share of our territory, the Ukiah county wants a slice, Baker county would not object to the Granite territory; in fact, she is likely to make a lively fight to get it.

The United States Cruiser Brooklyn is disabled on a sunken reef in the Delaware river. The damage is considerable and it will be some time before she gets into active service. Our naval navigators must be a little more careful. In the present uncertain condition of international affairs we might need all the ships that can be mustered on short notice. Spain may take a notion to tell us to mind our own business, then what?

Lakeview Examiner: About 10 people participated in a rabbit drive on the west side Sunday, but as the rabbits were "fat and sassy" and there was an utter absence of snow, the drive proved almost a failure. About 100 were slain. A heavy fall of snow is essential for a successful drive.

While the invention of labor saving machinery throws men out of employment, other inventions open up new avenues. Electricity in its various applications is said to give employment to five million people. The business of today could not be transacted with the appliances of fifty years ago.
