Something to Depend On.

Mr. James Jones of the drug firm of Jones & Son, Cowden, Ill., in speaking of Dr. King's New Discovery, says that last winter his wife was attacked with La Grippe, and her case grew so serious that physicians at Cowden and Pana could do nothing for her. It seemed to develop into Hasty Consumption. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in store and selling lots of it, he took a bottle home, and to the surprise of all she began to get better from first dose, and half dozen dollar bottles cured her sound and well. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Cough and Colds is guaranteed to do this good work. Try it. Free trial bottles at A. C. Marsters.

Educate Your Bowels With Cascarets. Candy Cathartic, cure constipation forever. 10c. 25c. H. C. C. O. fail, druggists refund money.

Last summer one of our grand children was sick with a severe bowel trouble. Our doctor's remedies had failed, then we tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which gave very speedy relief. We regard it as the best medicine ever put on the market for bowel complaints.—Mrs. E. G. Gregory, Frenchburg, Mo. This certainly is the best medicine ever put on the market for dysentery, summer complaint, colic and cholera infantum in children. It never fails to give prompt relief when used in reasonable time and the plain printed directions are followed. Many mothers have expressed their sincere gratitude for the cure it has effected. For sale by A. C. Marsters & Co.

The trial of the case of Hartin vs. the Southern Pacific on Friday developed the fact that there was no law in this state requiring that engines should whistle at crossings. But the rulings of the courts is that in order to reduce the dangers of crossing to a minimum approaching trains should give proper warning.

Dr. and Mrs. Ohme have returned from their trip to British Columbia. The Dr. has been home for several days but Mrs. Ohme did not return till Saturday. They saw the Queen's jubilee celebration at Victoria and the city was so full of people that they walked for several hours before they could find a place to stay.

F. J. Batheider, the traveler for the Seth Thomas Clock Co. in this section was at the McClallen on Friday. He reports business much improved in his line. He has done twice as much business this year as during the same time last year, and further adds that the newspaper editor who denies that times are better is not fit to instruct the public.

The militia boys returned from the encampment at Hood River on Tuesday evening's local and report a way up time in general, although not altogether a "picnic." A soldier's life has its drawbacks, even in times of peace, if the encampment was a fair sample thereof, and what with daily drills, mounting guard, and sleeping on the soft side of a sharp rock, and divers other inconveniences, the boys are well satisfied to be again at home.

Mrs. Geo. Estes accompanied Miss Eva Lane to Wilbur on Thursday evening. They went by bicycle. Mrs. Estes in returning on Friday morning, was caught in the shower, and between rain and black mud she presented a somewhat bedraggled appearance on arriving home. The mud in the lane this side of Winchester rolled up on the wheels to such an extent that presently they refused to revolve. Some women would have sat by the roadside and cried till a wagon came along, but not so with the heroine of this escapade; she struggled bravely on and finally reached home, badly disfigured but still breathing.

A wonderful change has been wrought in the fields since the late rains, especially is this noticeable in corn, vegetable and late grain fields. The corn seems to be growing so fast that one can almost hear it. The late sown grain, that a few days ago looked like it would not pay to harvest, is now a healthy green, and is shading the ground. It will make a good crop. The fall grain will be well filled and will be a fair crop as will also the early spring grain. The rain came a little too late to make these what they otherwise would have been, but for these favors the farmers of Douglas are duly grateful, if it did damage a little hay.

The Myrtle Creek Beacon says the grain outlook is better than it was a few weeks ago, but not so good as early prospects indicated. The recent rains have, no doubt been of great benefit, toward filling and maturing the ripening grain. There is more than an average crop of fruit. Strawberries and cherries are practically out of the market, but raspberries are taking their place and are at their best this week; the blackberry crop will be enormous. What few apple trees are left in the country are hanging full of fair sized apples. The prune crop is larger than was anticipated a few weeks ago. The fruit will be large and will bring a better price than when the prune is small.

Chas. Rondau is at the McClallen from Elk Creek. Lee Archambeau of Melrose is a guest at the McClallen.

J. S. Garner of Happy Valley is a visitor in the city today.

Regular meeting of the B. P. O. Elks tonight. Visiting brothers cordially invited.

The celebration at Cleveland was a decided success. The attendance was good and the exercises all that the committee promised and more. Rev. J. H. Skidmore was orator and E. T. Woodruff reader. The day finished with a dance. The occasion will long be remembered by those who participated.

The Christian Endeavor train that passed through here on Monday had a narrow escape from being wrecked in California the next day. A trestle had burned out and the approaching train was observed by a farmer who also saw the danger and signalled the train. It was brought to a standstill a few feet before reaching the burned structure and had to lay to, as a sailor would put it, all night. The train did not reach San Francisco till yesterday.

The Fourth at Oakland.

Our neighbors at Oakland celebrated the nation's anniversary on Saturday, the third inst., and did themselves proud. The writer did not appear on the scene in time for the procession and the literary exercises, but learned from those who were there that the procession was over half a mile in length. When the head of the column reached the grove where the exercises were had the rear had not yet taken up the line of march in town. The usual order was observed. The grand marshal and his aids rode proudly in front of the advancing host and the liberty car with the fair goddess enthroned thereon, surrounded by a boy of little girls representing the various states, followed behind and officers of the day and citizens in carriage, on horseback and on foot made up the procession. At the grove there was excellent music. Mrs. Russell read the declaration of independence, the immortal document which declared us a free people among the nations of the earth. The oration by A. E. Maltby was said by those who heard it, to have been excellent. Not too long and to the point. In the afternoon, horseshoeing, picnicking, gossiping, visiting, eating ice cream and drinking lemonade, were the order and everyone seemed to enjoy themselves. There was no drunkenness, no boisterousness. It was an orderly good natured crowd. A dance in Young & Co.'s hall in the evening ended the festivities of a very pleasant day. A feature of the parade was the chariot representing the Oakland Gazette. It was drawn by two donkeys. Brother Ruth is all right.
