G. W. BASHFORD & Co.

Mrs. B. L. Bradley returned last week from Portland while the Dr. went on to Alaska. The writer saw them at Portland both start for the steamer Elder from the hotel and bado them good bye, and concluded they were both going to the northern gold fields, hence the error in our last issue, with regard to Mrs. Bradley.

Hop lice are creating some alarm in parts of the valley. Mr. Miller, a well informed hop dealer of this city, says the McMinville Reporter, said to the writer Wednesday evening: "On the bottom lands the rank growth of foliage protects them from the effects of the warm sun, but on the uplands they are decreasing. I do not think the injury to the crop will be serious in Yamhill county."

In the case of Harry Miller vs. City of Roseburg, Judge Fullerton has decided that "The law does not presume that a person has notice of a city ordinance, and that before a prosecution can be maintained and a person imprisoned for a violation of an ordinance of the city, the marshal must not only give him notice that a license is required but the fact that notice was given must be alleged in the complaint, and proven on the trial."

Accordingly the proceedings of the Recorder's court were set aside and Miller given judgment for costs and disbursements. Tuesday Mr. Miller was again arrested by the marshal on the same charge as before, and the case was set for this morning at 9 o'clock. Wednesday the sheriff pulled the recorder and marshal and cited them to appear before Judge Fullerton at 9 o'clock today and show cause why they should not be arrested for contempt of the circuit court. The forenoon was taken up with the arguments of counsel and on conclusion of argument at 2:15 p. m., the court took the matter under advisement and will render decision on the 14th instant.

At the M. E. church on Sunday last the W. C. T. U. took possession in the morning and held services. Addresses were delivered by Judge E. D. Stratford and Hon. Geo. M. Brown, which were attentively listened to. Mrs. Marsters, president of the organization, presided and the church choir furnished music. In the evening the service was under the auspices of the choir and was a Wesley service. Several of Chas. Wesley's hymns were read by Miss Amata Smith, there were some selections by the choir, a quartette, and a solo by Mrs. Geo. Estes, "Jesus Lover of My Soul" in the air of "The Last Rose of Summer." A paper on the life of Charles Wesley was prepared by Miss Rose Parrott, but in her absence was read by Mrs. F. W. Woolley, and an address on Wesley's Hymns was delivered by J. B. Eddy. Both services were well attended and appreciated. The pastor will be here in a few days. Rev. Ford, presiding elder of the district, will occupy the pulpit Sunday.

The Standard Oil trust distributed $5,000,000 among its stockholders in dividends last week.

That Elkton Trouble.

A little while ago the PLAINEALER published an excerpt from a long letter written by Peter Naab, Jr. of Elkton giving an account of a little altercation he had got into with Herbert, son of J. R. Butler. This paper deprecated the ventilation of such quarrels through the public press and for that reason published only a small part of said letter. Now comes J. R. Butler with a somewhat lengthy communication in defense of his son and to refute the assertion of Naab, saying the latter did use a scantling of fence board. This seems to have been in the first place a quarrel between two boys, namely Herbie Butler and a younger brother of Naab, in which Peter Naab Jr., took up the quarrel of his brother and Butler, quite naturally, that of his son. The charge of Naab that the Butler boy drew a knife is denied by the father of the latter and there you have it. All parties to the unfortunate affair had better let the matter drop.

Wear Bathing Suits.

The laws of Oregon provide: "That if any person shall willfully or lewdly expose his person in any place where there are other persons to be offended or annoyed thereby, upon conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not less than three months nor more than one year, or by fine not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars."

There have been some complaints of the violation of this law by some careless boys and young men bathing in the river. Look out boys and do not get yourselves into trouble.

Elk Picnic and Barbecue.

August 22nd is the date set by the Roseburg Elks for their first picnic. It will take place at Winchester and a glorious time is anticipated. Committees and sub-committees galore have been appointed to make the necessary arrangements, and invitations will be issued soon. The program is not yet made known but it is said by one who is supposed to know that it will be O. K., and that a fine young elk is now being fattened for the barbecue and will play an important part in the menu.

Married.

Last evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm R. Willis of this city, Mr. C. W. Sherman and Miss Belle Willis were united in marriage by the Bishop Morris of Portland. The happy pair departed on the south-bound overland for Klamath Springs. May happiness attend them, is the wish of their many Roseburg friends.

School Superintendent Waite came from Roseburg Monday morning and in company with Prof. McGhee left for Gardiner, where the teachers' examination will be held.

Word reached here a few days ago from the Bohemia district, that a rich strike was made in the Steam Boat mine. Also new finds are being made by prospectors that are something out of the ordinary line, and are rich with the yellow metal.

O. H. Fav, the Bohemia road contractor, came in Wednesday morning from locating camp and arranging for work to commence on the road. He left in the afternoon with supplies and men to commence the work. More men will be sent out from here till the required number is obtained. Jim Batty will leave tomorrow and join the party to complete the locating of the road through to the mines.

Down the Umpqua.

Gardiner, Aug. 5, 1897. ED. PLAINEALER: Last Sunday evening a sad accident occurred on Bolen's Island near town. A son of C. E. Marks shot his little sister. He is aged about 11 years and the little girl 5 years, and the only daughter. The funeral was largely attended and the family have the sympathy of all.

About noon Tuesday on Long Prairie, a fire was discovered in the wheat field of Andy Sawyer, he was soon put out. How it ever got on the field is a mystery. Hope no one was near enough to do such a despicable thing. Andy and Wm Sawyer thank Mrs. Hadley of Roseburg, for coming back to the house and informing them of the fire.

Mrs. C. L. Hadley is visiting relatives here and at Scottsburg.

The new schoolhouse at this place is a credit to any town and almost finished. It will be ready for fall school, to be taught by Prof. H. J. Robinson and his assistants. It cost $2000.

CORRESPONDENTS' CORNER.

A Batch of Newsy Letters from Various Localities.

Talcoos Lake.

We have noted nothing from this corner of Douglas county for some time. We are all here; the lake likewise. I wonder how many people in the county realize what Talcoos Lake is. It is the largest lake in the county as well as one of the most beautiful in the Pacific Northwest. I doubt if there is another so fine. It is only an hour by boat from the sea; has an area of 2500 acres and a coast line of nearly 100 miles. Its average depth is about 14 feet. It is dotted with several islands and surrounded by homes and forests. The fishing is fairly good and the boating superb, whether by row boat or sail boat. As an outing place it cannot be excelled. The country round about is good, being peculiarly adapted to stockraising and dairying. When the lands are cleared it will be a farming country of much importance as nearly all kinds of crops do well here as anywhere in the county. Small fruits and garden truck do exceptionally well with only one or two exceptions. Corn, tomatoes and beans are hard to ripen here. We hope to see more settlers here this year. There is Government land for a number of families. Several other places can be bought or rented. We would be glad to have 6 or 8 families who can come with some means to locate with us. We want good, industrious, intelligent folks who are willing to rough it with us for a while. This will help us to roads, better schools, a cheap factory and to a better social condition all around. Those who come can acquire a home which ere long will be very valuable.

Glenade.

Lloyd Patrick of Grants Pass was the guest of Elmer Totten last week. Medames Clem, Tuller and Bell, were the guests of Mrs. Totten one day last week. Mrs. Totten of Glenade and Grand-mama Bentley made us an appreciated call today. Mr. and Mrs. Totten have just returned from a visit to their daughter, Mrs. E. J. Garrett, on Days Creek. George and Wm Bentley were home a few days last week from their mine on Whiskey creek. They are doing well. Miss Veta Redfield of Glenade is visiting relatives at Medford, she having returned home with Miss Gertrude Willis.

The new hotel under construction for Thos. Herbig is nearing completion and is a good building and an ornament to the town.

Maurice Abraham of Portland and A. G. Clarke left last Sunday for the Big Meadows, where they will spend some time hunting and fishing.

Miss Louie Hobbs of Lone Maple, the pretty home of Mr. and Mrs. John Hobbs on Upper Coe Creek, was the guest of Mr. A. Marshall at Tunnel 8, on Grand-dav, and we acknowledge a pleasant visit from Mrs. Marshall and Miss Louie.

Miss Maggie Mean who came to this place with Mr. and Mrs. Hill last February, left last Tuesday morning for her home at Florence, Ore., and his wife and daughter made many friends during her residence here who will miss her very much.

Mrs. J. E. Cox, wife of our son H. E. Cox, is very seriously ill and Dr. H. E. Riddle is attending her. Her case is a very critical one and fears are entertained for her recovery. The red, laborers and friends are rendering all assistance in their power, and Mr. Cox and his family have the sympathy of the entire community.

R. A. Jones of the Mt. Keuben placer mines, has purchased the White House property near Glenade and his wife and daughters are already domiciled in their new home. Mr. and Mrs. Jones and their accomplished daughters, Misses Cora, Edith and Eva, are a pleasant addition to our population and we extend to them a cordial greeting.
