Baking powder at 25 cents or 30 cents a pound never ought to have been sold, because good baking powder is cheaper—does more for the money. But now as the good times are coming back—as the newspapers say—the excuse for cheap baking powders is even less than ever. Your money back if you don't like Schilling's Best—at your grocer's.

Just the kandy for the children. For the largest assortment of outing flannels, calicoes, also ladies' and gentlemen's underwear, call at the Novelty Store. There were 100 freight cars in the yards here Tuesday morning, and that was about as many as could be accommodated. There are about $13,000 of delinquent taxes outstanding that the sheriff is endeavoring to collect. See his notice in another column. Try a can of our baking powder with which you get a prize with each can and a chance for an "air tight heater," at Zigler's grocery. If our correspondents would endeavor to get their letters here by Wednesday morning they would be less liable to be lost or "boiled down." Everything about the Kandy Kitchen is made from the very best material. No chalk or paint in our candies. Therefore, not all the candy you want. It seems a little strange to a resident of Roseburg to learn that the O. R. & N. has been clearing its tracks of snow with a rotary plow within 40 miles of Portland. Henry Gahlgren, a mill hand in the employ of the Gardiner Mill Co. at Gardiner, is missing and is supposed to be drowned. He was a member of the A. O. U. W. In the case of Willie vs. Abraham, a lawsuit over the division of the proceeds of the sale of lots at Greens, Dillard and Riddle, the supreme court has sustained the lower court which gave judgment for the defendant. There will be a business meeting of the Christian Endeavors at the residence of County Clerk Shupe on Mill street at 7 o'clock on Thursday evening. All members are requested to be present as business of importance will come before the meeting. Al. Smith, who has been mining in Alaska for the past year, has returned to spend the winter. Cook's Inlet is a fine country for some things—gold, snow and rich, but as a winter resort it can't compare with Douglas. The union service at the Baptist Church Thursday was well attended. The various non-conformist ministers participated and a select choir rendered excellent music. A collection was taken to be used during the winter for charitable purposes. J. L. Siever, the bicyclist passed through here this week. He came in on Tuesday and left Wednesday morning for the south, hoping that in two or three hundred miles more he'd strike better roads. He has done a deal of wading he said. Miss Pauline Thompson had a surprise party on Thanksgiving Day, which was her eleventh birthday. The following youngsters were present: Maude Heffelfinger, Edna Wilson, Helen Brown, Flock, Jessie Bowen, Barbara Smith, Audrey Davis, Muriel Davis, Gertrude O'Mally, Essie Martin, Edith Patterson, Ethel Davis, Helena Deane, Leo Deane, Maude Catching, Beatrice Jacobs. The stereopticon lecture at the Opera House Thanksgiving evening by Miss Helen Keller on the topic California was a very enjoyable affair. The young lady has an excellently modulated voice and had her subject well in hand. The views embraced points from Ashtland, Oregon, to San Diego, Cal., taking in all the principal points in California. California is rich in resorts and watering places. Nature has been lavish in her gifts to that favored region. An evening school for teachers and those preparing to teach will be organized at the school house Monday evening, Dec. 6. A thorough and systematic review of the principles in which it is required to pass for county and state papers will be furnished. Special classes will be organized in algebra and book-keeping. Hours 7 to 9. Terms reasonable. For further particulars call on or address Prin. Roseburg Schools. If any young lady has a beau that does not live here she had better go to him when she wants to see him and not let him come here. A widower came to see a young lady, stayed a week and went away with his affections bestowed on the principal beauty in the town. The young lady No. 1, they together called on No. 2, and there was a transfer of attachment. But young lady No. 1 does not appear in the least disturbed, like a distinguished jurist. She is more an usual calm. She does not give a single dam. The pumpkin pie social under the auspices of the ladies of St. George's church Monday evening, was quite a success in every way. The attendance was large and the pies good and abundant. A little program was arranged for the entertainment of the guests. Miss Kestey sang a solo being accompanied on the piano by Miss Pearl Wright. May Kelly sang "My Dad is the Engineer," so well that she was requested to repeat it later in the evening. Vera Byars recited an apostrophe to the pumpkin pie, which was very appropriate. She delivered a recitation, the moral of which was, if you are the daughter of a widow don't send your suitor to "ask mamma" without telling him just what to ask or mamma might capture him here. One of the features of the evening was the distribution of cards with the words "pumpkin pie social" at the head, and the persons who made the most words out of the letters there in 15 minutes was to receive a prize. Sam Josephson got it with 95 words, and Tom McCarty was a close second with 94. The prize was a dainty cup and saucer. Altogether a very pleasant evening was spent and the people of Roseburg are better acquainted with Rev. John Dawson, the rector, and his estimable wife.

Calapooia.

R. L. Stephens, deputy sheriff, was transacting business here last week. Mrs. Henry of Lower Calapooia, was visiting Mr. and Mrs. Otinger Sunday. C. B. McNabb and C. A. Motter finished butchering their porkers Monday. All of our Calapooia Odd Fellows attended the lodge at Roseburg Saturday night. Trout fishing at the Rocheser mills has been the great sport for the boys the past week. Our Calapooia farmers gave thanks by plowing and sowing grain on Thanksgiving day. Mrs. Thos. McNabb of this place is visiting her daughter at Roseburg, Mrs. H. B. Gillette. Mrs. C. A. McNabb and Mrs. G. W. Stephens were visiting friends in Oakland one day last week. Does anyone know what takes Big H. to the Red hills? If they do, please report and receive a liberal reward. Edward Stephens of Tye, was visiting old time friends on Calapooia a few days ago. The young ladies all wear a smile when Ed comes. Ira Cole has been granted the contract to lay the lumber on the Dodge grade. We hope the good work will soon go on as that is one of the worst roads in Oregon. The sociable given by the young ladies of the Calapooia school was a grand success. Plenty of good things to eat. Plays too numerous to mention were indulged in till the wee bit of the night. Thos. McNabb received the sad news of the death of his brother John McNabb, who lived in Tennessee. This makes two brothers and one sister in the last eighteen months that have passed away. Rumor has it that there is to be a wedding on the Calapooia, the near future, and not very far off, to keep your eyes open boys, and have your tin cans in good shape. I will try and find out something more by next week. Several of our young folks attended the Woodman's ball at Oakland on Thanksgiving night, and report having a fine dance, but the best part came at 12 o'clock when Mr. Collins announced supper. The table was loaded with everything that was good to eat. R. P.

Warner, piano tuner of Eugene, was in town Monday, tuning and repairing instruments. Mrs. L. Marcellus returned from Roseburg Wednesday, after a few days' visit at the county seat. J. Beckley of Elkton was calling on relatives here recently. On his way up he found a three-dollar gold piece, coined in 1856. W. McCauley and family of the Swale and Seymour Quant of Driver Valley were guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Jones on Thanksgiving day. C. C. Coleman of Wolf Creek has located here and will engage in boot and shoe making and repairing. His shop, at present, is over Henderson's barber shop. Judge Stearns and family of Portland were up to partake of Thanksgiving turkey with relatives. Judge Stearns and family of Roseburg were here at the same time, hoping that in two or three hundred miles more he'd strike better roads. He has done a deal of wading he said. E. G. Young & Co. shipped to San Francisco 5,489 turkeys for the Thanksgiving market. This about double the amount they usually ship at this time. Turkeys may be scarce for the holiday shipments. G. J. Stearns, who went with the shipment, returned Monday.

Drain State Normal Notes.

The training school still gives excellent satisfaction. Some one member of the senior class recites each morning in chapel exercises. They are doing good work. There are now 105 students in the advanced normal work and more than 100 in the training department. On Wednesday afternoon Pres. Barzee gave an hour's lecture to the entire school, on the Possibilities of Life. Geo. C. Johnson, class '93, now in the postoffice of Portland, and sister Grace, of Drain, were chapel visitors Monday. All parties interested in school work of a normal or training character, all cordially invited to visit us when opportunity affords. Program for Vesperian Society, Dec. 3, 1897: Song by society; recitation, Belle Joseph; select reading, Iva Templeton; essay, Pearl Fett; music, Anna Templeton; recitation, Nova Veatch. It is probable that 'Drain will support a first-class newspaper plant within the next few weeks, as negotiations are almost complete. The school now has a ladies' literary society, a gentlemen's oratorical club, a

Riddle.

Jacob Brown of Days creek was in town Tuesday. T. S. Riddle was in Roseburg the fore part of the week. Considerable sickness is reported in this vicinity at present. James Catching has returned home from a prospecting tour. Misses Clara Riddle and Millie Barton attended the basket social at Canyonville Thanksgiving night. Alfred Wollenberg, the Canyonville merchant, was shipping some hops from this place last week. W. Q. Brown came down from the mines to be in attendance at the entertainment Thanksgiving evening. Mrs. Lloyd Mynatt went to Dade creek Friday morning to join her husband who is working in the mines there. Elmer Catching came down from the Cracker Jack mine a few days ago, and made a trip to Roseburg before returning to the mines. A basket social was given at Canyonville Thanksgiving night for the benefit of the church. A large crowd was present and all had a pleasant time. There is some talk of having a Christmas tree here, and it the ladies who conducted the entertainment Thanksgiving evening would lend a helping hand, the community would be well pleased. Their influence alone would be an assurance of success. Thanksgiving day has come and gone. The supper given by the ladies at Jackson's hall was a grand success in every respect. There were a large number present. An elaborate program was well carried out, a solo by Prof. A. F. Cornut deserving special mention. Too much credit cannot be given Mrs. Will Q. Brown and Mrs. Geo. R. Riddle for the success of the affair. They were the leaders—and admirable social leaders they are, too.

Elkton.

Winter is here again with mud in every direction. Miss Mina Weatherly of this place departed for California last week to reside with her sister, Mrs. Finley. Mrs. Will Beckley, who has been in Portland for some time under the doctors care, is expected home soon. Prof. Wilson is in charge of the private school with an attendance of about twenty pupils. More will start soon. Little Gracie Haines, who has been ill for some time, is still very low. Her host of friends are living in hopes of her recovery. Mrs. Hattie Adkinson of Idaho is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Brown of this place, after an absence of fourteen years. The farmers are turning the soil in every direction and there is a fair prospect of much more grain being sown this year than usual. Two coyotes were so unfortunate as to lose their lives. E. O. Huddleston killed one, Homer Haines the other. Good for you, boys; try again. A little child of A. B. Haines met with the misfortune to fall into a stove boiler, containing some water one day last week, and had an arm considerably scalded. The people of Elkton met last Saturday to make arrangements for a Christmas tree. A good time is expected for all who come and partake. A broad invitation is given to all. Some villain poisoned a valuable coyote dog belonging to Ed Haines one day last week, which was not only a great loss to Mr. Haines, but also a great loss to the whole community. Use.

Henry Archambeau is working for F. M. Conn. The rain has stopped the farming in this section. Cattle buyers are in the settlement buying cattle. H. L. Ward drove a band of hogs to town Monday. A sheep buyer was here gathering up sheep last week. What is the matter with Pat? He was at work on Sunday. Miss Lamb went to her home in Wilder on Friday and returned Sunday. H. L. Churchill of Cleveland started to town last Tuesday but broke his back and had to stop at Mr. Jackson's and get his wagon. There was a social dance given at the house of Mrs. M. Woodruff on the 24th. The house was filled with jolly girls and boys who danced till a late hour and went to their many homes expressing themselves as having had a good time. The music was furnished by the French Settlement orchestra. I see in the items from French Settlement of the 4th that Brunette claims that the chronic school growler has taken his departure. They are at the same old game, trying to make the people believe that there was but one growler, but from the names in the items of May 3rd there were several. Judge. Educate Your Bowels With Cascarella. Candy Cathartic, cure constipation forever. If C. C. C. fail to cure, druggists refund money. Odd Fellows. The members of Philaretian Lodge No. 8, I. O. O. F. and their friends had a high old time on Saturday night. There were about 20 visitors present from the Drain Lodge and as many from Oakland. There were also visitors from Riddle and from Looking Glass, making about sixty visitors in all. The degrees were conferred on eight new members and the goat is reported to have borne up under the strain wonderfully well. After the initiation, etc., the members and visitors all repaired to the banquet hall where a bounteous repast was spread, turkey, chicken, pie, cake, everything. It was in the wee sma' hours when the last of the revellers straggled home. To Cure Constipation Forever. Take Cascarella Candy Cathartic. No or Dr. If C. C. C. fail to cure, druggists refund money.
