The marshal has been kept busy running in dogs for some days. Every untamed "pup" that comes his way puts his head into a prepared noose and is marched off to the dog pound.

Sign-painters are ordinarily great on punctuation and sometimes they get a little awry on spelling. But perhaps their's is a new way, a little different even from the phonetic at times.

Assessor Britt has on exhibition at his office in the court house a small bottle filled with flake gold which he picked up at different times along the river on his place near Riddle. He has about 50 acres of bottom land on his farm and says there is not a rod of it that does not contain gold in greater or lesser quantities.

A. F. and J. M. McIntire took out another load of machinery to the Littlefield mines on Olalla Saturday. They will be back again for a load tomorrow and after that they'll tackle the big boiler.

D. W. Stearns and wife of Oakland are in the city on a visit to their son, County Judge Stearns. Mr. and Mrs. Stearns are old time residents of Roseburg, and their friends here, always glad to see them, are legion.

Wells have a beautiful supply of water, in some parts of the city it stands within three feet of the top, and if the rain continues we are afraid the wells will become regular artesian—and spout.—Woodburn Independent.

It might be well for the Coos Bay Roseburg and Eastern Railroad company to lay in the necessary steel rails to complete the road through to this city. The prices are away down and the company will do well to load up.

The present winter has been one of the longest, wettest and foggiest ever known in Southern Oregon. The last few weeks have been marked by a great excess of precipitation above that common to this season.—Medford Monitor.

Judge Fullerton today handed down a decree dissolving the bonds of matrimony existing between F. M. and W. N. Moore. Mrs. Moore gets the minor child, Mr. Moore the property, and each was required to pay his and her own costs in the case.

It cost the state of Oregon just 38 per cent yesterday to run the snare. The two sessions occupied just fifty minutes, fifteen in the morning and thirty-five in the afternoon and the approximate daily expense of that branch for salaries is $150.—Statesman.

As men are compelled to be satisfied with smaller returns than in pioneer days, placer claims that were issued over 40 years ago as to poor to work are being operated and the returns are satisfactory. There are scores of such in this county and more will be opened up by and by.

Ordinarily the first of March is the time when the assessors take the field to make the assessments. But Assessor Britt will hardly be ready at that time. He is busy with the preliminaries and will be ready with his corps of assistants to interview the property owners very soon after that date.

Conductor T. J. Kearney of the overland, running between here and Ashland, met with a painful accident at Glendale Thursday morning. Just as he was about to get on the train a dog ran against him and knocked him down. He sprained his knee cap and will be incapacitated for a few days.

The wife of S. D. Willis presented him with a 12 pound daughter on Friday morning. The PLAIND DEALER suggests that as the young lady's advent occurred on the anniversary of Pythianism, she be named Calanthe, and the local lodges, Knights and Rathbone sisters, become the god parents.

The rifle cranks of Roseburg have formed a club, a temporary organization being effected Saturday night by electing W. S. Britt, chairman and J. T. Bryant, secretary. Committees were appointed to look up grounds suitable for a range, and on by-laws, rules and regulations. Adjourned to meet March 6th.

Fred Zigler has purchased the interest of A. F. Wall in the Depot Grocery, heretofore owned by Zigler & Wall. The firm name from henceforth will be Zigler Bros. They will always keep on hand a full stock of groceries of the best quality and endeavor by fair dealing to merit and obtain a fair share of the public patronage.

Don't fail to see Wesco's stereoscopic views of Oregon. These views will be exhibited by the Oregon Immigration Board throughout the Eastern and Middle States. Come and see how Roseburg compares with other cities and is advertised to Eastern friends. Admission only 10 and 15 cents at the M. E. Church, Feb. 25th.

S. C. Flint, the retiring school director, will not be a candidate for re-election. He said he has served six years, and while that length of service might tend to case harden a man, he prefers to lay aside the cares and responsibilities of the office and let some other man shoulder the burdens and enjoy the honors of the position.

Gospel meetings at the U. B. church are growing in interest and power. Revs. W. W. Gregory and A. S. Copley are consecrated men full of faith and the holy ghost and preach a four-fold gospel justification, sanctification, divine healing, and the second coming of Jesus Christ. A cordial invitation is given to all to attend these services.

The battle-ship Oregon, for which the people of this state bought a purchase-bowl, returned to San Francisco Tuesday for her first sea cruise. She had been absent about four weeks and during her voyage has practiced with her guns and has been tested as a fighting machine and sea-going craft. The vessel has proved satisfactory in every respect.

The party given by the ladies of the Relief Corps at the Odd Fellows' Temple on Thursday evening, was quite largely attended chiefly by the younger members of the rising generation. They got in and played games, had lunch and enjoyed a big time generally. Our special correspondent on the spot reported a mob present and they made a great racket.

Geo. Heath was in from Glide last week. Commenting on the legislative flasco, he said it ought to do the populists up. It has certainly done it in his neighborhood. To a rational man it does look as though there was no sort of excuse for the course the populist representatives have pursued in the affair, and they have always contended that they were reformers, too. It seems that they are the thickest of tricky politicians.

Free Secular lecture by Nettie A. Olds, vice-president Oregon State Secular Union, to be delivered at the Opera House, Thursday evening, Feb. 25. People of all denominations should avail themselves of this opportunity to learn the true principles of Secularism and what Secularists are doing. Miss Olds is a representative of the Liberal University established at Silverton, Oregon. Subject: The Needs of a Practical Religion.

Simon S. Hartman of Tunnell, West Va., has been subject to attacks of colic about once a year, and would have to call a doctor and then suffer for about twelve hours as much as some do when they die. He was taken recently just the same as at other times, and concluded to try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He says: "I took one dose of it and it gave me relief in five minutes. That is more than anything else has ever done for me."

For sale by A. C. Marsters & Co. This did not occur in Roseburg but is said to have taken place in one of our neighboring towns. Roseburg swains do not wait for such a lift handed invitation: A young couple after leaving an evening's soiree, repaired to the restaurant and then to the home of the young lady. At the gate, the young man, who was intoxicated, was loth to leave his sweetheart, and presently, in spite of his most lively efforts, conversation lagged. After a silence of considerable duration she asked him what he was thinking about. He, thinking to please her, replied: "I was thinking the same thing you were." She, turning around, answered quicker than lightning: "I'll slap your mouth if you try it."

K. of P. Anniversary. On Friday last, the members of Alpha Lodge, No. 47, K. of P., assisted by the Rathbone Sisters of Omega, No. 2, celebrated the 33d anniversary of the foundation of the order, at the Carle Hall in Odd Fellows' Temple. There was a large gathering of the members and their invited guests. The exercises consisted of music, instrumental and vocal, recitations, speaking, reading, etc. The selections by the orchestra, "Sunshine and Roses," "Il Trovatore," and "American Fantasia," were exceptionally fine and thoroughly appreciated. The quartette, which by the way consisted of five persons, namely, J. H. Shupe, D. Langenberg, F. Park, W. T. Wright and B. W. Strong, sang two selections very nicely. F. Page-Tustin delivered an address, which will be found on the 2d page of this issue. J. B. Eddy made a few appropriate remarks. Wilbur Falke recited excellently. "When wife is at the plodge," Free Johnson read a humorous selection and the solos of Mrs. C. Y. Benjamin and Mrs. Minkler contributed in no small degree to the enjoyment of the program, members and guests repaired to the banquet room where an excellent lunch was prepared, and after that all sorts of games were indulged in till about 1 a. m. Saturday morning, and then terminated one of the most successful and enjoyable social events of the season. The order of the Knights of Pythias is one of the strongest and most popular of secret societies, and such occasions as that of Friday last have taken in no small degree to make it so.

Foot Ball. The following teams lined up in the Rose field at 2:30 this afternoon: WILBUR. Pos. ROSKURG. Legg c. A. Agee Lamb r. E. Thornton Bart (Capt.) l. g. B. Livingston Ben Hill r. t. L. Wright Drager l. t. E. McKenzie O. Agee r. e. J. Dixon Davis l. e. L. Cannon C. Fisher r. h. b. Wilcox A. Roadman l. h. b. McWilliams Z. Agee q. b. McKenzie (Capt.) Leatherman l. b. F. Livingston NEWS. B. Benton J. Hamlin, Faulker R. Hill Hunter, Boyd

The ball was kicked off promptly at 2:30 and for 35 minutes there was a lively scramble in the mud. In 7 minutes Roseburg secured a touch down but failed to kick goal scoring four. In the first half they made two more touch downs and one kick. Total for the first half 14 for Roseburg, Wilbur nothing. After ten minutes rest there was another 35 minutes scuffle, during which Roseburg secured two touchdowns and once kicked goal, total score: Roseburg, 24; Wilbur, 0. There was a large crowd and a little bloodshed, many minor bruises, lots of mud, but no one hurt.

The ways and means committee has adopted the McKinley rates on coal. It seems the republican members do not consider the provisions of the McKinley bill obsolete. They had previously adopted the McKinley rate on wood.

The combination sprayer is all the rage now. Mr. W. H. Gordon, the local agent of the Central House, is taking orders and delivering sprayers to purchasers.

If the wrangling legislators in Oregon do not hurry up they will hardly get through electing a senator before it is time to adjourn to Carson.—Call.

The populists in the Washington legislature are calling each other names, and want to fight. That is bad. Who'd a think it?

The entertainment given by the Young Peoples' Union at the Baptist church Friday evening for the benefit of foreign missions proved quite a success. We credit Master Maple Jones with capturing the laurels of the evening. The contribution was very satisfactory.

Mrs. J. V. Bradley, who has been afflicted with sickness for several months, passed to the world beyond the tomb last Wednesday morning. The funeral services and burial took place at Fair Oaks last Thursday at eleven o'clock, Rev. Leonard officiating.

Messrs. Edward, Dave and Elmer Parker returned from Drain last week where they have been attending the State Normal School for several months past. The boys are looking well and seem to be well pleased with the school. If others would follow their example we think they would find it beneficial.

Mr. P. S. Hansen, who has had charge of the work train and steam shovel crews here this winter, has completed his work by locating a survey where they have removed a portion of the hill in order that the railroad track might be straightened, thereby making it easier to ascend the grade with heavy trains. Mr. H. has gone to Canby to superintend the filling of the trestle across the Clackamas bottom. THURV.

Deputy Assessors. Deputies have been appointed to assess the various precincts of the county as follows: Canyonville and Myrtle Creek, Lewis Chapman; Riddle, Glendale and Cow Creek, E. D. Kiddle; Ten Mile, Camas Valley and Looking Glass, W. H. Cole; East Umpqua, Mt. Scott part of Deer Creek and part of Roseburg, L. G. Mathews; Scottsberg, Lake and Gardner, J. T. Henderson; Elkton, A. B. Haines, Jr.; Coles Valley, Millwood and Wilbur, E. E. Emmitt, Oakland and Calapooia, Benton Miers; Pass Creek and Conestock, Geo. W. Staley; Yoncalla, A. P. Applegate; West Roseburg, Civil Bend, part of Roseburg and part of Deer Creek, Geo. Patrequin.

Oregon Scenery. On Feb. 25, 1897, Mr. H. W. Wesco, who has been for the past year devoting his time traveling over the state in the interest of the Pacific Northwest Immigration Board, collecting photographic views of Oregon scenery and industries, will give the people of Roseburg an opportunity to see Oregon as shown to Eastern people by the stereopticon. This includes mountains, rivers, hunting and fishing scenery and industries in all sections, including several in and around Roseburg, and which have never been shown on canvas before. This entertainment will be given under the auspices of the ladies of the W. C. T. U. in the M. E. Church at 8 p. m. of the above mentioned evening.

Died. At the family residence at Glendale, Or., Feb. 20th at 8:30 p. m., of appendicitis, after an illness of three weeks, Lafayette Jones, aged 64 years 8 months and 20 days. By Mr. Jones' death, this county loses one of her best citizens and Glendale one of its most useful and honored residents, and the bereaved family an affectionate and loving husband and father, whose highest eulogy is that he was a good man in the very best sense of the word.
