NOTES OF DEPARTURE.

The company was called at the armory last evening to complete final preparations and the assembling of baggage, arms and accoutrements.

The news of the organization and assignment of officers for the regiment had already reached here.

Prof. J. H. Ackerman, the nominee for superintendent of public instruction, has for years been prominently connected with educational work in Portland.

Mr. Woodcock is a resident of Eugene, Lane county. He was born in Clackamas county, Oregon, in 1850.

Every member of the company who remained at home would be perfectly willing to go no matter at what sacrifice.

Well, now that's encouraging. We hope that after mature deliberation and prayerful consideration other democrat editors, among them the editor of the democrat paper in this city, will come to approve the efforts of the United States in securing the oppressed Cubans.

Mr. W. A. Leeds, the present state printer, has done his work well and with economy to the state.

HON. GEORGE M. BROWN. Douglas county's favorite son, who is the republican candidate for district attorney, was born in Douglas county, near Roseburg, May 5, 1864.

GENUINE STATESMANSHIP. Senator Geo. W. McBride, in a letter to a friend in Portland, answers fully all those who have so hastily found fault with President McKinley in his wise and statesmanlike manner in dealing with the Cuban matter.

It takes five Spanish pesetas to make a dollar and it looks very much as if it would take five Spaniards to make a soldier.

A good many men believe that when they have borrowed a dollar, they have earned it.

Remember that the Cuban war resolutions were passed by republican votes and that the only votes cast against them in the senate were given by democrats, populists and silver republicans.

Wheat is selling in New York markets at $1.25. On the day that President McKinley was inaugurated it sold in New York at 94 cents.

The money circulation in the United States today is $245,000,000 greater than when the democratic convention of 1896 demanded the free coinage of silver.

Company A of the 2nd regiment of the Oregon National Guards, forty-two strong under the command of Capt. E. B. Hamlin left for Portland on Saturday morning.

The fusion organs occasionally refer to the late hold-up of the legislature. That seems to us, as the late Pat Malone used to say, "the bird belonging to its own nest."

Hon. H. R. Kincaid has issued a pamphlet on the money question.—Pop Exchange.

The more the Democrat man thinks about it the more he believes the United States is doing the proper thing in securing the oppressed Cubans.—Albany Democrat.

Mr. W. A. Leeds, the present state printer, has done his work well and with economy to the state.

Hon. F. N. Schoonmaker, of New Jersey, is one of the ablest campaigners in America. He will be here to help the workers carry the state for the ticket headed by Geer and this district for Tongue.

If William Jennings Bryan could be induced to enlist against Spain, his mouth would be worth a whole fleet of torpedo boats, on the side of Cuban liberty.

The head line type in the yellow journals is getting bigger and bigger. What will it look like if we should have a severe naval battle.

A good many men believe that when they have borrowed a dollar, they have earned it.

Young William Jennings Bryan has not yet enlisted. Not yet.

Remember that the Cuban war resolutions were passed by republican votes and that the only votes cast against them in the senate were given by democrats, populists and silver republicans.
