The new card will enable passengers to make close connections at Spokane with the Spokane Falls and Northern for the mines. For further particulars see D. S. K. BUCK, Local Agent No. 2, Marsters building.

The Surprise of All.

Mr. James Jones, of the drug firm of Jones & Son, Cowden, Ill., in speaking of Dr. King's New Discovery, says that last winter his wife was attacked with La Grippe, and her case grew so serious that physicians at Cowden and Pana could do nothing for her. It seemed to develop into Haemorrhage Consumption. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in store, and selling lots of it, he took a bottle home, and to the surprise of all she began to get better from first dose, and half dozen dollar bottles cured her sound and well. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds is guaranteed to do this good work. Try it. Free trial bottles at A. C. Marsters' Drug Store.

Thousands are Trying It.

In order to prove the great merit of Ely's Cream Balm, the most effective cure for Catarrh and Cold in Head, we have prepared a generous trial size for 10 cents. Get it of your druggist or send 10 cents to ELY BROS., 55 Warren St., N. Y. City. I suffered from catarrh of the nose which ever since a boy, and I never hoped for cure, but Ely's Cream Balm seems to do it with excellent results.—Oscar Ostrum, 45 Warren Ave., Chicago, Ill. Ely's Cream Balm is the acknowledged cure for catarrh and contains no cocaine, mercury nor any injurious drug. Price, 50 cents. At druggists or by mail.

McKinley Club Meeting.

There will be a meeting of the McKinley Republican Club held at the court room on Monday evening, January 24, 1898, at 7:30 o'clock, for the purpose of electing delegates to the State League Convention to be held in Portland, on February 1st, and the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting. Hon. T. T. Geer of Marion county will be present and address the meeting. Dated this 13th day of January, 1898. E. D. STRATFORD, Vice President. J. H. SHUPE, Secretary.

BRIEF MENTION.

T. R. Sheridan was a visitor in Portland this week. For Leopold and Klondike shoes, go to G. Wash. Crews. Ask your grocer for Excelsior flour, guaranteed first class. J. S. Hunt of Oakland had business at the county seat Monday. We will close out our leather boots at reduced prices. Novelty Store. Closing out at cost. Stock and fixtures for sale. Graham flour, oat meal and germ, at the New Era Mills. All guaranteed first class. Captain Joe D. Atkinson of New York is a guest of E. N. Camp at the Victory mill. James Calvert of Grants Pass, a mail carrier, has been missing since December 13. Dr. Strange is in his new quarters, "stannochwise" across the street from the planchance. For clothing, hats, caps, overshirts, underwear, etc., at lowest prices, call at the Novelty Store. Mrs. W. H. Jamieson returned on Monday's local from a visit with relatives and friends in Portland. Y smokers attention! Closing out cheroots at 3 bunches for 15c, cigars 2 for 5c., at Kandy Kitchen. The Ladies Aid Society of the Presbyterian Church will meet this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the church. The forces in the clerk's office complain that the county court stole their cushions and left them the hard chairs. C. H. Fisher, editor of the Review, and O. R. Cook attended the reform (7) conv. at Portland last week. A car load of dogs passed through here on Friday en route to the Klondike. There were 62 canines in the car. O. Baker of Oak Creek, was in the city Saturday, and looked in on the sanctuary of the PLAINDALEER. In Judge Fullerton's yard across the river are peavine two feet high, that are flowering and putting forth young peas. Chamberlain's cough remedy have a neat way of advertising their wares this year it is on a "come in" tag to place on the door. Hood's Sarsaparilla is prepared by experienced pharmacists who know precisely the nature and quality of all ingredients used. It is said that Judge Willis and C. A. Schilbrede have come together on the Standard affair and agreed that the tax on dogs ought to be 10.

Hon. E. E. Labrie of Garden Valley having business in the city Saturday. He has got the best of that "Job's comforter," and can walk with head erect. E. DuGas, physician and surgeon, office in Marsters' building. Calls in town and country promptly answered night or day. Residence, 911 Mill street. Mr. Schoeman of Oak Creek, was in the city Saturday. He expects soon to wind up his affairs here and go to Dyva, where he contemplates opening a bakery. It now transpires that Miss Daisy Dillard, who was reported as shot through a window at Eugene last week, shot herself in a pet, and now she wishes she hadn't. Winnifred Wright will have a writing class in the school house, where he will give lessons on reasonable terms. Specimens of his work can be seen at the postoffice. A little "aquit" of snow on Sunday morning sufficed to bring out the small boy (and girl) with his hand sled. Sledding is a luxury seldom indulged in in this section. A. W. Stanton, who was in yesterday from Brockway, reports that the acreage of wheat and oats sown in his neighborhood is greater than ever before. Every corner is cultivated and planted. Supreme Lecturer Tate of the A. O. U. W. will be here on the 28th of January, 1898, and will deliver a lecture on the principles of the order. There will also be an entertainment that will be free to the public. F. R. Coffman, physician and surgeon secretary board U. S. Pension surgeons Office in Marsters' block, residence 720 Stephens street. Professional calls in town or country promptly answered night or day. Prof. Gible, the optician, can be seen at 614 Pine St. Those having trouble with their eyes should consult him. Examination and consultation free of charge. A perfect fit is positively guaranteed in all cases. The peach trees look a little like they had a notion to blossom. If they come out this early it is almost certain to be good by peach for next year. A little cold snap just past would be a good thing. The fruit trees are too forward. The rate war between Portland and San Francisco, as waged by the S. P. and O. R. & N. Co., is now at an end. Officials of both companies had a conference in San Francisco on the subject last week and rail rates will be $17 and $11 after the 22d. Bishop Barkley of the U. B. Church, the youngest bishop in the world, it is said, preached two powerful sermons at the church of his denomination in this city Sunday. The bishop and his wife were on their way to California and left on the overland next morning. Mrs. Stark, Pleasant Ridge, O., says, "After two doctors gave up my boy to die, I saved him from cramp by using One Minute Cough Cure." It is the quickest and most certain remedy for coughs, colds and all throat and lung troubles. A. C. Marsters & Co. The Jackson county court is up in arms against the state board of equalization for raising the assessment on merchandise in that county 50 per cent. It will be in order for Judge Crowell to get up on his hind legs and declare the members of the board "archangels of hell." An exchange describes a situation which is known in every newspaper office when it says that a man doesn't think of his mother's feelings when he gets into a disgraceful scrap of depravity, but he expects the editor to have the tenderest regard for mother's feelings, and omit mention of his name in telling the shameful story.

Claude Kice was in the city from Dillard Monday. J. G. Winnaford was over from Oakland Tuesday. J. W. Spaulding was a guest at the McClallen Monday. A. B. C. Whipple was in the city from Canas Valley Monday. A. E. Ozout was up from Scottsburg several days this week. L. D. Carls and W. J. Lander and son are booked for the Klondike. Crouses are repairing their tender blades and putting forth buds. Gus Taylor, once county clerk of this county, was in the city yesterday. C. L. Kester, formerly of Ollala, is now the driver of the McClallen House bus. R. A. Graham has not gone to England, it seems. He was reported in Portland Monday. Don't forget that we keep cream mint chews, frost taffies and buttercups at the Kandy Kitchen. Mrs. Edith Collins, who has been on a visit to friends at Albany, returned home Tuesday evening. The frosty nights of this week were exhilarating, and will be a benefit of the fruit interests. No better line of boots and shoes in town than ours for the money. Call and see them at the Novelty Store. You can always find soda water, burnt almonds, and the very best and cheapest chocolate creams at our Kandy Kitchen. G. J. Running, M. Volk, John Galvin and J. O. Johnson, of the bridge and track department of the S. P., were in the city Tuesday. Clifford Benson and Rudolph Harness got the pen drawing last Monday at Wright's writing school for the best specimen of penmanship. John Brown, charged with assault and battery on Mrs. Allen, pleaded guilty before Justice Hamilton on Monday and was fined $5 and costs, which he paid. Miss Francis Dimmick, who has been in the city for some time on a visit with her sister, Mrs. J. I. Chapman, returned to her home at Wilbur on Tuesday morning. It costs you but a nickle to hear W. J. Bryan's speech, the cross of gold and a crown of thorns, perfect reproduction of voice and words on the Novelty Store graphophone. Max Fracht came over from Ashland Sunday to see that everything pertaining to the land department of the Federal government hereabout was moving along smoothly. Bashford & Jacobs, proprietors of the New Era mills have dissolved, Mr. Jacobs retiring. The business will be continued by Bashford & Son. Mr. Jacobs proposes going to the Klondike. There is but one objection to our Coo county climate. It is so mild and equitable that the pecky horse, by never "snuffling off this mortal coil,"—Myrtle Point Enterprise. Same here, neighbor. About 20 carloads of coke pass through here every week en route to the Mountain Copper Mining Company at Kenwick, near Redding, where 1200 men are employed. The coke comes from Seaside street. Oscar Simpkins, living near Woodville in Jackson county was accidentally shot through the right arm Sunday. The injured man was hunting and does not know how he happened to shoot himself. W. Wright has quite a large number of scholars at his writing school held every other night at the public school and they are showing marked improvement. The terms are one dollar for fifteen lessons. Prosperity comes quickest to the man whose liver is in good condition. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are famous little pills for constipation, biliousness, indigestion and all stomach and liver troubles. A. C. Marsters & Co. Port Orford Tribune: Married.—In a buggy, in the public road near the residence of Joseph B. Gleason, Curry county, Oregon, by J. D. Cooley, J. P. Charles Richards to Fannie Smith, all of Curry county. Engineer A. Miller has been transferred for the present at least, from this division to Albany, where he will take the engine on the Albany-Natron run, succeeding Engineer Walsh who will take freight run between Portland and Junction. Miss Allie Hughes, Norfolk, Va., was frightfully burned on the face and neck. Pain was instantly relieved by DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, which healed the injury without leaving a scar. It is the famous pill remedy. Marsters' Drug Store. Freight and passenger business is keeping up wonderfully well on the Southern Pacific. It is not likely that the patch up of differences between the S. P. Co. and the O. R. & N. Co. will divert the freight traffic much. Fewer people will probably travel, however, as it will cost more. Miss Laura E. Jones, who has been enjoying quite an extended visit with her sister, Mrs. W. C. Conner, at Myrtle Point, started to Drain Wednesday, where she will take charge of the new local and State Normal School paper that is soon to be issued weekly at that place, says the Enterprise. She will also take up some special studies in the Normal School. In the estate of Leo Gerhard letters of administration have been issued to Henry Gerhard, and his bond has been fixed at $1,650. The administrator has qualified, and his sureties are C. Read and Carl Hodes. The property consists of real estate in Eugene $250; Hopy stock at Roseburg, $75, and one-sixth interest in the estate of Joseph Gerhard, $500; total $825. The heirs are a mother, three brothers and two sisters.—Corvallis Times. Judge Loyal B. Stearns, a Douglas county boy who has achieved a state reputation and has been circuit judge of that county for 13 years, has resigned on account of ill health. His physician commanded this course as absolutely necessary to prevent a complete breakdown of the nervous system. There are several applicants for appointment to the vacant place which will be filled by Governor Lord. The name of George H. Williams is mentioned for the purpose of taking him out of Multnomah's factional fight. A. O. U. W. Installation. The officers elect of Roseburg Lodge No. 16, A. O. U. W., were installed last Monday evening by Deputy Grand Master Workman L. A. Sanctuary. They are as follows: Simon Car, P. M. W. J. A. Sanctuary, M. W.; C. Y. Benjamin, foreman; J. W. Hamilton, overseer; J. B. Crawford, recorder; D. S. West, janitor; W. T. Wright, receiver; Elias Dillard, guide; C. L. Hadley, I. G.; S. Van Zile, O. G.

V. M. Ireland, of Ollala, is a guest at the McClallen.

James Ewart came over from Winchester yesterday. John Hall, of Myrtle Creek, was in the city yesterday. Take a trial package of Hornby's steam cooked oatmeal at Zigler's. A new way letter from C. F. Nice, dated at Skagway, will appear next week. The Brockway people are circulating a petition for a ferry across the Umpqua. Dr. F. R. Coffman, who has been quite sick for some time, is able to be about again. Elsewhere will be found a notice for bids to supply wood to the Soldiers' Home. Attorney Stratford has removed from the Taylor & Wilson block to the Marsters block. Revival services are still in progress at the M. E. Church and much interest is manifested. Ladies, if you try Dr. Warner's corsets you'll have no other. A full line at the Novelty Store. Mrs. M. Armstrong of Jacksonville, and daughter, Emma, are visiting relatives in this city. Story Sheridan was a visitor at the metropolitan last week and took in the "love feast" there. Large Assortment of umbrellas, good goods, fine handles, steel rods, call and see them at the Novelty Store. A number of Italian fishermen came out from Coos bay on foot yesterday and went on to Portland last night. Charley Nickell, the popocratic—used to be democratic—war horse of Jackson county was in the city last evening. The acts of the state board of equalization will come up for hearing before Judge Bennett at Salem on review proceedings. J. W. Beckley & Co., the butchers, will keep on hand the choicest of meats where-to supply the Roseburg public, but monthly settlements will be required. The Zigler grocery is now nicely housed in the Taylor & Wilson block, where they are prepared to supply old customers and new with anything in the grocery line. John Roach, an inmate of the poor farm has been taken charge of by the sheriff. He had been so obnoxious that life was made miserable for the rest of the people down there. Mrs. E. V. Plummer, of Portland, has been in the city this week in the interest of the Boys and Girls Aid Society. She went south and on her return will speak in the M. E. church. Effie Parker took a dose of laudanum with suicidal intent Sunday. But for prompt medical attention there would have been a funeral. Trouble with her sweetheart is the alleged cause. There was considerable interest felt here on Friday in Durra's case, and the people breathed a sigh of relief when the telegraph announced that he had paid the penalty of his crime. Mrs. J. H. Shupe has been appointed representative for the Viati Co. in this city. Any one desiring information in regard to, or wishing to procure the remedy, will please call at her residence on Pine street. The state board of equalization reduced the assessment of Douglas county's taxables property from $5,596,707 to $3,214,738. The railroad assessment is reduced $500 per mile and the rolling stock is made the same as last year. Mrs. Mary Bird, Harrisburg, Pa., says, "My child is worth millions to me; yet I would have lost her by cramp had I not invested twenty-five cents in a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure." It cures coughs, colds and all throat and lung troubles. Marsters' Drug Store. The famous Prof. Holbrook is to appear in Roseburg next week in his demonstrations of the science of hypnotism and mind reading. The press, wherever Holbrook has appeared, speak in the highest terms of his work, and he will undoubtedly have full houses. He opens Monday, Jan. 17.

County Court.

The contracts to supply wood to the county next year have been let. There were 16 bids but the successful ones were those of J. H. Durra, who will supply 10 tier of 3-ft oak at $2.50, 10 tier of 16-in fir at $1.10 and 10 cords of 4-ft fir at $2.50; and John R. Daniels, who supplies 10 tier of 3-ft oak at $2.50 and 10 tier of 20-in oak at $1.40. Grand Ball. Mrs. Clarke, the landlady of the famous railroad eating station at Glendale, has constructed and completely furnished a new hotel, in order to accommodate her increasing patronage and proposes on the 22d instant to give a sort of house warming in the shape of a grand ball. There will be excursion rates from Grants Pass and probably from this way, and there will be a way up time at Glendale that night. Good music will be provided. All the boys and all the girls will be there. And the supper! Well, no one knows better than the landlady of the Hotel Clarke how to do that. Populist Mass Convention. To the Populists of Douglas County, Oregon, you are hereby invited to meet at the mass convention at the Grange Hall in Roseburg, on Saturday, January 23d, 1898, at 11 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of selecting delegates to the state convention, and to set a date for the holding of our county convention, and such other business as may come before the convention. Brothers, come out and let us apply the referendum to party management. Drain, Oregon, January 3d, 1898. H. P. BROOKHART, Chairman P. P. County Committee. School Matters. A petition has been filed with the county superintendent with 57 signatures praying for a change in the boundaries of districts No. 70 and 20. It is proposed to cut off the territory west of Merriam donation land claim from No. 70 and attach it to No. 20. The decision will be given Saturday. Districts No. 100 and 82 at Yoncalla have been united, Supt. Wells, officiating. District No. 97, Myrtle Creek, wants to extend its boundaries to take in more territory on the west side. There is a petition to change the boundaries of districts 93 and 41 so as to take the Chamberlain place from the former and add it to the latter. Districts that propose to levy a special tax want to get in quick, as ten days hence the place will be old India to live. Nothing deters the placidity. The advent of the mail causes a slight ripple, and the dis-

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

Vacancies Filled and Everything Moves Smoothly. After a delay of about three months during which there was a dispute as to the election of D. K. Shambrook as member of the council, there has at last been a meeting, all differences adjusted and the machinery of the city government moves nicely. The meeting was held on Thursday night last. Following are the proceedings in detail: The roll was called with the following result: Present, Mayor Marsters, Councilmen Parks, Shambrook, Benson, Perry, Field, Aiken and Sehlbrede, Marshal Dillard and Recorder Rice. Absent Councilman Moore. On motion reading of minutes was dispensed with. On motion W. R. Willis was elected to fill the vacancy caused by the death of David Moore. A resolution was read by Councilman Parks, and adopted, confirming the appointment of D. K. Shambrook. The quarterly reports of treasurer and recorder read and referred to committee on current expenses. The school bonds of H. J. Detweiler, W. H. Fitchner, the Cleveland Distilling Co., A. T. Oakland.

Mrs. Fannie Dear came up from Portland Tuesday. Mrs. M. T. E. Harvey went to Roseburg Saturday. E. G. Young & Co. received a large shipment of goods Wednesday. Miss Ina Houser returned to Roseburg Saturday after a visit here of several months. Sam Hartcock came home last week on a visit from California. He will return soon. Sam seems to like the climate down here very well. James H. Dearing and family made a visit to Roseburg Saturday. In the evening Dr. D. installed the officers of Philatiner Lodge No. 8, I. O. O. F. Last Sunday Dr. Page made a successful medical operation on one of his patients and secured two large tape worms which weighed 8 1/2 ounces, the combined length would aggregate 100 feet. It is a wonderful sight to behold and we congratulate the patient in being rid of the monsters. Wednesday evening of last week Jas. H. Dearing D. G. M., installed the following officers of Umpqua Lodge No. 37, I. O. O. F.: G. A. McNabb, P. G.; J. Sandozo, N. G.; Geo. Stephens, V. G.; Dr. Gilmore, Sec.; Z. L. Dimmick, Rec. Sec.; John Canaday, Treas.; J. H. Batty, warden; Z. L. Dimmick, R. S. N. G.; Walter Dunham, L. S. N. G.; Lawrence Perkins, G. S. G.; Long, O. G.; C. L. Chenoweth, L. S. V. G.; C. A. McNabb, R. S. V. G. After which a sumptuous supper was served at the Depot Hotel where a number of friends joined the members and a good time was the result. TALLEY.

Scottsburg.

A. E. Ozout has gone up the country on business trip. Miss Minnie Hardenbrooke went to Elktion a few days since. We hear that T. N. Grabbie is endeavoring to locate a Klondyke near Wilbur. Miss Ethel Butler was in town last week. She has gone down the river to visit her grand parents. The mountain tops have their white caps on now and then in the mornings. They must have forgotten to remove them when they got up. Some fish are shipped, although the price is quite low, and several persons will engage in the business if there is an improvement and facilities for getting them to the railroad. Walter Hurd is about to try his fortune in other parts. We understand he has disposed of his place to his brother-in-law, Mr. Munson, who will move thereon the coming summer. The North Douglas Watchman has made its appearance and is a neat little sheet and gives promise of being newsy and edifying. We wish the proprietors success in their new venture. Scottsburg is very quiet, just the place for old India to live. Nothing deters the placidity. The advent of the mail causes a slight ripple, and the dis-constant shriek of the Eva wakes the echoes each day as it heralds its approach. We expect to be awake when the weather gets warmer.

Glendale. W. Woods, after eight months absence, returned to Glendale this week and will remain during the winter. J. H. Thorndyke of the Douglas mine was paying off their hands for the month of December at this place Tuesday. Mrs. C. P. Totten of Gienellen and Mrs. Bentley of Anderson attended Sunday school at this place last Sabbath. A. R. Stearns of the mailing department of the Oregonian, will visit his parents and other relations at this place this week. F. F. and J. L. Roberts of the Douglas mine, are our guests for this week, the mine having shut down from lack of water. F. O. Plover with a crew of men who are traveling in a special car, en route at this place Saturday looking after the interests of the W. U. Telegraph Co. Miss Addie Bailey of Starveout is visiting relatives at Glendale, and we acknowledge a pleasant visit from this charming lady. Mrs. B. Eggleston of Ashland made us a pleasant visit on Saturday. Mrs. E. C. Miss, who also brought us a package of delicious wedding cake sent us by Mr. and Mrs. S. French of Binger, where Mr. and Mrs. French were married on the 6th inst. We regretted very much our inability to be present at their wedding, and thank them all for a kind invitation, which also included the Misses Ruth and Jennie Roberts. MOLLIE.

Sunshine and showers. Mrs. Ira Wells is reported to be quite ill. Miss Mollie Beckley started to school last week. C. E. Hancy went to Drain last Saturday on business. The boys are sawing lumber at the Cooper mill this week. Walter Kent and Joe Lyons came down from Drain last Sunday on a duck hunt. Miss Susie Beckley was slightly indisposed last week. We wish her a speedy recovery. Frank Wells, we are sorry to say is no better and has gone away to receive medical treatment. This reported that a new doctor is coming here to locate. Perhaps he could not find a better location in a small town like this. Our day school is progressing nicely at present, quite a number of scholars are in attendance, who do not go only in the winter months. Some of the young men here, appear of the same opinion that the young men were when we were young, namely that "Sunday schools are only for kids and girls." Of course girls ought to go to Sunday school. The young men who were there are given credit for going. TOM.
