Some good copper ore has been found near Glendale, which assays 10 1/2 per cent copper and $10 in gold. See Alexander & Strong's new ad on second page. Then go and take a look at the new goods and be happy.

Our fine weather terminated for the present Saturday night and Jupiter Pluvius turned loose his sprinkling pot. Judge Fullerton opened court at 9:30 a. m. today. He will be busy there all time to return home and hold court here.

"Our Native Herbs" will positively cure all diseases arising from impure blood. Mrs. C. A. Flook, Mill street, agent. Paul C. Bates of Portland, special agent of the Pennsylvania Fire Insurance Co., of Philadelphia, was in the city Saturday.

Representatives Somers of Linn and Mitchell of Marion stayed over Friday, the other visitors went home on the local that morning. The Grants Pass Observer notes the arrival home of Speaker Benson and Senator Harmon and approvingly pats them on the back.

Miss Carrie Sykes left for Portland yesterday. Don't see what she wanted to do that for, when she had only been here a little while. One of the pleasant socials of the week was the birthday party given in honor of Miss Elsie Chapman Friday evening at her home on Oak street.

E. Du Gas, Physician and Surgeon, office in Marsters' building. Calls in town and country promptly answered night or day. Residence, 911 Mill street. The Kandy Kitchen had a big trade during the holidays. The people are beginning to find out that it is the only place you can get candy that is fit to eat.

W. H. Street of Portland, the general representative of the Pacific Elk, was in the city last week in the interest of that journal. We acknowledge a pleasant call. Last week was a busy week. We had dances, stereopticon entertainments, ledgerman, liberal lectures, and mass meetings. Verily, it never rains but it pours.

Don't forget that we have a line of No. 1 tinware, if you want the good grade you'll always find it here at bottom prices, also notions of all kinds, Novelty Store. Deputy Sheriff Stephens returned Saturday night from Los Angeles with his prisoner, R. F. Hollis, who was arrested there for forgery committed here in 1893, or thereabouts. The lecture delivered in the Roseburg court house last week on "The Needs of a Practical Religion," will be reviewed at the M. E. Church next Sunday night. Especially invited are those who listened to the lecture.

Will sell cheap, or trade for a No. 12 shot gun or small caliber Winchester rifle, a good road cart. Guns must be as good as new. Address, box 312, Roseburg, Oregon.

Local sports are talking some of getting up a purse and sending two of their number to Carson to see the fight. It is proposed that the subscribers to the fund shall shake dice for the privilege of going.

Miss Mania Palmer of Scottsburg came in on Thursday evening from Salem, where she had been employed as one of the clerks of the senate, and went on through the next morning to visit friends in California.

James R. Porter, the engineer who was severely hurt in the collision of two engines in October last, came home yesterday morning. He has been in the hospital ever since the accident and is still a badly used man, but is looking to be alive.

With the building of the Coos Bay, Roseburg and Eastern Railroad through this city a large extent of country with immense resources of agriculture, timber and coal will be made accessible to the tide of immigration setting in toward the Pacific Coast.

Martin the Wizard entertained a few of Roseburg's citizens at the Opera House on Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings of last week with his Royal Marionettes and clever slight of hand tricks. The performance was fairly good, but it failed to "draw."

Our visitors of last week were enthusiastic in their praise of the beauty of the surroundings of Roseburg. Let the people of this vicinity talk Douglas county in season and out as the country to live in and the place to go to when you die and the people will come in in troops.

H. M. Wesco's entertainment at the M. E. church Friday night was excellent and deserved a better patronage. If Mr. Wesco should come this way again with his pictures and his remarks he will be greeted by a larger audience. There was too much going on that night.

Died, in this city, February 27th, Mrs. G. W. Brown, daughter of G. J. Callahan, aged 33 years, 1 month and 26 days. Brief funeral services were held at her late residence in this city this morning by Rev. Moore, after which the remains were taken to French Settlement for interment.

Among the legislative visitors upon the register of the McClallen last week were the names of J. S. Gurdane and wife of Umatilla county, both known to the writer for nearly 20 years but we failed to get an eye on the lady. Wonder if the boys didn't put up a job on the old man?

Mrs. H. M. Weed gave a very pleasant whist party to a number of invited guests on Saturday evening and a most pleasant time was had. Progressive whist was the chief attraction and the guests and hosts devoted themselves assiduously to the absorbing game. Lunch was served and a most enjoyable evening spent.

H. B. Miller, president of the Agricultural College at Corvallis, stopped over last week on his way south to Ashland. There will be meetings in opera house this and tomorrow evenings conducted by Prof. Cordley, entomologist, and Prof. Pernot, bacteriologist, with electric stereopticon exhibition of fruit pests. Parties having pests or diseased trees they don't understand will have an opportunity to have them examined and explained.

The calico ball given by the Violet Club on Friday evening at the armory was a decided success in every particular. The attendance was good, the music was good and the girls were better. Why can't that popular organization amend its by-laws so that married people may be eligible for membership? They need not run away with the idea that love of enjoyment is confined to young folks, or old maids and bachelors. They may be married themselves some day.

The docket, so far as present appearances that will greet the court when it assembles in regular term on the 15th inst., will be civilly light but criminally heavy. Douglas county has more than its share of criminal business. It is at the head of the list of the counties of the district in that regard though only second in point of population. We shall get over these frontier conditions by and by, when people learn to live in harmony with each other and to keep their pliering hands off other people's property.

Messrs. S. C. Flint and L. F. Rice made a trip to the Black Republican mine last week and found work on tunnel No. 3 progressing very nicely and the miners doing the work in good shape. As intimated by the number, this is the third tunnel to be driven by the company. The other two are higher up and tapped the ledge much nearer the surface; this will strike it pretty well down and the owners are very hopeful that the ledge at that depth will make a good assay in gold. The ore of the Black Republican is smelting ore.

A visitor from the east said he was surprised at the "down in the mouth" sentiment that he found so prevalent among the people of the Pacific Northwest. Because the price of arm products has been low for a year or two they seem ready to give up. Here, said he, you have a soil and climate as good as the best out-of-doors, water-powers innumerable and infinite resources. Put a cheerful courage on, take advantage of your opportunities, build up your industries, proclaim your advantages to the world, and you will soon have populous cities and markets at your gates for the products of your farm. Don't let the proverbial western push be a thing of the past, but an active, potent factor of the present.

It is surprising what a "wee bit of a thing" can accomplish. Sick headache, constipation, dyspepsia, sour stomach, dizziness, are quickly banished by DeWitt's Little Early Bitters. Small pill. Safe pill. Best pill. Marsters' Drug Store.

THE OLD REVIVED.

The Day Out Now Want Is. THURSDAY. A Salem dispatch of Thursday last says: At 9:30 Temporary Speaker Davis, who has performed the same duty for 46 consecutive days, mounted the rostrum and called the house to order. Clerk Moody, urbane and happy, called the roll with much flourish. The following responded to their names:

Present—Barkley, Bayer, Bilyeu, Buckman, Craig, Davis of Umatilla, Emery, Gill, Hill, Houser, Jones, Maxwell, McAllister, Misener, Muncks, Ogilvie, Schmidt, Smith of Lane, Svedstedt, U'Ren, Whitaker—21. There were absent: Bourne, Davis of Multnomah, Dustin, Galid, Kruse, Lee, Povey, Riddle, Youakum—9.

Also those of the Benson house: Benson, Bridges, Brown, Chapman, Conn, Crawford, Drown, Gralko, Gurdane, Hogue, Hope, Hudson, Huntington, Jennings, Lake, Langell, Marsh, Merrill, Noser, Palm, Rigby, Smith of Marion, Somers, Stanley, Thomas, Thompson, Vaughan, Veness, Wagner—30. The house at once took a recess till 2 p. m.

The nine absentees belonging to the opposition were detained for various reasons. Kruse has been sick for two weeks with typhoid fever, and there is no prospect that he can be present during the session. Povey and Davis of Multnomah were at home, out was expected on the morning train. Lee was called to Junction City by the illness of his aged mother. Bourne, Dustin, Galid and Youakum came in just too late. Riddle is in Southern Oregon, but will return when needed.

It will thus be seen that the present membership of the original house is 30, or precisely the same as the Benson organization. Kruse being in the hospital, the session is reduced to 29. It is therefore necessary to get 11 members of the rival organization to join before a constitutional quorum can be secured. When the senate met this morning 13 senators responded to their names, as follows:

Present—Bates, Carter, Dawson, Gesner, Haseltine, Holt, Mackay, McClung, Michell, Mulkey, Patterson of Washington, Seling, Mr. President—13. The following were excused from attendance: Senator Clayson, until tomorrow; Senator Johnson, until Saturday, because of death of a relative; Senator Haseltine, until Monday, on account of business; and Senator Carter until notified by the president to return, on account of business. The senate then adjourned until 10 o'clock tomorrow.

FRIDAY. On Friday, the entire number of the anti of the house were present with the exception of Kruse, who is ill. Several of the members were excused from further attendance till Monday, on which day it is claimed the house will probably organize. It is asserted that 37 members have agreed to come in and effect organization. Only three more would be required to make a quorum.

The afternoon session was attended by 28 members, Lee being absent. The house adjourned till 11:30 a. m. tomorrow. The senate was called to order at 10 o'clock. The roll was called and eight senators responded:

Present—Bates, Gesner, Holt, Mackay, Michell, Mulkey, Seling, Mr. President—8. Absent on leave—Carter, Dawson, Haseltine, Hobson, McClung, Patterson of Washington—10. Absent—Brownell, Calbreath, Daly, Driver, Dufur, Gowan, Harmon, Hughes, Johnson, King, Patterson of Marion, Price, Reed, Smith, Taylor, Wade—16. Several senators were granted leave of absence until Monday, and the senate then adjourned till 10 a. m. tomorrow.

THE GOVERNOR'S POSITION. Governor Lord in answer to the question as to whether he would call a special session is reported to have said: "Your inquiry touches a point that I have not reached in my calculations. I have been anxious that the legislature should effect an organization, and proceed to matters of legislation, and I have been ready, when officially notified, to co-operate with the legislature in giving the people remedial legislation. The organization of the legislature is a matter that rests with the members of the legislature, and not with the executive department. If the legislature shall fail to organize under existing conditions—when the crying needs of the state are so well understood and legislation is demanded in the interests of the public good—it would seem to make it useless to call the legislature together for some time, or at all."

This is the first official utterance from the executive on the situation from the beginning. The governor has wisely kept his own counsel till it seems as though all hope of organization is dispelled, then he seems, to imply in his remarks, that the legislature must not expect him to do for them what they could do and what they ought to do for themselves.

THE HOUSE WAS CALLED TO ORDER AT 11:30 SATURDAY MORNING. Sixteen members answered the roll-call, several having been excused. Bilyeu accounted for Lee's absence by the republican train. He had an extended consultation with Senator Hoar, chairman of the judiciary committee, upon the senatorial situation in Oregon.

An effort is being made by Hanna, as chairman of the national committee, to secure the election of a republican senator from Oregon. The fact that the legislature never organized raises the question as to the ability of those now sitting at Salem to adjourn.

There has been considerable telegraphic correspondence between Hanna and the republicans of Oregon, and it may result in an agreement of the republicans of the legislature to elect a senator. Hoar indicated to Hanna his belief that an appointment by the governor would not be accepted by the senate.

As to how the various state institutions will fare in the event of no organization, a Salem dispatch of Saturday says: Secretary of State Kincaid will refuse to accept the responsibilities imposed upon him through failure of the present legislature to pass the appropriation bill. He will sanction no expenditure of the state's money not specifically authorized by law. He will issue no warrants, except for the militia and state university, which are controlled by special laws; and which is quite as important—he will issue no certificates of indebtedness. This proposed action of the secretary of state is of the highest importance, and makes it necessary that the legislature organize soon; else the state and its various institutions will be in a most awkward predicament. They can get no money from the state, and it is difficult to see how they can get credit from private parties.

MONDAY. SALEM, March 1.—Davis' house met at 11:30 this a. m. Twenty-one present, twenty took oath of office. Hill introduced a resolution requiring the sergeant-at-arms to compel the attendance of absent members by arrest if necessary. Povey introduced resolutions authorizing speaker to appoint necessary assistants, nine were appointed. U'Ren in a prepared speech held that the house had such authority. Adjourned to 3:30 tomorrow.

A Secular Lecture. Friday evening, at the court house, Miss Nettie A. Olds, vice-president of the Oregon State Secular Union and representative of the Liberal University of Silverton, delivered an address on "The Needs of a Practical Religion," to the largest audience ever assembled in Roseburg to hear a lecture of this kind. The speaker contended for the complete separation of church and state, the taxation of all church property, and against the teaching of religion in our public schools. While admitting and upholding the right of Catholics, Methodists, and other religious societies to build and own churches in which to worship God according to their own faith and to advocate their peculiar views, they had no right to hold such property tax-free from just and equitable taxation. They should pay, as others do, their share of the expense of the government. They have an undoubted right to establish schools in which to teach their own children to believe in this, that or the other theory of religion, but they should do so at their own expense, and not at the expense of others who may believe differently. Money raised by taxation from Jew, Gentile, Infidel and Christian, should not be used to promulgate religious theories. Facts should be taught in the public schools, and not religion.

Miss Olds is an accomplished elocutionist and musician, besides being a very fluent speaker. She was listened to with close attention for nearly two hours. Miss Olds will probably give a series of lectures in the near future.

If you have ever seen a child in the agony of a cough, you can appreciate the gratitude of the mothers, who know that One Minute Cough Cure relieves their little ones as quickly as it is administered. Many homes in this city are never without it. Marsters' Drug Store.

Jim Hendershott Dead. According to a dispatch from Union, Or., dated Saturday last, James Hendershott died at his home at Cove Friday night, after a protracted illness of several months. Mr. Hendershott was one of the earliest settlers of this part of Oregon, and is well known throughout the state. He held a number of official positions in the state, the last of which was that of commissioner of horticulture. The funeral took place Sunday, under the auspices of the Masonic fraternity. The deceased was a resident of Southern Oregon in the 50's and was once sheriff of Josephine county.

E. E. Turner of Compton, Mo., writes that after suffering from piles for seventeen years, he completely cured them by using three boxes of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It cures eczema and severe skin diseases. Marsters' Drug Store.

Rates to Carson. Roseburg to Carson City and return $34.60, round trip, first class, account the Corbett and Fitzsimmons contest March 17th next. Tickets will be sold only for the California Express trains leaving Roseburg the morning of March 13th, 14th and 15th. Passengers leaving here at 5:25 a. m. any day will reach Carson City at 9:40 a. m. the third morning, that is to say, leaving Roseburg Monday a. m. will put the passenger in Carson Wednesday morning at 9:40. Tickets limited for return passage to March 23d. For further particulars see Geo. Estes, at the depot.

Don't allow the lungs to be impaired by the continuous irritation of a cough. It is easier to prevent consumption than to cure it. One Minute Cough Cure taken early will ward off any fatal lung trouble. Marsters' Drug Store.

Oregon Scenery. Prof. Wesco's Stereopticon Views of Oregon Scenery, exhibited at the M. E. church last Friday evening under the auspices of the W. C. T. U., drew quite an audience and were duly appreciated. Many of the views were very fine and will, no doubt, when exhibited in the East by the Oregon Board of Immigration, do much good in the way of advertising this country.

Mask Ball. April 1st, there will be an extra prize for the best bicycle trick rider. One prize for best lady rider. One prize for best decorated wheel. For particulars see next paper.

The attendance at the meeting of the Salvation Army here will compare favorably with that of any other town. We are a liberal minded people and at all times ready to hear whatever the advocates of any measure calculated to do the benefit of the race may have to say in behalf of their pet theories.
