Nashville Students Coming.

In presenting the Nashville Students to the public, we wish to say that this is absolutely the original company of col-ored singers that appear in jubilee sing-ing, presenting social, plantation, river and cabin songs. They also have the only colored ventriloquist known in the history of their race. The introduction "Who says the rich are getting richer and the poor poorer?" he exclaimed. "Let him step forward. I say it isn't so. Not one man in this community is getny. A portion of this entertainment ting richer, and I have figures to prove it." But nobody challenged him to produce them. Every one knew that he will be given in plantation, costumes. tent to sing what is termed classical music, but it is not their mission, and they leave that field to the white concert companies. But they do claim to sing the original jubilee melodies as sung by the children of bondage in their own peculiar manner in religious and social meetings and on the plantation. The Nashville Students appear at the Opera House, Oct. 14th.

The W. C. T. U. at Gardiner.

On Monday morning, Sept. 20th, it was learned that only seven of the num-ber that were expected to go were on hand for the trip to Gardiner. The idea originated with Mrs. Marsters, who is skill, to which we did ample justice, and always alert to the interest of our town we thank our entertainers for such a nice and county, that a goodly number be represented, and that by taking a team and some lunch our expense be made lighter, thereby combining pleasure with profit. Her suggestion was acted upon and a company consisting of Mr. Com-stock, driver, Mrs. Comstock, Mrs. Marsters, Mrs. Bartram, Mrs. Howard, Mrs. Armitage and Mrs. Ferguson left at 7 a. m. for Elkton. Arriving at Elkton we stopped over night at the old reliable hotel, a most excellent place to stop when in Elkton. At an early hour next morning we were on our way, every one astir and looking at the beautiful mountain scenery by the morning sunlight. All were perfectly delighted and the remark, such lovely scenery was heard on every nand.
