Ray, Mr. Marsters of Cleveland was in the city today. He reports crops as excellent in his section and farmers are consequently happy.

Miss Henrietta S. Hook, accompanied by her mother, left by private conveyance for Marshfield Tuesday. She will be absent about a month.

We call the attention of the city council to the condition of the water mains. Had the supply of water been ample the fire of yesterday might have been nipped in the bud.

All reports from the country are to the effect that crops are excellent and the farmers are correspondingly happy, and prosperity is booming as a consequence thereof.

Sewing machines, sewing machines, sewing machines at Alexander & Strong, and the best of them at that, ranging in price from $25 to $37.50. Be sure to see them before you buy.

It is desired that all Odd Fellows in good standing attend the regular meeting of Philatristan Lodge No. 8, next Saturday evening. The D. D. G. M. will be in attendance and the officers for the next term will be installed.

E. H. Clarke of El Dorado, Kansas, J. W. Wright and E. D. Stratford left this morning for the headwaters of the North Umpqua, and, although they carry heavy batteries of rapid-fire guns, they are not looking for Spaniards.

J. Hamlin, who went with A. W. Stanton with a drove of sheep for Wyoming returned this morning. He left Stanton at Huntington, after shipping his sheep on board 60 cars for a 600 mile haul. Mr. Hamlin reports wages at Huntington are less than here. Plenty of men can be hired for $1. per day.

Badlands, Upper South Umpqua, heard from. Dennis Hanks, Len Perdue, Ernest Bullock, John Richards, John Barker, Claude McCarty and Ernest Velzain came down Wednesday night. They report that the crops in that section are immense. A light frost occurred Tuesday night, slightly damaging tender plants.

The hydrants yesterday were so clogged up with mud that it was several minutes, long time in case of the "burber" the water had any force, and during that time the fire got beyond control. Had there been a sufficient force available when the first hose company arrived on the ground, a barrel of water would have sufficed to put out the fire on the roof of Mark's warehouse.

THE TRIP TO HONOLULU.

Extracts From a Private Letter from Lieutenant Hamlin.

At sea, Saturday, May 29, on board steamer Australia, bound for Honolulu.

We are told this morning that we may meet a transport from Honolulu to San Francisco some time today and I may possibly be able to send some mail; so I will write and take the chance.

The sea is very smooth and nice this morning for the first time since crossing the bar at Golden Gate. I am feeling fine, just getting over my sea sickness. We left our anchorage in San Francisco bay at 5:30 p. m., Wednesday, and took our course a trifle south of west direct for Honolulu. The bar was a trifle rough, but not very many were made sick, but I was not affected at all. I ate a hearty supper and went to bed. During the night the sea got much rougher. In the morning white caps were everywhere. Ship pitching and rolling. Many people sick. Very few out to breakfast. I got up but my head swam and stomach heaves with the sea, went back to bed and staid till noon. I ate a few crackers. Sea still rough. I went on deck with a miserable feeling. I ate little supper and went to bed. Sea a little smoother.

Friday—I got up with some miserable feeling. I ate little breakfast, dinner or supper, and retired early.

Saturday—I got up with a different feeling, head clear, hungry, sea sickness all gone. I ate a hearty breakfast and went on deck for fresh air. The captain sends word just now that the transport will not take any mail, and that our letters will not be mailed till we reach Honolulu, so I will just write a little from time to time, as events occur. The City of Pekin is in the lead, we on the Australia, are next behind, and on the left the Sidney is third, and on our left and rear.

Sunday, May 29—Will add a few lines to my letter today. About 40 are writing in the reading room now. The sea is smooth and nearly every one has recovered from sea sickness. Two cases of measles reported. I have had them so they have no fears for me. Church services just finished. The hurricane upper deck was crowded. Short sermon by Chaplain Gilbert. Reading of sermon on "duties" was treated under six heads: "Soldier's duty to himself, soldier's duty to fellow soldiers, soldier's duty to family and relatives, soldier's duty to his officers, soldier's duty to his country, soldier's duty to his Creator. Much singing and instrumental music by the band. Playing rather poor for want of practice. We traveled 287 miles yesterday and 310 today, making all in all 600. At this rate we will reach Honolulu about Wednesday. If measles are bad we will likely be quarantined. Hope not. Dr. R. Shambrook, Geo. Day, Harry Slocum and Frank Godfrey are quite well. Good by for the present.

June 1, 8:30 a. m.—I will add another chapter to my letter of this morning. We are now within about 100 miles of Honolulu and moving at the rate of 13 miles per hour, so you see we expect to reach there about the middle of the afternoon. Another case of measles on board this morning, so I suppose that means either quarantine on board ship or quarantined camp if we land. But the sight of land will be a relief. We have had a very quiet, uneventful passage. Saw a school of porpoises yesterday, and flying fish several times, one flew on deck. It was a beauty about 10 inches long. We have not been worked very hard but have managed to keep busy most of the time. The library has been used more than I supposed it would.

It is quite warm here, latitude about 15 degrees north, the water about 75 degrees. A large canvas bath tub has been made, 4 feet deep and about 10 feet long. The boys are requested to bathe about every other day. The water is pumped in by steam through a four inch hose and is constantly changing. Nearly all have been vaccinated. The general health is very good, sea sickness about all over.

Honolulu, June 4.—I spent the day ashore at the Hawaiian celebration. People are wild. The great event of their lives is about to take place—annexation. This is a beautiful island, small but fertile. The Hawaiian school building is the finest I ever saw. Street cars, electric lights, graded and paved streets, beautiful residences and thrifty people. We have been royally received and treated. Tables set in palace gardens from 10 till 4 for about 4000 soldiers. Mail steamers came in this afternoon with San Francisco papers and letters. We leave at 7:30 o'clock in the morning conveyed by the Charleston. There was a reported attempt here today by Spanish spy to blow up the steamer Sidney. Don't know that there is anything in it. We may be 21 days on our voyage to the Philippines unless the threatened trouble with France and Germany causes us to move faster.

A BIG BLAZE.

5. Marks & Co.'s Warehouse Destroyed by Fire.

Wednesday at about 2:30 p. m. the alarm of fire was made, and in a few minutes the cause of the alarm was discovered. 5. Marks & Co.'s grain warehouse and elevator was on fire, and as a high wind was blowing the flames spread rapidly. The firemen were promptly on hand but before they got the water turned on, the fire had got beyond control and in about 20 minutes the entire building was wrapped in flames and burned to the ground, together with the machinery for cleaning grain and about 1000 bushels of wheat. Several buildings caught fire which, luckily, were extinguished. T. B. Cannon's barn, opposite on Pine street, was burned and his and Mrs. G. W. Day's residences and the cottage of W. F. Benjamin on the west side of the railroad track, (now occupied by W. S. Britt one by E. McBroom and a vacant one) narrowly escaped. They were barely saved by herculean efforts in carrying water in buckets and dashing upon the charring sides and roofs. The damage to them was light and covered by insurance. For about one hour it was one of the most exciting times ever witnessed in Roseburg.

During the conflagration of the Marks warehouse the roofs of houses several blocks distant caught fire and the owners were busy putting them out by climbing upon the roofs with hose or buckets of water. And as fortune favored them a general conflagration was averted.

One serious accident occurred during the fire. Mr. Wm. Carlson while in the act of extinguishing a fire in the roof of his lively stable fell to the ground dislocating the ankle joint of his left leg and fracturing a bone and bruising the right foot considerably. Marks and company had a small insurance upon the warehouse but nothing upon its contents. Their loss is chiefly upon the machinery and about 1000 bushels of wheat and loss to them in their business for the grain season is just approaching. In addition Cannon's loss of his barn had a large number of fruit trees and shrubbery destroyed that will require many years to replace. The damage to his residence is amply covered by insurance, but the barn and orchard are a complete loss.

The origin of the fire, it is believed, was caused by sparks from a passing engine.

CIRCUIT COURT.

Circuit Court commenced Monday morning, Hon. J. C. Fairclough presiding. The grand jury selected is as follows: J. A. Sawyer, foreman; S. D. McCoy, J. D. Strong, S. D. Gaff, Richard Baner, W. S. Johnson, H. S. West.

4. Thos. Hirst vs. Emma Nasburg, partition. D. S. Watson and J. W. Hamilton for plaintiff; A. M. Crawford for defendant. Continued.
5. Thos. Hirst vs. Emma Nasburg et al, partition. D. S. Watson and J. W. Hamilton for plaintiff; A. M. Crawford for defendant. Continued.
6. F. M. Searles, insolvent debtor, assignment. J. W. Hamilton for assignee. Continued.
7. O. H. P. Beagle vs. Rachel E. Beagle, divorce. L. Longhary for plaintiff; E. D. Stratford for defendant. Discontinued for want of prosecution.
8. Henry Little vs. Patrick Murphy et al, to recover money. J. W. Hamilton for plaintiff; L. Longhary for defendant. Continued for term.
9. G. Gobie vs. W. H. Byars, action for damages. E. D. Stratford for plaintiff; J. W. Hamilton for defendant. Dismissed.
10. W. H. Murdock vs. Mary L. Murdock, divorce. Brown & Tustin for plaintiff. Decree granted.
11. Evarilla E. Warner vs. Vernon E. Warner, to recover money. O. P. Coshaw for plaintiff. Settled.
12. Harriet Molnix vs. Mary Brown et al, foreclosure. Fred Page-Tustin for plaintiff. Settled.
13. Herman Marks vs. Charles F. Watson et al, foreclosure. F. W. Benson for plaintiff. Default and judgment.
14. J. H. Beckley vs. P. B. Beckley, to recover money. O. P. Coshaw for plaintiff; F. W. Benson for defendant. Settled.
15. James Batty vs. Matthew Lehr et al, confirmation. Brown & Tustin for plaintiff. Confirmed.
16. John Hall, adm. vs. Geo. Robinson et al, confirmation. F. W. Benson for plaintiff. Order for confirmation.
17. W. P. Lord et al vs. Myron Bidwell et al, confirmation. Selhbrede & Coshaw for plaintiff. Order for confirmation.
18. W. P. Lord et al vs. J. J. Thornton, admr., et al, confirmation. Selhbrede & Coshaw for plaintiff. New order of sale on account of clerical error in township.

WANTED—Wood on subscription at this office.

South Myrtle Creek.

Everybody is making hay while the sun shines.

Lloyd Ady and family visited at Jas. Newton's Sunday.

We feel sorry for that man who fell off his mower last week.

Albert Stephens and Walter Newton spent Sunday at Dillard.

Lost, Strayed, or Stolen.—A pet lion. Was seen last on the road between here and Oakland. Any information regarding his whereabouts will be gratefully received. People with lambs should use every precaution available.

Four loads of lumber was taken to Days Creek from Potts' mill Saturday. It will be used in building the new school house.

Mrs. Sellers and Miss Bell visited at Johnny Stephen's Saturday.

Charles Potts made a pleasant call at Mr. McDonald's, Sunday.

Sunday, they appointed their committee to prepare the grounds for Children's Day No. 2. Noah Sellers did such efficient work at the first one that they tried every available means to get him to act on this one; but not having finished his work on the other committee he felt justified in declining to serve.

Miss Ethel Mc Donald, we are pleased to learn, has nearly recovered from her recent illness.

Mr. Chaney and family went home from Sunday school with our genial Supt.

Later.—The lion has been recaptured and, so far as we can learn, has done no serious damage; but there is talk of shipping him to Eastern Oregon.

NEED AND TAD.

Bohemia Gold Mines.

A gentleman by the name of Powers, representing the Cudahy Brothers of Chicago, has been in the Bohemia mining district this week, looking over some of the mining property, and especially the Helena mine. This mine is owned by Jennings brothers and Mr. Bruno. Last year these gentlemen tunneled into the mountain about 70 feet, and this year they started a new tunnel below the other and have gone in about 60 feet, uncovering some very rich ore.

Mr. Powers states that some of the ore examined by him assays in the neighborhood of $1000 to the ton. There is now about 30 tons of assorted ore on the ground ready for milling. There is a strong probability that Mr. Powers will buy the mine for the gentlemen he represents in which event a good mill will be established there.

There are now six or seven mills in that district, and the mills at the Champion and Muskegon, of ten and five stamps, respectively, are running now. Several new mills will probably be put in this summer.

A great deal of prospecting is now going on, and the Bohemia district is becoming of greater importance every year. There is no longer any question but that there is a great deal of rich ore there, and capital is becoming interested and will bring it out.—Engene Register.

Anniversary No. 122.

J. Frever took two loads of mohair to the R. R. last week.

Wm Davis and son, formerly of Douglas county, paid his sister, Mrs. Wm Burchard, a short visit recently. Mr. Davis was on his way to Idaho.

Mr. Cox purchased a large band of sheep near Elkton and Long Prairie and took them to his home on the Siuslaw a few days ago.

Russel Butler, who has been at Scho. field for several weeks, came up the river on Saturday.

Frank Sagaber was taking a short vacation and visited Long Prairie and vicinity.

Robt. Wade took some fine large cattle to Drain the first of the week.

We were much pained to hear of the sad drowning of the son of Capt. Bergman of the L. S. S., in Clear Lake at Titecos. A young lady was also drowned, whose name we did not ascertain.

Curry County Coal.

Oregon is a great country for large things. First, a large republican majority the 6th of June, then an extra large grain crop, in fact all kinds of crops that Oregon produces, and the largest vein of coal (in Curry county, on the waters of six) ever struck (this side of the mcn or anywhere else. Only 107 feet in thickness! Not a clay or shale seam in all that thickness, and all good cooking coal. Don't think that I belong to the Roseburg R. V. Sta. staff. This is a fact, as to thickness and quality, and all as to quantity, if three miles square will do for quantity.

J. A. HAINES.

To the Public.

On and after this date, I wish it understood that my terms for all undertaker's goods are cash with the order. I find it impossible to do business on a credit basis, and believe that I can do better by my patrons and myself by selling strictly for cash. P. BERNICK, Undertaker, Roseburg, Ore., April 12, 1898.

A Bargain.

Splendid dwelling property consisting of three lots, well finished house and outbuildings, offered at a genuine bargain by the Roseburg Building & Loan Association. Inquire of HERMAN MARKS, Secretary.

Men Wanted.

The following dispatch, which explains itself, was received this morning: OAKLAND, OR., June 30.—One hundred men wanted on Bohemia road. Apply on work. T. G. ROTH.

Riddle.

Rev. W. G. Miller preached at this place Sunday.

P. A. Wilson was doing business in Roseburg Monday.

Miss Anna Bogus came home Saturday morning, having completed her school at Rockies.

Rev. T. B. Ford preached an excellent sermon at the church house Friday night.

E. Raymond of Days creek was at this place Friday attending quarterly meeting.

Mrs. Gallop and daughter, Mrs. Sherman of Myrtle Creek, were in our city Friday.

Wm. Brown and Miss Clara Stearns of Canyonville were in this city last week.

Ernest D. and Miss Grace Riddle were visiting with the family of Judge Riddle at Glenbrook Sunday.

The M. E. Church held quarterly conference at this place Friday. Dr. T. B. Ford, presiding elder was in charge.

Mrs. Simmons of Grants Pass came down last week, and is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Geo. R. Riddle.

Mrs. T. J. Wilson and children of Elkton arrived here Wednesday and are visiting relatives in this vicinity.

Joseph Lett and wife have become residents of our city and are occupying rooms in the Catching building.

Mrs. Sylvia Catching came down from the Cracker Jack mine Saturday and will spend a week or two visiting in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Donell of Portland came up Saturday morning to attend the wedding of their son, G. W., and Miss Laura Fieker.

Chas. Feikert came down from the canyonville last week and reports that he has completed his wood contract for the railroad company.

Miss Blanch Riddle, who has been in attendance at the Agricultural college at Corvallis, arrived here Thursday evening and will spend her vacation at home.

Our school closed Friday. Prof. Rice has proven himself to be a gentleman of high educational attainments and we wish him success wherever he may go.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Ingles-Donell had the honor of being serenaded by the Riddle "band" Saturday night. Yes, they were out in full force, and great was their merriment that the sun and cow bell were made to sound forth the most melodious music. The spirit of enthusiasm spread so rapidly that even the lazy town dog caught it up, joining wildly in on the chorus, and for a time the air was filled with the treble notes of tin can melodies; and this was the old time blessing (?) gently and lovingly bestowed. While war disturbs the nation's peace and men become world-famous in a day, cunning little Cupid continues to ply his comubial art, and as a result he has sent his dart unswerving to the hearts of Mr. G. W. Ingles-Donell and Miss Laura C. Feikert, who were united in marriage at the residence of the bride's mother in this city Saturday, June 25th, Rev. C. M. Bryan performing the ceremony. The wedding was a quiet affair, only a few relatives and friends being present. The groom is a popular employee of the S. P. Co., and the bride is one of Riddle's most accomplished young ladies. The happy couple left Sunday morning for California where they will make their future home. We wish them a long life of joy unmarred. SCORCHER.

The Crescent is the Best.

Roseburg, Or., June 21, 1898.

To whom it may concern:

This is to certify that I purchased a Crescent race wheel of A. C. Marsters & Co. on April 16, 1898, and since then I have ridden it 1900 miles over rough, craggy highways and muddy mountain trails, without a single break and only one puncture, which I repaired myself.

For strength, durability, beauty, finish and easy running the "Crescent" have no equal, for they have been tried and not found wanting in any of the above named qualities.

I have owned (and had the privilege of using) several different makes of bicycles, but I would say to any one desiring a first-class wheel in every respect, and one that will stand hard usage and wear to purchase a high-grade "Crescent."

Respectfully,
W. WRIGHT.
