The Dying Century.

Old century, tottering to thy rest. All vainly dost thou beat thy breast; A new dawn glides the mountain crest.

HON. SIMON CARO.

Eloquent Tribute to Our Fellow-Townsmen.

[American Hebrew News]

One of the most prominent and popular business men of the state, a merchant of excellent standing and a pioneer of irrefragable character, Hon. Simon Caro, of Roseburg, Oregon, is an applicant for appointment as the recipient of the United States land office at that place.

Accompanying this application, which Mr. Caro was induced to file only at the urgent solicitation of many leading business men of the state, is now under executive consideration at Washington, supported generally by leading business men and politicians of Oregon.

Mr. Caro is one of the pioneer spirits that gave it municipal organization and instilled into it the animation of legitimate business life. To this aggressive energy, coupled with the energy and inland city's present prosperity and substantial growth are due.

But Mr. Caro's influence has not been confined to the promotion of Roseburg's interests. Broad-minded, far-sighted and progressive, he has always been identified with the leading interests of the state, political, social and industrial.

It is especially fitting that Mr. Caro should now be honored with a responsible public position. In the official expression of such recognition of party loyalty and their attention upon the character, as that sought by the friends of Mr. Caro, his party is also honored.

From Placer.

Yesterday we were summoned by telegram to assist in the care of Mrs. Louis Browning, who was taken suddenly and violently ill on Christmas day.

Placer had a grand Christmas tree, the presents that were placed upon it being valued at $2,000. The program on the occasion was well selected and well rendered, and great credit is due Mrs. W. Benjamin who planned and carried out the whole.

Browning and Hannum of the famous Greenback ledge made a holiday clean up from their strata which netted them $18,000, the big streak of their ledge has widened to two and four inches. The boys have a standing offer of $35,000 for their ledge but they do not wish to sell.

The Columbia mine adjacent to Placer owned by Hampton and Lantz, is running day and night, and plenty of very rich ore is in sight but they have set no price for a clean up. There can be no possible doubt that they will sell out when they will be when they do clean up, but it must be very large.

Today we were called to attend Mrs. T. J. Manly who is very seriously ill with inflammation of the kidneys.

Mr. Moore was called to attend Mrs. Bristow Gabbert who is in a serious condition from a strain resulting from a fall.

Miss Rose Black, of Coles Valley, and Mr. Leonard of Placer, are to be married at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hanum, at 2 p. m. Sunday, the 2d inst.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Smith, of Myrtle Creek spent last week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Charles McVee, at Placer.

January 2nd.—We were present today at a very beautiful wedding at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hanum.

The condition of Mrs. Browning is much improved and the attending physicians, Drs. Kremer & Moore, pronounce her of large concern of people enjoyed an elegant lunch was served during the evening.

Last evening a very pleasant time was had at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lackey at their home two miles west of Roseburg.

Here is an example of how one can be sparing in the use of words. A traveler, meeting a settler near a house in the backwoods of America, inquired:—"Whose house?"
