"But there is an old saying that too Persons exempt will be required to show many cooks spoil the broth, and that seems to have been the trouble in this Roseburg, Or , February 13, 1897. The corporations had too many of their own detectives on the ground, and there is no denying the fact that much professional jealousy exists among them, prompting them to work at cross-purposes, which in some cases defeats accomplishment of desired ends. Besides, there were no few unattached detectives in and about Roseburg at the arrest and conviction of the robbers.

"What I want to say, though, is that so much time has elapsed since the hold-up that it seems almost impossible of February, 1897. J. A. Perriss, to bag all the participants by pursuing ordinary methods."

However, the "spotting" alone will not bring the guilty men to the front. He says that even a suspicious movemen on the part of a suspect will not warrent his arrest without taking chances of throwing the fat into the dire. But he advances a novel plan by which the rob-bers may be reached by law. His plan is that the corporation detectives approach two or three of the men whom they most strongly suspect of having been implicated in the hold-up—one at a time, of course-with the proposition that he turn state's evidence. Further, promising immunity from personal prose cution; that he receive one half of the reward, and the promise of a "shotgun" messengership on one of Wells, Fargo's

A Combination.

This is the way a bereaved widow o El Dorado combined business and sor-row: "I desire to thank the friends and neighbors most heartily in this manner for their united co-operation during the illness and death of my recent husband, who escaped from me by the hand of death on Friday last while eating breakfast. To the friends and all who contributed so willingly towards making the last moments and funeral of my husband a howling success, I desire to be remembered most kindly, hoping these few lines will find you enjoying the same blessing. Silver Dollars Packed Away.

Since November 1, the mints have coined 5,420,250 silver dollars, or nearly three-fourths as many as were coined during the whole existence of the gov ernment prior to the so-called "crime of 1873." These 5,426,250 silver picces have not passed into circulation, and they will not, for the simple reason that people don't want them. They have een packed away in storage vaults, and the government, if we are to believe the free-coinage wiseacres, is just that much richer.-N. Y. Mall and Express.

Some one who has taken the trouble to ascertain the political complexion of all the legislatures of the 45 states finds that there is a grand total of $193 republicans, 2209 democrats, 520 populists and 214 fusionists, a clear republican majority of 550. In the legislatures of 12 Southern states there are 1389 democrate, 367 republicans and 204 populists, which exhibit will be an unpleasant surprise to the populists, who have supposed that they are making much progress in

The total gold product of the world in 1896 is placed by the Financial Chron-icle of New York at 10,164,407 fine ounces, of the aggregate value of $210,-118,349, as compared with a production of 9,652,003 ounces in 1805, of a value of $199,524,276, and 8,655,222 ounces, $178, 919,018, in 1894. This is a gain for 1800 below that for 1805, and below what had been expected, and is due chiefly to the political troubles in the Transvani district in South Africa. A Bryan organ says: "Democrats can continue to saw wood. There is no need to blow their pipes so long as the men in charge of the republican ship are head-ing her for the rocks." Would it not be as well to wait until the republican pilot and captain and crew are aboard the ship before they are made "heading her for the rocks." The foolkiller has
