THE WAR TAX ALREADY IN FORCE.

Tea Must Henceforth Pay Ten Cents a Pound Duty.

Portland merchants are at present largely occupied with figuring on the effects of the war tax levied by congress for the purpose of raising revenue to carry on the war with Spain. Many are in a quandary whether to raise the price of the articles taxed to the consumer or to stand the tax themselves. If they endeavor to charge the tax to the consumer their patrons will object, and if they concede to shoulder the burden themselves their ledgers will not look so well at the end of the year. On many of the articles the tax is so small that it is a delicate matter to add it to the cost to the consumer. The war tariff of 10 cents a pound on tea went into effect last night. This will catch several large cargoes now en route to this country from the Orient. Some of these cargoes were started off ahead of schedule time for the very purpose of avoiding the tax.

The war tax on beer, cigars and tobacco goes into effect today. The tax on beer has been raised to $2 per barrel, 7 1/2 per cent discount. The tax on tobacco is 12 cents per pound, and on cigars $3.60 per thousand. The old beer tax (act of 1898) was $1 per barrel. Tobacco paid 6 cents a pound tariff and cigars $3 per 1000. Collector of Internal Revenue Dunne has issued instructions to all his deputies to see that the change in these tariffs is observed. All stamps now in the hands of cigar and tobacco manufacturers and brewers are called in, and credit will be given for them on the new stamps.

The new tariff law will catch druggists hard, as every 4 cent bottle will have to bear a 4-cent tax. In fact, the law requires about everything in a drug store to carry a revenue stamp, and it is estimated that Oregon will yield the government about $200,000 a year alone, resultant from this tax. It will cost the firm of Blumauer, Frank & Co. $12,000 to stamp their stock to start with.

Transportation companies will also carry their share of the burden of this tax tariff, as the law requires a 1-cent stamp to be affixed to every receipt issued for a shipment of freight or express matter.—Portland Telegram.
