Glendale.

South Douglas is being visited by a heavy rain. Crops of all kind are a certainty and peace and prosperity prevails.

Republicans in our village and vicinity are rejoicing over our victory in our state election. It being a grand endorsement of the wise policy of our president in this critical time of discontent and criticism, that he is so ably and heroically meeting and managing.

The Children's Day picnic at Glenellen, the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Totten, last Sunday was the best gathering of that kind ever held in South Douglas. The S. S. exercises were nicely planned and very efficiently executed. The thanks of the Sunday school are hereby tendered to M. and Mrs. Totten for the use of their beautiful home and for their kind assistance in carrying on the picnic. Also to Miss Cora Jones, Jennie Clark and Dorcas Chase for songs and recitations. The offering was a very good one, but as yet the exact amount collected has not been reported.

The sad accident of Sunday in the canyon was a mournful ending to a lovely day, whose morning promised so much happiness to all. The people of Glendale all express the deepest feelings of sorrow for the bereaved relatives of S. D. Willis, especially the fair young wife and her baby girl, whose brief dream of happiness has ended in deepest gloom. We can speak no word for sorrow such as theirs. We can only commend them to Him who watches the sparrow fall. He alone can comfort them. S. D. Willis was well known all over Oregon, and the number of his friends were every one who knew him. When the mystery of all hearts is revealed, we will know why God in his wisdom has permitted us all to meet and endure these terrible ordeals of earthly woe. We can only look beyond the clouds to the sunshine of the other shore.

Miss Nettie Redfield left Thursday for Portland to attend the grand chapter, O. E. S., that met on Monday. Miss Nettie is worthy matron of Canyonville chapter.

Misses Katie and Jennie Clark and Ruth Roberts went down to the scene of the wreck on Sunday evening, and as the lady of the section house was ill Miss Katie Clark and Miss Roberts remained all night and cooked supper for the tired toilers who were working so hard to rescue Mr. Willis' body from under the engine.

Mrs. S. M. Wallace of Arlington, Miss Lillian Aytch of Eckydell, and Miss Myrtle Marshall of Appledale have our thanks for a lovely bouquet of flowers.

Joe, the Chinese cook at Hotel Clarke, has our thanks for fruit and confections of many varieties.

MOLLIE.

Scottsburg.

J. Yale was in town again a few days since on his usual round.

Mr. Cole has been gone for a few days. During his absence Roy Wells and J. Stacks filled his place.

Theo. Andrews was out to Drain recently. On his return he brought an aunt of his, late of San Francisco.

S. Morris of Tsilcoos was in town last week. He is agent for the Monteith fruit and vegetable evaporator.

There is some talk of celebrating the 4th by a picnic. This town surely can show its patriotism that much.

Mrs. F. Hedden and family have gone to Elkton on a visit.

A. E. Ozouf and wife have gone to the county seat.

Long Prairie has organized a Sunday school as follows: Mrs. E. V. Thompson, Supt.; Miss Ethel Butler, assistant Supt; Mrs. A. L. Butler, Sec. and Treas.

Mrs. J. Wells, Miss Hefty and Miss Gordon were down from Elkton on the 11th.

Wool will soon be ready for shipment. Some has already been brought in.

Joe Butler, Gardiner's P. M., is taking an outing up the country.

A Hickathier is expected down soon. Then every young man can get the photo of his best girl or present her with one of himself.

The Scottsburg itemizer for the Drain Watchman seems to have disappeared and we hope no one has kidnapped him.

Dean creek is to have a Sunday school picnic on the 19th, all things being favorable.

Mrs. Harvey conducted services at the residence of Aza Andrews on the Sabbath on account of Mrs. Andrews feeble health, not enabling her to attend at the usual place of meeting.

We note with pleasure the election of Prof. Hamlin and Geo. Dimmick and feel assured that Jas. Byron will make a good official, although a little on the wrong track.

When They are Seated.

Governor elect T. T. Geer will not assume the duties of chief magistrate of Oregon until the second Monday of January, 1899. The official returns on the vote for governor are sealed up and sent to the speaker of the house, who opens them in the presence of both houses of the legislature and announces the result. The secretary of state canvasses the election returns of other state officers and furnishes certificates of election to those receiving the highest number of votes. The supreme court judge elected will resume his duties the first Monday in July, but all other state officers take their places in January following their elections.

For prices and quality call at the old original stand, Fresh and dried fruits, candy and nuts, cigars and tobacco at prices to suit all. MRS. H. EASTON.
