JOSEPH SMITH, Teacher.

Thursday night as Mr. Lathan and Mr. Scott, of San Jose, were coming home from Oat land beyond Mid Lammon's they drove against an oak stump, hard by the road side, causing the vehicle to upset. Both occupants were thrown violently out of the back. Mr. Lathan sustaining severe injury to his back, and Mr. Scott badly bruising his ankle, and otherwise bruising their bodies. The truck was demolished and the team came back minus the vehicle. Several parties have been damaged by this same stump and we pray that the supervisor will take steps to remove the same and prevent loss to the traveler and possibly to the county.—Elkhead correspondent. Oakland Gazette.

The Ladies of the Maccabees will serve strawberries and cake, at the Army on Thursday, June 2nd, from 2 to 10 p. m. There will be a literary and musical program rendered during the evening. The proceeds of the entertainment will go to the emergency corps, for the benefit of the Oregon troops now in the field. Citizens should attend and assist this worthy cause.

On Sunday morning, Mrs. D. C. McClallen, proprietress of the Hotel McClallen, in this city, in stepping from the hall to the office fell and dislocated her shoulder. She was also considerably bruised and injured by the fall. Dr. K. L. Miller was called and reduced the dislocation and did what was necessary to relieve the suffering. At last reports she was resting as comfortably as could be expected.

On the Broad Pacific.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., May 25.—Since I last wrote you, a good many changes have taken place. No last Friday yesterday morning bound for San Francisco to go on board the boat. We are now anchored in San Francisco bay. Aboard the Australia there is all told about 800 of us. Company B is stowed right in the bow of the boat, down in the lower deck, with hardly enough room to turn around in. It is so dark that we have to have lights all through the day to see anything. Our rations are not too bad in the word, they consist of some of the same things that we have had all along except we don't have any bread at all. We have been treated very well by the people in California. They have given us tons of grapes and thousands of oranges, lemons and bananas, and if it had not been for their generous donations, the boys would have found it pretty rough. I have been very busy all morning helping the chaplain arrange the library. We have all told about ten tons of reading matter. It consists of all kinds of books, papers and magazines. The calculations are to sail today or tomorrow for Honolulu. We will be escorted from there by the Charleston, Monterey and one other man-of-war. We will very likely remain at Honolulu until the other troops arrive there, then all go on one fleet to the Philippines. It will take us about 25 days to complete our journey if we have good luck, and don't stop on our way. The other troops that leave here with us will go on the City of Pekin and City of Sidney. I suppose from what I hear, that we have the best boat. The Australia was built 21 years ago, but she is in very good condition yet. The Roseburg boys are feeling fine; they are always ready with cup and plate to receive what they are offered. Some of the boys in Co. B have had the measles, everyone is O. K. now. I noticed one of the boys from Co. C this morning with his jaw all swollen; he thought he had the mumps. This is about all that I can think of to write at this time. You will hear from us again when we arrive at Honolulu, provided we stand the voyage all right. Don't forget to send us the PLAINDEALER, for we enjoy it very much.

Drain News.

(From the Watchman.)

Col. J. B. Eddy, of Roseburg, was a Drain visitor Friday, and remembered this office with a pleasant call.

Miss Elsie Hefty, who is employed in the Elkton public schools, spent Sunday at her home in this city.

Mrs. W. H. Stewart, of Constock, was a friend of Mrs. H. A. McClaran and other friends in this city Saturday.

Rev. Round visited his son Wm. and daughter, Miss Mary, who are attending the Normal school here, a few days this week.

Mrs. C. D. Drain and daughter Mada, returned home Sunday morning, having spent the past week with friends in Roseburg and the week before in Constock.

Miss Mary Brookhart, who has been spending the past few weeks in Hay-lunt, returned home to take the school examinations this week.

Chas. Culp, of Cottage Grove, was visiting Drain friends this week. He accompanied Mrs. Debra Roberts.

L. N. Whipple, who recently left this city for Montana, writes to his family at this place that he is just recovering from a severe attack of rheumatism.

Mr. J. W. Krewson, one of our substantial and enterprising merchants, left Monday by private conveyance for a two weeks visit with relatives in Coos county. He was accompanied by his granddaughter, Miss Pearl Lantz. During his absence the store is under the efficient management of Mrs. Krewson, where his many patrons will find the same kind and courteous treatment.

Dr. W. S. Gordon attended the Eugene District Hygienists' Club held in Roseburg this week.

Oakland Items

(From the Gazette.)

Mrs. C. A. Sahlbren and daughter, of Roseburg, are guests at the pleasant home of P. B. Beckley.

J. S. Beckley, now in the meat business in Roseburg, spent Sunday and Monday in Oakland. Mr. Beckley expects to move his family to Roseburg soon.

Mr. George Drew, of Buffalo, N. Y., during the past week has been at the home of his uncle, B. C. Bovingdon.

Mrs. Judge Willis, of Roseburg, and daughter, Mrs. Sam Evans, of Coles valley, were in Oakland Wednesday.

J. A. Umphry and A. Fenton, of Myrtle Creek, passed through Oakland Wednesday enroute for Seaside, where Mr. Fenton goes in quest of health.

Mr. Jack Fairchild has received a consignment of Klondike jewelry which he will sell at very low prices. Now is your time boys to purchase your best girl a piece of jewelry at a bargain.

To the Public.

On and after this date, I wish it understood that my terms for all undertaker's goods are cash with the order. I find it impossible to do business on a credit basis, and believe that I can do better by my patrons and myself by selling strictly for cash. P. BENOIC, Undertaker, Roseburg, Ore., April 12, 1895.

Burglar Shot.

OAKLAND, May 30, 1898.

An attempt was made to rob the residence of L. McFarland, the undertaker, last Saturday night. About 10 o'clock the door was rung, and Mr. McFarland, who was preparing to retire for the night, took a lamp into the front room and placed it on the center table, then going to the door opened it wide, supposing it was some one who wanted a basket. Instantly two masked men stepped into the door way, one thrusting a revolver into his face at the same time. Mr. McFarland grabbed the man's wrist, lowering the revolver, a scuffle ensued, and Mr. McFarland was thrown to the floor. Louis Crouch, grandson of Mr. McFarland, who is living with him, hearing the noise and cries of help, murder, of his grandfather, seized a shotgun and rushed to the rescue. Having no lights he had the advantage of the robbers. One of the men hearing him coming looked through a door in that direction, and at the same time Louis fired without aim the shot taking effect in the top of his head with deadly effect. As he fell a revolver fell from his hand to the floor. The firing of the gun put the lamp out and all was dark. The other man turned and fled, the door having closed with a night lock he broke his way through a window. The dyer man was taken out on the porch where he lay till morning. Judge Bovingdon held an inquest at 10 o'clock Sunday morning which brought out the result as above stated.

Two witnesses testified to the identity of the robbers as being Frank Hart who lives between here and Willbur. The jury exonerated Louis Crouch in every respect in his action in the robbery. So ends another chapter of ill fate that we may expect to be meted out to those of unloyal and unlaw-abiding.

16 TO 1.

Churchill & Woolley find that 16 to 1 applies to their mow trade. They have 16 customers (not counting the eleven this year) using the Jones' easy running chain drive mower to one (alleged by their competitors) who bought a chain drive years ago and put chain on reversed and ground it out in a few days. The machine doesn't help that. How that chain does trouble the other fellow when he tries to sell a machine with a duck's nest of tangles and gears, the user, never.
