$2000.00

in prizes to make twice as many people ask their grocers for Schilling's Best baking powder and tea.

Schilling's Best baking powder and tea are because they are money-back.

What a far reaching words—not SAFE, although Schilling's Best baking powder and tea are safe.

Get Schilling's Best baking powder or tea at your grocers'; take out the ticket (brown ticket in every package of baking powder; yellow ticket in tea), send a ticket with each word to address below before December 31st.

Until October 15th two words allowed for every ticket; after that only one word for every ticket.

If only one person finds the word, that person gets $2000.00; if several find it, $2000.00 will be equally divided among them.

Every one sending a brown or yellow ticket will receive a set of Cardboard creeping babies at the end of the contest. Those sending three or more in one envelope will receive an 1898 pocket calendar—no advertising on it. These creeping babies and pocket calendars will be different from the ones offered in the last contest.

Better cut these rules out.

The train carrying Judge Hall to Hillsboro, the other day, had a broken down, the engine, and the train, the first car, built in the early days, had a fine time.

E. Dotlas, physician and surgeon, office in Marsters' building. Calls left at residence promptly answered night or day.

Corvallis Times: Cole Stanton and Joseph Ralph, students of the state university, arrived Friday on a bicycle built for two, and remained until Sunday morning. They spent the interim visiting the O. A. C.

The poplars are about done for as shade producers for this season. The leaves have all turned yellow and are fast falling. One thing however is consoling, and that is a wise provision of nature, when we haven't any shade we don't need it.

Congressman Tongue was here two days and during that time he was signed continuously from early in the till late at night by the friends of the candidates for federal appointments in this district. He reported having had a pleasant visit, notwithstanding.

We have had several frosty nights of late.

Willamette Valley farmers are busy seeding.

Go to Salzman's for everything in the jewelry line.

It rained most of yesterday and last night and the roads are decidedly muddy.

Ben Shambrook and sister Maude, went up from Umpqua Ferry during the fair.

Judge Fullerton has returned from Coos county, where he has been holding court.

Capt. J. F. C. Nash was married at Oakland the other day to Miss Ella Brown.

Frank Churchill has returned from Seattle where he was a witness in the Ford case.

The indications are that the dry weather is over and plows may soon be out in the field.

Hon. J. W. Merritt of Central Point was in the city Saturday and took in the last day of the fair.

Mrs. R. Evans of Portland, who was Miss Shambrook, is reported as ill at her home in that city.

Ed Hancock of Elkton was up on Saturday attending to a few matters of business at the county seat.

The new Fletcher building is rapidly nearing completion. It will be a brick veneer, one story structure.

R. Hermann and family have returned home from a pleasant visit at Roseburg.—Myrtle Point Item.

The exhibition bicycle race Saturday afternoon by three ladies was a very attractive feature of the program.

The roof of the court house sprung a leak and a large chunk of the plaster of the ceiling in the court room has fallen off.

One of the tall pampas grass in many of the gardens of Roseburg are things of beauty at this season of the year.

Did whiskey get into trouble at the fair Friday. It was on the inside of a couple of old soldiers and provoked hostilities.

The Ladies' Aid Society will meet Thursday afternoon, Oct. 28, at 3 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. Bellows in West Roseburg.

Roses are still quite numerous and the buds on the bushes indicate that the queen of the flowers will bloom in our yards till Christmas.

At the Presbyterian church Sunday morning, Oct. 24, there will be a service of song. The morning service will be conducted by the pastor.

Mr. Adams, the genial agent of the Pacific Telegraph Co at Yoncalla, passed through here on the fair and visited with Congressman Tongue.

The Southern Pacific, Oregon Short Line & U. N. Railroad Companies have settled up their differences and renewed their relations that existed prior to Sept. 23.

The Democratic rooster prepared considerable for the recent reunions, but the Republican was not disturbed by Coquille City editorial convention.

Mr. Crawford, the prominent Roseburg attorney, departed for home Thursday morning, after attendance at circuit court in the interest of J. H. Nosler in the railroad suit.—Coquille Bulletin.

Will S. Hendricks, county surveyor, who has been on a surveying expedition to the county all summer, has returned and his smiling face illuminates his accustomed haunts about the court house.

Some interesting correspondence, local mentions and obituary notices, necessarily carried over this week. Circuit court proceedings and report of the fair making an unusual demand upon our space.

S. E. Hunt, brother of County Assessor Hunt, had shipped here five pairs of wild turkeys and turned them loose on the headwaters of the Umpqua. It is hoped that sportsmen will not make targets of them but give this fine game bird a chance to propagate.

Jerry Wilson has a detective at work ferreting out the parties who burglarized his store on the night of the 4th instant. The detective is on the track of the thieves and expects soon to nab them. It will surprise people to know that the culprits are Roseburg boys.

Morris Winters don't think it a bit funny to be arrested for taking the shortest way to the fair grounds, scaling the fence, being arrested and marched up to the judges' stand and compelled to pay the admission fee. He was glad to be let off so easy, however.

Mrs. F. W. Woolley's baby boy won the prize for boy babies at the fair Friday and Mrs. J. R. Dixon's baby that for girls. We would rather come in late for dinner than judge a baby show. Collie Flint, J. W. Wright and W. R. Buzzell have each aged ten years since then.

It seems that in the case against Rev. W. T. Ford at Seattle, the charge being seduction, it was alleged that the crime was committed on January 30, 1897. On that date Mr. Ford was in Roseburg and preached in the M. E. Church here. On this ground a new trial will be asked. It begins to look a little like a conspiracy.

For Sale.—Three acres of land near Roseburg, small house and other out buildings, all fenced with a No. 1 fence; everything as neat as a pin on place. Small young orchard and some small fruit dirt cheap. No reasonable offer refused, bound to sell. For further information call on I. F. Rice, Real Estate Dealer, Roseburg, Or.

The entertainment given by the Nashville students, under the auspices of the Epworth League and engineered by T. K. Richardson, was a very enjoyable one. It was well attended and all left as though they got the worth of their money. After paying all expenses there was about $20 left which will go toward the purchase of an organ for the League.

All the wooden platform about the depot will be removed and the space filled in with the broken rock from the Roberts Hill cut and then covered with a coating of decomposed granite from Josephine county. It will be quite an improvement. The hole between the main track and the freight house track and between Lane and Mosher streets will be filled.

The young peoples' chorus at the Presbyterian Church gave a concert Sunday evening which was highly appreciated by a large audience. Solos were rendered by Misses Jones, Jacobs and Gordon and recitations or readings by Misses Brown, McCoy, Frater, Herstine, Dilworth and Master Hadley. The program was the finest rendered at a Sunday service for many a day and the house was well filled.

A Distinguished Visitor.

Hon. Thomas H. Tongue, congressman from this district, accompanied by his daughter, came in on the local on Thursday evening last and was met at the depot by a number of prominent citizens, headed by the mayor and welcomed to the city. He was immediately taken in charge, however, by Commandant Byars of the Soldiers' Home and driven to that institution. The old soldiers wanted to see him and have a little chat concerning pension matters, so he spent the night there.

The primary cause of his coming was an invitation from the board of managers of the district fair to come and address the people at the fair grounds. This he did on Friday and delivered a brief address to a grand stand crowded with people from a temporary platform erected for the purpose. The address showed that the speaker was thoroughly conversant with agricultural affairs and could talk to the farmers some of them.

The McKinley republican club, learning of the proposed visit of the congressman, extended him by letter an invitation to become the guest of the club after his engagement at the fair grounds. This was accepted and the club provided for a public reception at the court house on Friday evening and a lunch or banquet afterward. For the reception the K. of P. band furnished music and at the appointed time the court house was filled with people of all shades of political opinion and not a few ladies.

Mr. E. D. Stratford presided and in a few well chosen words introduced the guest of the evening. Mr. Tongue did not make a political speech, but touched on the questions considered by congress at the late session, and what would probably be the chief subjects of discussion at the coming session, such as currency reform, coast defenses, the Nicaragua canal, Hawaiian annexation, etc. The speaker was not an annexationist, but as the destiny of the islands seem to be to be annexed to some country, we had better improve the opportunity and take them ourselves. There was a general hand-shaking at the conclusion and then the members of the club repaired with Mr. Tongue to the banquet hall of the Masonic Temple and partook of a nice little lunch, which was followed by the customary toasts and speechmaking, breaking up at midnight.

The Douglas County Republican Club had also extended an invitation to the distinguished visitor upon his arrival to become its guest after the speaking at the fair, but as he had already accepted the invitation of the McKinley club he could not accept, so arrangement was made by which he remained over another day and that day was the guest of the Douglas County republican club, and in the evening there was a special at the McClallen House very like that of the night before, also followed by speechmaking and the congressman extended his acquaintance.

Mr. Tongue made a good impression during his visit here and has more friends than when he came. He left for home on the local Saturday night.

Fatal Accident.

A dispatch from Marshfield dated Monday last says:

This afternoon about 1 o'clock, ex-Judge Nosler, his wife and daughter, and two men were driving from Myrtle Point to Coquille City, met with a terrible accident.

They had reached a point about half-way to Coquille City, and were driving around a high, rocky point, when they met another team. Judge Nosler attempted to back his horses to one side of the road to allow the other vehicle to pass, but the horses became frightened and unmanageable, and backed off the grade, falling with the buggy and all its occupants about 35 feet.

Mrs. Nosler was instantly killed, and the judge's life is despaired of.

The other woman and the baby were also badly bruised.

One of the horses was killed and the buggy wrecked.

This week a law and order league, composed of well-known business men, was organized in Grants Pass, says the Journal. The purpose of the organization is to stimulate the officers of the city in the enforcement of the law. Public nuisances are to be abated, the street corners kept free from the loafers and bums who obstruct the passage, and lewd characters are to be inhibited from plying their trade openly. If officers fail to see infractions of the law, a committee will point them out. If no one offers to make complaint a committee will provide a private prosecutor. If evidence is lacking a committee will supply it. If the officers shirk their duty it is proposed to hold them up to public opprobrium, and where there is a remedy by law for their removal it will be invoked. We are assured that the league is dead in earnest.

About a mile south of Galesville on Cow Creek, not far from where a man was found a couple of years ago with his throat cut, the people of that section discovered a wagon and team about a week ago, but no owner. The horses, a bay and a black, had been unhitched from the wagon and tied up, and when found were nearly starved. Everything in the wagon was in order and it seemed that a small fire had been started but no meal had been cooked. What has become of the owner is a mystery. The impression is he was an old man and was travelling north. The wagon was covered and contained the outfit of a prospector.

A. F. Hunt, of Ashland, an old time resident of Douglas county, was in the city Saturday. He was on one of his occasional pilgrimages looking after cattle, and reports the business as on the improve as far as prices are concerned.

Assessor Britt received an inquiry from the Oregonian asking whether he assessed mortgage notes. His reply was that he assessed all notes wherever he found them.

Finis Dillard wears the star of the marshal with becoming dignity and swings the baton with elegant grace.

J. W. Crawford of Corvallis stopped over today on his way home from the Presbyterian synod at Grants Pass.

John McCullough was taken in by the marshal Saturday night for creating a disturbance at the McClallen.

Sheriff Agee, who has been ill at his farm for some time, has sufficiently improved to come to town.

The president has appointed T. J. Buford Indian agent at the Siletz Agency.

The butcher shops of Roseburg will be closed on Sundays till further notice.

Three fresh milch cows wanted.

F. W. Gabbert of Myrtle Creek was in the city Monday.

Newest goods and lowest prices at Salzman's.

John L. Elliott of Kellogg is in the city today.

THE FAIR OVER.

Good Exhibits, Good Races and a Good Attendance.

The district fair for the second Southern Oregon District which opened on Tuesday of last week, closed on Saturday evening. The first day was a stormy, cold day, but the remaining days were ideal especially the last three, and the attendance good, though doubtless the first day being wet kept many away who would otherwise have been in from the country. The pavilion was all in order on the second day and we can but repeat what was said last week, that the exhibits of fruits and vegetables could not be excelled in any country. The management spared neither pains nor expense to provide for the entertainment of the patrons of the fair and the hacks carried people for 15 cents. The road between here and the fair grounds was perfect and the bicyclers took advantage thereof to come and go on their wheels.

The lectures of the Mental Culture Club at the pavilion on cooking was kept up every afternoon and well attended by the ladies who gave close attention to the remarks of the speakers. The reporter regretted his inability to be present at all of these but happened in when Mrs S. C. Flint and Mrs. Schibrete were dispensing a sort of a banana pud ding, titivated off with whipped cream, and was helped three times and wished for more. The lecturers were:

Mrs. W. R. Willis, Mrs F. W. Benson, Mrs. I. Wollenber, Mrs. G. R. Child, Mrs. H. M. Wead, Mrs. J. R. East, Mrs. W. W. Thackrah, Mrs. C. T. Curry, Mrs S. C. Flint, Mrs. J. C. Aiken and Mrs. C. A. Schibrede.

On Friday, when Hon. T. H. Tongue spoke, the grand stand was filled with his admiring constituents and many others were standing around.

The water king, the man who performs such feats as eating, drinking and smoking under water was one of the attractions.

The race which it was expected to pull off on Saturday came to naught because of a disagreement among the horsemen and President G. W. Riddle read them a piece of his mind from the grand stand.

To compensate for this disappointment Mollie Nurse was given a purse to go against the track record of 2:29, held by Georgie Woodthorpe. The little mare trotted a mile like clockwork in 2:21 which, on a half mile track is a very creditable performance. The first half was made in 1:12, and the second in 1:09.

In the special quarter mile dash, purse $50, Hotstuff Bessie was 1st; Sleepy Dick, 2nd; Joe Sheridan, 3rd; time, :25½.

A ½ mile saddle horse race was won by Williams' Black Bess; other entries were, Luellen's Daisy Belle, Dixon-Tilroy, Atterbury's Darling.

The starters in the five mile bicycle race were: Hubert Wright, Lon Smick, Bert Hassell and Frank E Astley. Hassell won, Wright, 2nd; Smick 3rd; time, 18 min. and 20 sec.

Thursday.—In the three minute trot Lady Memo won in three straight heats. Grande Ronde, 2nd; Twilight, 3rd; Aston, 4th; time, 2:47; 2:44; 2:50.

Running, special, 1¼ miles, Free Coinage won, Rubberneck, 2nd; time, 2:18

Friday.—The 2:40 trot was won by Belle Air, Lady Memo, 2nd; Klamath Maid, 3rd. Lady Memo took the first heat in 2:38½. Belle Air won the next three heats; time, 2:37; 2:40; 2:38

The novelty running race was declared off and a half mile dash substituted. Philip Fair won; Bill Nye, 2nd; Sleepy Jim, 3rd; time, :53.

In the field sports Friday the running broad jump was won by W. S. Hayward, who jumped 17 ft. 11 in.; John Atterbury jumped 16 ft 2½ in.

Running high jump—W. L. Short won in 4 ft. 10 in. Other contestants were J. H. Chiles and W. S. Hayward.

100 yard foot race—W. S. Hayward won, the other contestant being J. H. Chiles.

Everyone was satisfied; there was no complaining, no kicking and the satisfactory termination of the fair will do much to give it a good name for future years.

The receipts, which amounted to $903, will pay 70 per cent of the expenses and purses, and the state appropriation will pay 80 per cent of the premiums.

Secretary McCall will be at the McClallen Saturday to issue warrants in payment of expenses and purses.

Premiums were awarded the following persons:

HORSES

Bids Wanted.

The proprietors of the "Black Republican" mine will receive sealed bids until Nov. 1, 1897, for the construction of an extension of their 200 feet tunnel on the south of Dodson Butte, said tunnel to be 3x6 and 100 feet in length. Contractor furnish everything.

The right to reject any and all bids reserved. Address, I. F. RICE, Roseburg, Or.

An invitation by Rev. Frank L. Moore is extended the public to attend the M. E. Church Sunday. Subjects—Morning, "The law of the spirit of life;" evening, the third address to young people, "Home makers."

The ladies and gentlemen taking part in the entertainment for the benefit of the Catholic Church will please meet at the Opera House Monday at 8 p.m.

Burb. Brockway is on his way home.

Try Schilling's Best tea and baking powder.

Glendale.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Miller and Mrs. Wood visited Mrs. Totten at Glenellen on Monday.

M. A. Waggner made us a pleasant visit last Saturday. He left on Sunday for Shasta, Cal.

Abe Miller lately of Glendale, has leased the Gazelle mine near Yreka, Cal., and will reside at that place indefinately.

Albert Abraham, a prominent attorney of Portland, is at this place looking after his property interests and greeting numerous friends.

Edward Doll will remove his family from Myrtle Creek to this place next week. We are pleased to extend to them a generous welcome.

Mrs. Totten and daughter, Mrs. E. J. Garrett and the children, Virgie and Commie were our guests Wednesday, and we thank them for a lovely visit.

Mr. Philip Dewey, and Miss Veta Redfield will be married at Glenmont, the home of the bride's parents, at 10:30 a. m., Wednesday. We extend congratulations.

The Rev. Mrs. Mattie Brown preached at this place on Sunday morning to a small congregation. She is a graceful eloquent speaker and deeply in earnest in the sacredness of her calling.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo Miller and family will start on their return trip to Harney county Saturday. During their brief visit at this place they have greeted many old friends and made many new ones, who will regret that their visit has been so brief.

Mrs. Lucy Edwards of Seattle, Wash., arrived at Glendale last week and is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Smith, near Galesville. Mrs. Edwards has rented the cottage lately occupied by Joseph Foreman and she will spend the winter at this place. Her husband is engaged in business in British Columbia.

In company with Mrs. C. P. Totten we spent Tuesday at the Gorsline mill, where we were splendidly entertained by Mrs S. P. Gorsline and her daughters-in-law, Mrs. Ed. and Mrs. Otis Gorsline. We visited the mill where we found everyone busy, and the yards full of fine lumber. O. E. Gorsline, Sr., informed us that the demand for lumber of all grades is increasing, and that in his business he realized that the McKinley wave of good times was an assured fact. We thank the trio of ladies above named for a splendid visit.

We lately visited Green Glen, the pretty home of Mr and Mrs T. C Nail, and were very much surprised at the improvement being made at this place, and our surprise increased when we were informed that the new building lately erected for a fruit house was built by Mrs. Nail, herself. The work being done just as well, and perhaps better, than if performed by some gentleman carpenter. Mrs Nail is now building porches all around her house. She informed us that she liked to do carpenter work and has decided to do all their work in that line, and it is well done. We are justly proud of our lady carpenter.

Oakland.

Dr. Strange of Roseburg was in town Wednesday.

G. J. Stearns went to Portland Monday on business.

Lloyd Pinkston spent a few days in Roseburg last week.

Phil Beckley returned from his trip East last Saturday morning.

Miss Clara Jones returned home Tuesday morning from Roseburg.

Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Beckley and daughter, Maude, returned from their visit East Friday morning.

Rev. John Dawson of Elko, Nevada, delivered his first sermon at the Episcopal Church Sunday morning.

C. H. Medley is repairing the ceiling of his grocery store, and when finished it will improve the appearance a great deal.

Miss Lura Pinkston returned from Roseburg Monday morning, where she has been visiting friends for some time.

Mrs. B. F. Looney, who has been visiting relatives here for several weeks, returned to her home near Jefferson Saturday.

Mrs Mosher and O. H. Fay's two daughters, who have been assisting with the cooking on the Bohemia road this summer, returned to their home in Salem Saturday.

A reception was tendered P. B. Beckand family at the Depot Hotel Tuesday night. Instrumental and vocal music was the order of the evening. Supper was served at 10 o'clock. A good time is reported.

S. J. Jones and son Maple, went to Turner Saturday to attend the funeral of his brother-in-law, Dr. W. M. Smith, who has been suffering with nervous prostration for a while past. Death came to his relief on Monday of last week. The funeral took place on Saturday. The remains were kept till the doctor's son could arrive from Kansas City, where he has been attending the medical college. THILBY.

Snatched From the Burning.

Saturday morning last a calamity was averted in the home of James Pickett, who resides three miles south of Canyonville. During the temporary absence of Mrs. Pickett a little three year old lad, while playing near the stove, set fire to a broom and becoming frightened laid the blazing implement carelessly away, the burning brush resting on the floor and the handle against the bab in the rocking chair. The flames were about to reach the baby's wraps when a gentleman who had stayed there over night, luckily happening to see the danger removed the broom. A few minutes more and baby would have been roasted to death. The consciousness of having averted such a horrible calamity is considered by the gentleman reward enough and to spare for one heart.

Any one wishing to spend a pleasant evening will do well to go. Tickets are only 25 cents.

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed, when the languid exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and per haps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, Indigestion, Constipation, Dizziness yield to Electric Bitters. 50c. and $1.00 per bottles at A. C. Marsters' Drug Store.
