Surprise Party.
On Saturday evening last after the church practice at the First Presbyterian Church a very pleasant surprise party was given by these young people to Miss Ruby Gordon at her home. The remainder of the evening was given to dancing until late hours, or rather an early hour, during which time we partook of an excellent supper. The occasion was the 19th birthday of our esteemed young friend and chum, Miss Ruby. We assure her that we will have many returns of this very pleasant evening. To say that she was surprised would be expressing it very mildly.
Those present were: Clara McCoy, Flossie Shambook, Sylvia Stearns, A. J. Sacy, Elva Wimberly, George Jacobs, Bert Catching, Eva Jacobs, Clara Doty, Ruby Bailey, Nora Jones, Ethel Parrott, Gertrude Eddy, Ruby Gordon, Carlton and Mary Livingston, Fred Smith, Rudolph Harmon, Green McWilliams, Chas. Pitchford, Walter McKenzie, Ellis Hansen, John Fenton, Henry Richardson, Sam Josephson, Fred Hunter and Frank Gordon.

Public School Entertainment.
The entertainment given by the pupils of the city schools on last Friday evening was one of the best of its kind ever given in the city. The Opera House was packed, even standing room being all taken before the curtain went up. The music, both vocal and instrumental, was of a high order. The duet drill by a class of boys from the second grade, under the command of Master Jimmy Porter, was one of the best things of the program. The ladies of the first grade, divided honors with the pupils of the third grade in their dramatic drill and the flag exercise by the children of the fourth grade. The teachers are entitled to great credit for the careful training necessary to enable the children to produce so good an entertainment. About $60 was realized for the benefit of the public school library.

The Railroad Situation.
The proposed removal of the division terminal from Roseburg to some point further south, has been the subject of discussion among our citizens during the past week. Just what is intended by the railroad company is merely conjecture. So far the only change which has gone into effect is an order which requires the conductors and brakemen on the two overland trains to change at Riddle instead of Roseburg.

MORNING SERVICE.
At the morning service, March 20, 1898, Rev. Howard delivered a fine sermon, his subject being "Charity." The preacher told his hearers some cold, plain facts, which put into practice by our people would be of lasting benefit to them.
EVENING SERVICES.
The evening chorus service is becoming more popular as the weeks go by and on this evening it was far better than usual. The select readings by Misses Ruby Gordon, Elva Wimberly, Ethel Parrott and Clara McCoy were of a high grade and were listened to with profound attention. The music was good and the address by Rev. R. B. Dilworth on "Light and the Creator of Light" was fine and characteristic of the reverend gentleman. Much credit is due Miss Flossie Shambook and Miss Ruby Bailey for this excellent programme. The next programme is in charge of Miss Ethel Parrott, so look out for something original.
