Stratford and Geo. M. Brown, who testified to the moral worth, goodness and neighborly acts of the deceased. A memorial poem was read by Mrs. E. E. Richards.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

A Good Attendance and a Profitable Time.

On Thursday, Friday and Saturday of last week School Superintendent Douglas Waite held one of the best attended and most successful institutes ever held in the county. There were about eighty teachers present and they came from far and near. The work of the institute was under the direction of Professor J. H. Ackerman and D. A. Grogg, prominent educators of Portland. The day sessions, or institute sessions proper, were held in the assembly hall of the public school, and the seating capacity had to be supplemented by the addition of many chairs. State superintendent G. M. Wain presented the first two days, taking part. The public meetings were held in the court house, and the interest taken by the people generally in school work filled the court room each evening.

At the public meetings Superintendent Waite presided and they were opened in each instance with selections by the Roseburg orchestra, and it appeared that they presided best for forward, for the selections were excellent and the execution splendid, eliciting merited applause. At Thursday's meeting, Miss Ruby Gordon sang solo very sweetly, and was commended on the piano by Miss Mabel Van Buren. The address of welcome was delivered by J. B. Eddy, of the PLAIN DEALER, and the response there-to was by Professor J. B. Ford of Myrtle Creek. Messes Mabel Van Buren and Pearl Wright favored the audience with an instrumental duet. The address of the evening was delivered by State Superintendent G. M. Wain, and a solo by Mrs. Geo. Short of Willbur, brought out interesting scenes to a close.

On Friday evening President Chapman of the State University at Eugene, delivered an address on "higher education" and Miss Lena Kearney sang a solo, accompanied by Mrs. Appellhoff, prominent in the list of Roseburg solo singers and her solos are highly appreciated.

It was only intended to have two public meetings, but the superintendent was so pleased with the success of the first night for Saturday and announced a lecture by President Bruce of Drain, as the chief feature. Miss Julia Bradley recited "Virginius" and, as an encore, "The Road to Mandalay." The latter was accomplished excellently and was warmly applauded. A few remarks were made by Rev. F. L. Moore, and Professor Grogg spoke on practical education. President Barkes was then introduced and said that the institute was one of the hour he thought it best not to undertake an address at that time and excused himself. This was a disappointment. Miss Kearney sang another solo to put on Miss Paul W. Wain, and a short address by Professor Ackerman brought the exercises to a close. Professor Ackerman's remarks were to the effect that we should discover, if possible, the best of the best in our line of work. The school is not to be put at one employment or in one profession when their best was for another. And thus ended a red letter season for the educators of Douglas county.

The following teachers were present: Mrs. W. S. Hamilton, Maggie Stark, Elsie Cannon, Mary Cannon, Sarah Noss, Chas. W. Olinghouse, Lena Wilbur, Lizzie Parrott, Ada L. Smith, Warren McWilliams, Pansie Black, Oak Hill, Brown, Gertrude Eddy, Ethel Chapman, O. C. Brown, Mary K. Porter, Sarah Wumberly, Martha E. Winston, Eliza Harvey, Emma Winniford, W. J. Patterson, Emma D. Fisher, F. B. Hamilton, W. O. Wright, Lillian White, L. A. Kennedy, Ella Cooper, Tina Cooper, Emma Herstine, Mrs. M. E. Wilson, Mrs. E. E. Richards, Mrs. H. T. Hamilton, Edythe Wilson, Carrie Johns, Mrs. L. M. Monson, Mrs. J. H. G. Green, Rose Green, Mrs. Mary E. Stout, Mrs. M. A. Reed, Jessie M. Bell, Walter Tooley, Hugh Camp, Myra Camp, R. K. Dilworth, Anna Long, Mrs. Alice K. Williams, Lela B. Bradley, Mrs. O. C. Blackman, Wm. Treat, L. M. Hobbs, Sylvia Blackman, Roseburg, Mrs. W. H. Stark, Peter Nash, Jr., T. J. Wilson, Elktion; Manley M. Straw, Edie Thompson, May Thiel, Mary Westenslager, Jas. G. A. McNabb, Adie M. Stearns, Ellen Glenbrook, Mrs. S. D. Chapman, Gilde; Ethel Riddle, A. F. Cornutt, Riddle; Della Cole, Emma Withers, Anna B. Clark, Jessie L. Ohmart, W. A. McGee, Mrs. L. A. Blackwell, Edna H. G. C. Hefly, Laura Hefly, Louis Barzee, C. H. Clements, A. G. Palm, Gertrude Daly, Drain; Wm. J. Moon, Coles Valley; Kittie M. Clark, Millwood; Masie Walsh, Lyon; W. A. Smith, Anna Kuntz Brockway; Lizzie L. Blain, Cleveland.

Riddle.

W. C. Hildebrand was in town Wednesday.

Mrs. Sam Ball, we are pleased to say is improving.

Little Mabel Riddle is on the sick list this week.

Miss Vaga Clinkensbeard, of Canyonville, was in town Monday.

E. A. Bassett spent several days at the Cracker Jack mine last week.

Harry and Paul Williams came down from the canyon Thursday returning Friday.

Elmer Catching came down from the Cracker Jack mine Sunday returning next day.

Mrs. Geo. Cutsforth returned home Sunday morning after an extended visit with her sister at Brownsville.

Chas. Feikert and Otto Logsdon went up in the canyon Thursday morning to cut wood for the railroad company.

Mr. Ryan, the section foreman in the canyon, has been seriously ill with typhoid pneumonia, but is improving at present.

There was no school Thursday and Friday, Prof. Cornutt being in attendance at the teacher's institute at Roseburg.

Miss Nettie Cain, who has been assisting Mr. Bassett with the office work at the depot here, went home Monday evening for a visit.

Rev. W. G. Miller preached here Sunday morning and evening to good congregations. After the morning services there was a social gathering in the evening. A nice little party, consisting of about 20 persons, was given Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Merriman Tuesday evening, February 1st. Queen Mirth was there in all her glory, and music and games were highly enjoyed until a late hour.

We are told that "Charles" Well thinks our M. is "Scorcher." Well this is quite a compliment to us, but really, it is doing our worthy P. M. a rank injustice to let the mistake go uncorrected. Charles, you haven't got "Scorcher" located yet.

Miss Anna Bogue came home Friday night from Ashland, where she has been attending the normal school the last few months, and now the smiles and bows from the young gentlemen here is an evidence of signs and regrets among the young gentlemen.

We forgot to mention in our last letter that there was a city election February 1st. The officers elected are: Board of trustees, J. B. Riddle, J. T. Mayes, Geo. R. Riddle, J. J. Jackson; marshal, Marshall, Michaels; street commissioner, O. V. Logsdon.

Saturday, as Mr. Hamlin, accompanied by Mrs. F. Kimmel and Mrs. Mary Levens, all of Canyonville, was returning home from Roseburg in a hack, the tongue came down in the harness, two miles from Canyonville, frightening the team which ran away and turned the hack over, throwing the occupants out. Mrs. Levens was rendered unconscious, remaining so until after being taken to Canyonville, where the service of a physician was secured. Mrs. Kimmel was hurt also but not seriously. SCORCHER.

Calapoola.

C. A. McNabb can boast of the best cow on the Calapoola.

W. J. Ray has been on the sick list for a few days and is in the hospital.

Mr. John Bishop is one of the best shapers for an old man in the county.

Mr. John Bishop and family were visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Winniford on Sunday.

H. Kellogg passed through here en route to Kellogg, where he intends to reside. He is in very poor health.

Our farmers are all just about done seeding and one of the best crops of grain is in that has been sown for years and is looking fine.

J. O. Stephens of Venerable Gulch has just taken out the Bone Burning Co.'s teams and will soon get through seeding. It is one of our best rustlers and he is an expert farmer.

The popocate of Tye has named a number of their best men and Calapoolas as their candidates for the various county offices to be filled at the June election. From the places offered Calapoola men it can be seen that Tye is going to have the plum regards of lameness, and are sure to be elected—to stay at home.

Johnnie Boy, a Tye correspondent, in the Oakland Gazette of Feb. 4, is very indignant in his report of what he calls the circuit court decision in the case of Kellogg vs McNabb. It is news to learn we have a court to decide our legal questions at home, but the decision of Judge Johnnie Boy Jr., are of little importance all the same. His correspondence in the PLAIN DEALER one year ago he is afraid to own now.

A Weight Social.

Friday (tomorrow) evening February 11, 1898, the Y. P. S. C. E. of Roseburg will give a weight social at the armory. At the door each lady and gentleman will be given a card with a portion of a familiar quotation thereon, which are to be matched by the ladies and gentlemen who will then be weighed. The prizes will be at the rate of one cent per pound for the difference in their weights. Ten cents admission for children under fourteen years of age. An imitation of "Barnum's Museum" will be given in the evening of the entertainment. A good time is assured and a special invitation extended to all.

The Douglas County Agricultural Association held a meeting yesterday and elected J. C. Aiken, president and F. A. McCall, secretary. The following directors were also elected: E. Dixon, V. C. London, T. Cannon, I. Thornton, P. B. Beckley and J. C. Aiken.

What can be sweeter, neater, cheaper, and just exactly the thing for a valentine, than some of our nice fresh cream and candies. Just surprise your best girl on the 14th of February by sending her half a dozen or more boxes of Kandy Kitchen's choicest sweets.

The warm weather of the first days of February was the cause of many persons getting out into their gardens, digging about the flower beds, setting out bulbs, etc. All of which goes to show that spring, gentle spring, is almost upon us.

The emission of unusual volumes of smoke from the engine and boiler house near the depot Sunday noon made some one think there was a fire, and an alarm was sounded. The community was frightened but not hurt.

John Carter, a former resident of Roseburg, now marshal of Marshfield, was here yesterday after the colored gentleman captured by Marshal Dillard.

A very enjoyable surprise party was given Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Martin last night at their home on Short street. About 25 were present.

The W. C. T. U. parlor meeting that was to be held at Mrs. A. F. Stearns Friday evening is postponed for two weeks.

Large line of crapes and toweling just received at the Novelty Store.

Mrs. Mary Smith has been quite ill for a week past. At the present writing her health is very much improved.

George Armstrong, who has been visiting his father and brother, returned to his home at Harrisburg Saturday.

F. A. Cox of Portland has charge of the S. P. Co.'s depot office at night and will probably remain for some time.

Farrell Dinniny and family, who have been visiting relatives, left here Tuesday night for their home near Peyton, Col.

Ness Bros. of the New Meat Market have added a stock of flour from the Eugene mills to their supply department.

Our last week's letter failed to reach the office in time for that issue. It missed the mail here Wednesday is the cause.

C. H. Medley has just received a family of music that he has been able to give an evening's entertainment by requesting them to come.

Thursday afternoon of last week two of Oakland's lads, Willie Batis and Ralph Cole, both about ten years of age, had an experience which they will not forget very soon. They were out on the hillside about three-quarters of a mile southeast of town gathering wild flowers near the timber, when their attention was turned toward the timber and close by they gazed upon a wild animal, Willie spoke, "Oh, there is a bear," and the boys took to their heels for town and Mr. Arnsal left for the other direction. The boys did not stop until they were safe inside the city limits, and from the description they gave it was undoubtedly a cougar.

Many goats are reported dying from a strange disease in Lane county. The diseased animals have a good appetite up to the time of death. For a day or two a fulness and softness is observed about the head and body. Then diarrhea is added to the symptoms, and the goat dies. Treatment stops the diarrhea but the disease is always fatal. The only abnormal thing to be discovered on dissecting the carcass is a watery fluid under the skin, more especially about the cheeks. Nothing is known regarding the nature of the disease or its cause.

Seekers after gold are often disappointed. Seekers after health take Hood's Sarsaparilla and find it meets every expectation.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Mathews, returned from Angel Camp, Cal., on Wednesday morning overland.

The office desk at the Hotel McClallen is ornamented with a bran new hotel cabinet.

W. C. and Grant Levens, of Galesville, were in town Monday and Tuesday.

Jeese W. Thornton of Oak Creek was a guest at the McClallen yesterday.

Binger.

The late snow is all gone out of the valley on upper Cow Creek.

J. C. Olinghouse of upper Cow Creek made a business trip to Glendale last Wednesday.

The political pot of South Douglas is at a boiling temperature, and the leading republican watchword is, J. B. Riddle for sheriff on the ticket next June.

Mr. S. R. Miller of Carl took a fine beef to Glendale last Monday. He furnished some of the Grants Pass butchers with range beef from upper Cow Creek.

Last Monday S. French of Binger made a business trip to Glendale. His daughter, Mary, accompanied him. She went with the Victory mine, where she will spend the winter with her sister, Mrs. Gale Corder.

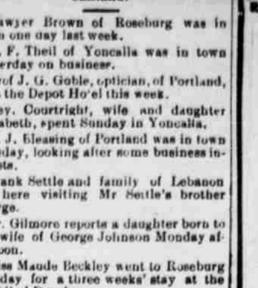

The missing man, Mr. D. D. Blinn, of Galesville, has not yet been found. The last reports are that he has not been seen since Jan. 15. His calendar in his cabin shows that he has not been there since Jan. 17. There is no doubt but that he has perished in the mountains.

E. PRUMBS.

John Littrel was born in Indiana Feb. 18, 1825, and died Feb. 4th, 1898; was united to Annie Short in marriage August 14th, 1851. He was converted about thirty years ago and united with the Christian Church. He went to California in 1849 and returned to Iowa in 1850. In 1852 he again crossed the plains and settled in the Willamette Valley, where he remained until 1858, when he located near Oakland, Or., where he has resided until two years ago when he moved to the Deer Creek, where he lived until the time of his death. He seemed to bear his suffering with great fortitude. In his last moments he expressed faith in the Lord Jesus Christ and was wholly submissive to his fate. Rev. A. D. Westfall conducted the funeral services which were largely attended.

An action of considerable importance to the inmates of the Oregon Soldiers' Home, who are pensioners, and in fact to pensioners generally, was tried in Justice Hamilton's court on Monday of this week. The action was brought by Aaron Notestine, a former inmate of the Home, against W. H. Byars, the commandant, to recover the sum of $24, which had been retained by Byars, out of Notestine's pension, when the latter left the Home a short time ago. It appears that a rule had been adopted by the board of trustees sometime in March, 1897, by which it is provided that all members of the Home, who are pensioners, and have no relatives who are dependent on them for support, shall donate to a fund for the support of the Home, all their pension in excess of $4 per month. It was shown in the trial, however, that this rule had never been enforced until Notestine left the Home about the 1st of January last. Notestine who is about 75 years of age and a cripple, and absolutely without means of support, except his pension, was chosen as the first person against whom the rule should be enforced. The trial resulted in a judgment for the plaintiff. The plaintiff was represented by E. D. Stratford and the defendant by J. W. Hamilton. Defendant gave notice of an appeal.
