SPEECH OF THOS. H. TONGUE. (Continued from first page.) They sent out through the mails from large cities a loss to the government in destroying the legitimate lock business throughout other sections of the country.

Another charge: He voted to authorize the merging of street railways in the District of Columbia, thus giving the government the right and opportunity to increase their capital and still further water their stock.

Now, there are two statements in that. So far as the shipbuilders of my own state are concerned, I have besetted the departments, aimed at making life burdensome to them, to insist that some portions of the contracts for shipbuilding should be given to Oregon firms, and it has been done, and the shipbuilders in my state do not complain.
