The combination sprayer is all the rage now. Mr. W. H. Gordon, the local agent of the Central House, is taking orders and delivering sprayers to purchasers. Don't forget that we have a line of No. 1 tinware, if you want the good grade you'll always find it here at bottom prices, also notions of all kinds, Novelty Store.

Sol Abraham and wife returned from Portland Friday evening accompanied by their daughter Mrs. Geo. G. Mack. Mrs. Abraham has been in the hospital there for some time. The ladies of Women's Relief Corps will give a childrens dime sociable at the Opera House, Thursday evening, Feb. 18th. Come children and have a good time. STURIE BAKER, Sec.

Hon. Rufus Mallory, passed through on Saturday morning on his way to San Francisco to argue a case before the Federal Court of Appeals. He expects to return tomorrow night and stop over a day. The ladies of the W. F. M. S. of the M. E. church will give a missionary tea at the parlance Tuesday evening, February 16th. Supper will be served from 5 to 9 o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended to all. Admission 10 cents.

Walter Browning, of Myrtle Creek was brought in on Saturday by F. M. Gabbart, and examined by Dr. K. L. Miller on a charge of insanity. His hallucination was that he had joined an order and suffered injury. He was adjudged insane, dangerous to be at large, and taken to the asylum.

Patee will positively appear in all the towns of Southern Oregon early in the spring. For particulars see T. K. Richardson. Chicken fanciers or those contemplating raising thoroughbred fowls will find something of interest in our advertising columns. Assessor Brit is the recipient of a number of valentines, not elegant but expressive, and the allusions thereof, especially that of the horned animal, are to him enigmatical.

Bert Benjamin, son of C. Y., was home on a brief visit to his parents. He came in on the overland Saturday morning and returned last evening. He is in the orchestra of the Center Peyton Theatrical Company and is bound north. On February the 25, H. W. Wesco of Portland, Or., will give at Roseburg, stereoscopic entertainment of Oregon scenery and industries. The entertainment will be given at the M. E. church, under the auspices of the ladies of the W. C. T. U.

Mrs. T. K. Richardson went down to Portland Thursday evening. There was a reunion of the Buckman family of which Mrs. R. is a member at that place on Friday. The occasion was the celebration of the 85th anniversary of the birth of Mrs. Richardson's mother. The revival services at the U. B. church are rapidly increasing in attendance and interest. Several persons are inquiring after pardon and purity. The meetings will continue all week. Services at 2:30 and 7:30 every day. Divine healing services at 2:30 on Friday. All are invited.

There is such a thing as standing up so straight that you bend backward; and the reason so many of us come to old age and have nobody to care for us is that we are living miserable, selfish, contemptible lives. We expect our friends to slave and crawl and grind and drudge for us, and we do nothing for them. The best way to keep your friends true to you is to be true to them.

Simon S. Hartman of Tunnelton, West Va., has been subject to attacks of colic about once a year, and would have to call a doctor and then suffer for about twelve hours as much as some do when they die. He was taken recently just the same as at other times, and concluded to try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He says: "I took one dose of it and it gave me relief in five minutes. That is more than anything else has ever done for me." For sale by A. C. Marsters & Co.

R. D. Gordon's oil well at Looking Glass, has ended like the last of a comedy. A sample of the product was sent to San Francisco, or some other point to be tested, and the reply was returned C. O. D. at a cost of $10. When opened it said the fluid contained so much per cent, refined petroleum and so much "lard oil," and advised the owner to not continue operations. A friend asked him why he didn't go ahead with it, and he asked why he should. "Why you might strike the whole hog" was the answer.—Riddle Mite.

The little daughter of Mr. Fred Webber, Holland, Mass., had a very bad cold and cough which he had not been able to cure with anything. I gave him a 25 cent bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, says W. P. Holden, merchant and postmaster at West Brimfield, and the next time I saw him he said it worked like a charm. This remedy is intended especially for acute throat and lung diseases such as colds, croup and whooping cough, and it is famous for its cures. There is no danger in giving it to children for it contains nothing injurious. For sale by A. C. Marsters & Co.

J. S. Gearhard came in on the local Friday evening direct from Nebraska. Mr. Gearhard is here for the purpose of looking up a location and becoming a permanent resident of this state. The fame of Douglas as a desirable place of residence had reached him in his Nebraska home and he came. It is his intention to lease a place for the present, if he can find one to suit, and determine for himself whether this is a good country to live in before purchasing. He is under the chaperonage of Robert Woodruff, of Coles Valley, and consequently in good hands. There is little doubt but that if the Douglas county climate and soil are given a fair test they will prove all that has been claimed for them.

Douglas Waite was envied by all the young men in town last week. For three days he held forth in the court room at the court house and was surrounded by a bevy of young school ma'ams. Ye local looked in for a moment and saw a lot of young people eager to begin the battle of life as teachers, full of hope and ambition, and could not help but reflect upon the possibilities of the future. Here perhaps were persons destined to become educators of renown. Here were persons from whose lips statesmen and matrons of a coming generation would learn their first lessons, of letters, of the science of art, and even statecraft. Next to the parent, upon the teacher must rest the responsibility for the stamp of the men and women, who soon shall take our places.

Pythian Anniversary. On Friday next Alpha Lodge No. 47, K. of P., of this city will celebrate the 33d anniversary of the establishment of the Order at the Castle Hall in Odd Fellows' Temple. The Bathbone sisters will also take part in the proceedings which will consist of music, speech-making and sicc. All sojourning Knights are requested to attend without waiting for a formal invitation. The Knights have the reputation of doing these things up in elegant shape, and it is proposed that this shall be no exception to rule. Call for the "Spotted Cat" at Mrs. Rapp's grocery store, if you want pleasant smoke.

THE BAL MASQUE. A Gay Crowd in Hard Times Attire. The mask ball given at the Armory on Saturday night by T. K. Richardson, was a most enjoyable affair. There were just forty-one maskers and spectators innumerable. The maskers succeeded in getting themselves up in all sorts of grotesque costumes, and for the most part carried out the characters assumed very nicely. It was, as its name indicated, a hard times affair, consequently there were no Romeo or Juliet, no Spanish cavaliers, or gaily caparisoned knights, no grand ladies of the Eighteenth century, no dukes, no lords, no princes, but there were topicals, and clowns, and chisnams, and organ grinders, and school girls and hoodlums, but no dudes. The grand march took place at nine o'clock and the unmasking march at about 10:30. The judges were B. Brockway, Dr. Dugas and Mrs. Judge Loggarty, and the prizes were awarded as follows: Hard Times, 1st. prize, Fred Wright, ham; second prize, E. L. Fisher, sack of flour; comical character, John Boyd, umbrella; clown, Jesse Smith, box of cigars; best dancers, lady, Ada McCurdy, perfume; gent, Ed. Fitzpatrick, pair of slippers. The spectators prize, a set of glassware, was drawn by Charley Ferry. The music by the Roseburg Orchestra was excellent and a good time generally was had all around.

A Musical Treat. Mrs. Appelloff and the ladies of her music class gave a musical reception on Friday evening last to celebrate the fourth anniversary of the formation of the Roseburg Orchestra, an institution which our people are justly proud. Following is the program which was rendered in a most pleasing manner: 1. "Semiramide," Rossini Orchestra. 2. Chorus—"Greeting," Mendelssohn, Meadames Appelloff, Estes, Minkler, Morris and Fisher. 3. Piano solo—"Les Deux Anges," Binnetthal, Edwin McKenzie. 4. Piano Trio—"Venetian Galop," Strauss, Misses Willis, Fullerton and Hamilton. 5. Song—"Thou Art So Near," Reichardt, Mrs. Minkler. 6. Piano duet, Diabelli, Irving Gibson and Edwin McKenzie. 7. Solo and Trio—"Sweet Vale of Rest," Les Huguenots, Meadames Estes, Minkler, Morris and Fisher. 8. Piano solo—selected, Mrs. Emerson Fisher. 9. Piano duet—"The Merry Dance," Joel Low, Mircea Stephens and Morris. 10. Children's Chorus—"The Rock-a-lie Lady," (poem by Eugene Field), Abbott, Helen Willis, Vell Barker, Kate Fullerton, Hattie Barker, Frank McKenzie, Ruth Hamilton, Ethel Appelloff, Artie McKenzie. 11. Andante from Surprise Symphonies Haydn, Orchestra. At the conclusion of the musical exercises a lunch was served. Some of the cake left over found its way to the PLAINDEALER office the next day.

A correspondent writes of the reception thus: Friday night being the fourth anniversary of the orchestra, Mrs. Appelloff, assisted by the ladies of her music class gave the members a right royal reception. There were besides, a goodly number of invited guests, and the programme which was well rendered afforded delightful entertainment. There was a slight variation, from that intended, as little Ruth Gibson, whom so many wished to see reside at the piano was too ill to be present, and Miss Bitzer's absence on account of her mother's illness. But otherwise the musical discourses of the orchestra, the solos, duets and trios by the different performers were highly appreciated and gave evidence of being well mastered. The sandwiches, coffee and cake given as a finale was much enjoyed, and while indulging, one could not withhold the praises due Mrs. Appelloff, not only for her generous hospitality, but for the strenuous efforts she has made to cultivate the taste for the better class of music in our city. SARA FRED.

Edison's Electric Vitascope. The most novel entertainment ever seen in Roseburg will be that at the Opera House Saturday evening of this week, when Edison's electric vitascope will produce the almost living pictures of Cissie Fitzgerald in her famous skirt dance; the knock out round in championship prize fight; the great fire scene, etc. Thousands of people are being turned away nightly from Koster & Bials, in New York, where it has had the phenomenal run of almost a year. It is not only a source of great amusement but also instructive, alike to old and young. Popular prices will prevail, being placed at 25 and 50 cents for reserved seats. Secure your seats early.

Some Fine Pianos. The Wiley B. Allen Co., of Portland have shipped to Roseburg some very fine pianos, having the new "Mandolin" attachment, and will sell them at very low prices and on easy terms. The Wiley B. Allen Co. is the oldest and largest music house in the northwest, and handles the Chickering, Ludwig, Harrington, Hardman, Fischer, and other pianos. Also Estey, Mason Hamilton, Chicago Cottage and other organs, and is in a position to give extremely low prices. All are invited to call at the McClallen house and examine the instruments.

Schilling's Best means: we lend you tea, coffee, cocoa, baking powder, vanilla extracts and spices; and, if you like them, you buy them. Your grocer pays your money back if you don't like Schilling's Best. For sale by Kruse & Shambrook

CORRESPONDENTS' CORNER.

A Batch of Newsy Letters from Various Localities. DRAIN DOTTETS. Hop yards are being cultivated this season. Stocker & Son's yard is all done and others soon will be. The acreage of grain is going to be larger than for many years past. The roads are terrible muddy. On the Patton and Scottsburg road a many fish wagons are hauling turkeys to the railroad to ship to Portland from Gardner, and salmon from all the way along the Umpqua river above Elkton and down to Gardner. The fishing industry of the Umpqua gives employment to many people besides the teamsters, and several thousand dollars are distributed among them. A railroad down the Umpqua is the one thing needful to develop this industry. Last Thursday night, as the stage was coming from Elkton, a slide occurred and with it came a large fir tree, catching and imprisoning the horses. Ed Patterson, the driver, cut the harness and succeeding in liberating the animals. It was a narrow escape both for the horses, the driver and the passengers from being carried over the grade to Elk Creek, 400 feet below.

One by one the leaves fall, so with the pioneer's of Oregon. This Sabbath the writer attended the funeral of Mrs. Nancy Cartwright, who was born in White county, Illinois, May 3, 1817, nearly 80 years ago. Mother Cartwright, as we old friends called her, was a good woman and had been a member of the M. E. church since 1833, a period of 67 years, as Father Taylor said today, the longest membership of any in the congregation, and he was the next with 63 years. Mother Cartwright had many friends. She was good to the poor and needy and many can attest her kind deeds, the writer included. While we have lost a good friend, God has received a good soul. May she rest in peace. Her only son was killed by cholera in 1856. Her surviving children are Mrs. William Russell of Drain and Mrs. G. W. Cartwright of Yoncalla. The funeral was largely attended. No room for all in the M. E. church although many stood up. She was buried in the Drain cemetery.

Do we republican, democrat or populist we do not like the situation at Salem. Those men went there to legislate, not for a senatorial fight. Sooner or later we will find out who is to blame and we will remember them in June, '98. I for one elect from constant lip to president by popular vote. States make counties, counties states, states the federal union. JOSE.

OAKLAND. Henry Churchill is carrying the mail again from here to Looking Glass. Mr. White of Albany is visiting his daughter, Mrs. McGhee. James Dearing shipped a lot of furs to New York last week. Rev. W. P. Anderson of Roseburg held services at the Baptist Church Sunday morning and evening. Rev. Forbes, synodical missionary of the state, delivered a sermon at the morning and evening services at the Presbyterian church Sunday.

We are pleased to note that Mrs. H. Little is able to be around again after her long illness. W. R. Thompson of Coles Valley was in town one day last week. Mr. T. reports the losing of several hours sleep the night of the recent hold-up at Shady Point near Roseburg. The Reading Circle held its weekly meeting at the residence of S. J. Jones Saturday evening. These meetings are increasing in interest and the readings are of such a nature that they tend to educate the mind against the use of alcoholic stimulants and narcotics. We wish these meetings every success possible.

Prof. McGhee returned from Roseburg Sunday morning where he has been assisting in the examination of teachers applying for certificates. During his absence, Miss Jennie Clarke has had charge of our school in the principal's place, and Miss Anna Clarke of Millwood has been teaching the intermediate grade. The Oakland Building & Loan Association held its annual meeting Monday evening last week, and elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Board of directors, A. F. Brown, A. G. Young, B. J. Bovington, G. T. Russell, F. W. McKechnie, A. J. Dear, W. B. Hammitte, A. F. Brown, president; A. G. Young, vice-president; G. T. Russell, secretary; A. G. Young, treasurer; J. Russell, solicitor; auditing committee, U. L. Chenoweth, P. B. Beckley, Benjamin Huntington.

Dr. L. Hall passed to higher life Sunday about 11 a. m. For some time past Mr. Hall has not been able to get around but little, and a recent illness has brought his life to a close on this terrestrial sphere. He was one of the early settlers in this locality, and his life has been a varied one and full of experiences. The funeral services will take place at the residence of Mr. Bloomfield, with whom he was living, at 10 a. m. Tuesday. After which the O. R. & N. E. order will take charge of the remains and lay them to rest in the Odd Fellows' cemetery. TRULBY.

The Central House. W. H. Gordon is now the proprietor of this popular house. The table will be supplied with the best in the market good beds and courteous treatment. Meals 15 cent, and beds the same rate. DANCE. At the Armory Every Saturday Evening. These dances will be run on a regular scientific plan. Instructions on new dances from 7:30 to 9 o'clock, free of charge. Admission for lady and gentleman, 50 cents. Gentleman without lady, 75 cents. Lady not accompanied by gentleman 25 cents. Spectators not allowed. T. K. RICHARDSON.

be the banner populist precinct of Douglas county. The questions which will be asked of candidates next election will not be, "will you support the initiative and referendum, knock out useless commissions, etc.," but "will you be in favor of the organization of the house, will you work in the interests of the people, clear of demagogues, and let the majority rule." Verily their leaders do err. "They are wise to do evil, but to do good they have no knowledge." Populism is as dead as the Hotel Van Houten. Good crops, good prices, make the people contented, better and more liberal, and when people are in this condition, they take to the republican band wagon, like ducks to water. The Brockway Literary Society gave an entertainment Saturday night which was well attended and highly appreciated, some 150 persons being in attendance. The exercises consisted of music, singing, dramas, recitations, etc. District No. 16 has assumed quite a metropolitan air. She conducts weekly a very instructive and successful debating class. A dramatic entertainment is given every three weeks, and she has been stirred up from sending a conference all this winter over her attempted division. The case has been ably represented on both sides. County Superintendent Waite has been reversed by State Superintendent Irwin and has now landed in the circuit court, with a good prospect of continuing the case in headquarters—the supreme court of Oregon. This will, we hope, settle the question as to who are legal voters at school meetings in Oregon. Thus district 16 is traveling the road to fame. A circumstance occurred here the other day which was quite interesting to "ye worthy editor." A populist picked up a PLAINDEALER remarking after perusing its columns for some time: "Well, air, those Review people are improving mightily in the getting up of their paper." Throw in more demo-populist calumny howls "Cholle." Your following don't seem to know "where they are at." DIST. NO. 16. A Swindler. DRAIN, Or., Feb. 14th, 1897. Ed. PLAINDEALER:—Last December a swindler came along claiming to be an agent of Standard Pattern Co. He came to Drain, sold the right to sell to Miss F. M. Seymour, dressmaker here, and then went on to Oakland telling Miss Hattie Cooper that he sold Miss Seymour a lot of patterns and that she had sold $40 worth. So she also paid him $75 for a supply, including as well as Miss Seymour. He said the patterns would soon come, none ever came and he is $350 better off, swindling these hard working girls and how many more I know not. May the press of Oregon and California roast him. JAS. A. STERLING.

Deck Hand Drowned. A Corvallis dispatch of the 10th, says: This morning about 6 o'clock Charles Snyder, a deckhand on the steamer Ruth, drowned in the Willamette near the Benton flouring mills. The Ruth had been loading flour, and in swinging down the stream, she caught on the stern of the Gypsy, which was tied to the government snagboat. Several of the Ruth's crew boarded the Gypsy to push off the Ruth, and in getting back, Snyder stepped off into the river. It was dark, and the other members of the crew were unable to distinguish Snyder's form in the water. The current at this point is rather swift, and it is supposed Snyder was swept by its force under the boats. He was about 35 years of age, and lived in Portland. The body has not yet been discovered.

Wants a New District. Residents of the territory down on the Umpqua, about midway between the schoolhouses of districts No. 36 (Scottsburg) and No. 38, desire to be set off in a district by themselves, setting forth that they are three miles from a school house one way and two and one-half miles the other, and that it is impossible for the smaller children of school age to attend in the winter season. During the two months past a private school has been taught in the neighborhood, but the people there think they ought to get the benefit of the school funds to which their children are entitled, this being their prayer. The petition has been filed with Superintendent Douglas Waite, but a vigorous remonstrance, it is said, will be sent in from the old districts.

There is Nothing So Good. There is nothing just as good as Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, so demand it and do not permit the dealer to sell you some substitute. He will not claim there is anything better, but in order to make more profit he may claim something else to be just as good. You want Dr. King's New Discovery because you know it to be safe and reliable, and guaranteed to do good or money refunded. For Coughs, Colds, Consumption and for all affections of Throat, Chest and Lungs, there is nothing so good as Dr. King's New Discovery. Trial bottles free at A. C. Marsters' Drug Store. Regular size 50 cents and $1.00.

For Over Fifty Years. AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, always all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and take no other kind.

THE CENTRAL HOUSE. W. H. Gordon is now the proprietor of this popular house. The table will be supplied with the best in the market good beds and courteous treatment.
