A WORD TO OUR FRIENDS.

This issue of the PLAINEALER is the fourth, under the present management. If the paper meets your approbation, we ask that you help us with your influence.

The date for the republican county convention is drawing near, and so far there has been very little said in regard to candidates for the various county offices to be filled at the coming June election.

County treasurer Frater refuses to resign until after he is officially notified of his appointment as postmaster at Roseburg. Therefore, the accommodating county court has decided to hold a special session at the expense of the taxpayers on April 7th, the day after the republican convention.

Fisher of the Review, says the PLAINEALER a high compliment when he refers to it as a middle-of-the-road paper, and to its editor as a middle-of-the-road republican.

It is said that A. Richey, a Portland architect, has reported that this state cannot furnish suitable stone for the new government building to be erected in Portland.

Will some good, kind populist or free silver friend tell us of any reform measure, which was ever enacted into a law by the democrat party?

Let every republican attend the primaries on April 2nd, and see that representative republicans who will attend the convention are elected delegates.

CHANGES ITS TUNE.

The Review, under its present management, has made a persistent, unreasonable and uncalled for fight against the Southern Pacific Company. It has never missed an opportunity to prejudice the minds of the people of Roseburg against this company and its management.

Now that there is some prospect that their fight will bear fruit in the removal of the division terminals to some point further south, the Review begins to whine and call on the business men of Roseburg to help it undo what it has been years in helping to bring about.

CAT O'NINE TAILS AT THE PENITENTIARY.

The Portland Tribune gives an account of the attempted escape of two convicts from the Oregon state penitentiary and states that on their recapture they were bound to the whipping post, where each received 35 lashes on his bare back.

general plan included the sending of a memorial message along with the report, stating that Spain had been called upon to make suitable response to the case presented by the court of inquiry.

While the cabinet associates of the president maintained their usual reserve as to the exact character of their deliberations, yet it was conceded that the discussion proceeded on the theory that the coming report would show that the Maine explosion was not the result of an accident, but was due to external cause.

At the afternoon session after this report of the committee on credentials, the committee on resolutions presented the following resolutions which were adopted:

Miss Lillian McKee, of Golden, who has spent some months visiting the family of her brother, Clark McKee at that place, is now at Wool Creek, en route to her home at Junction.

J. O. Booth, of the firm of Booth & Tuff, bankers, of Grants Pass is at Wool Creek, looking after their large property interests at this place.

Edward Farmer, the station agent at this place, has been notified that he can exchange to the railroad office at Oakland, and we are informed that he has decided to make the change.

Mr. Higgins arrived here last week from Philadelphia and has joined his wife at Days creek, where he and his wife expect to spend the summer in this vicinity.

Mr. Fred Talcott of Albany arrived here Wednesday morning and is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. N. Cornett. Mr. Talcott will go to Oakland soon where he expects to enter the normal school.

These are nothing new, politically, in this part of the county. Your correspondent predicts that J. B. Riddle will be our next sheriff, and if such is the case, it will be an evidence of the good judgment of the people.

We noticed in Thursday's Review an announcement that the railroad division is to be moved from Roseburg to Gledale. We people of Riddle are not very badly frightened, however, and our hopes are not dashed to attend the other, notwithstanding the statement of the "great and only" to the contrary.

Rev. J. H. Skidmore is holding special meetings in Booth's chapel this week.

Miss Lucy LaRant is visiting with her sister, Mrs. L. A. Masters, at this place.

Miss Constance Shelton is visiting with Mrs. J. C. Gilliam of Garden Valley this week.
