Yankee Dewey.

Yankee Dewey went to sea,
Sailing in a cruiser;
He took along for company
Of men and guns, a few, sir.
Yankee Dewey, Ha! Ha! Ha!
Dewey, you're a dandy.
With men and guns, and cruisers, too,
You're certainly quite handy.
He sailed away to the Philippines,
With orders there to snatch them,
And thrash the Spaniards right and left
Whenever he could catch them.
And Yankee Dewey did it, too,
He did it so complete, sir,
That not a blooming ship is left
Of all that Spanish fleet, sir.
Oh, Yankee Dewey you're a peach,
A noble, gallant tar, sir;
You're "out of sight," you're "out of reach."
We hail you from afar, sir.
We greet you with three rousing cheers,
For you and your brave crew, sir,
For the deeds you've done and vict'ry won
For Yankee Doodle Doo, sir.
Yankee Dewey, keep it up,
You certainly are handy,
With men and guns, and cruisers, too,
Oh, Dewey, you're a dandy.

Hobson Exchanged.

OFF JURAQA, July 6.—Naval Constructor Richmond P. Hobson, of the flagship New York, and the seven seamen who sailed the collier Merrimac into the channel of the harbor of Santiago de Cuba, June 3, and sunk her there, were surrendered today by the Spanish military authorities in exchange for prisoners captured by the American force.

Hobson and his men were captured through the American lines by Captain Chadwick of the New York. Every step of the journey was marked by the wild demonstration. The American soldiers who threw aside all semblance of order, scrambled out of the entrenchments and knocked over tent and guns and other camp paraphernalia in their eagerness to see the returning heroes and sent cheer after cheer into the men who sailed into the jaws of death to serve their country. The same scenes of enthusiasm were repeated on the arrival at the hospital station and Juraqa.

Hobson, who reached there in advance of his companions, was taken on board the New York immediately. The flagship's deck was lined with officers and men as he climbed up the side and stepped on board the vessel. With shouts and cheers he and his comrades were recognized by the crews in the transports lying in the New York. Hobson had little to say regarding his experience, except that he was well treated by the Spaniards. All his men are in excellent health.

Blanco to Blame.

WASHINGTON, July 7.—The state department has received the report of Corveta to Blanco on the recent disastrous naval fight as follows:
"To the General-in-Chief, Havana: In compliance with your orders, I went out yesterday from Santiago de Cuba with all the squadron, and, after an unequal combat against forces more than triple mine, had all the squadron destroyed by fire, and Teresa, Oquendo and Vizcaya being beached, and the Colon sinking. Accordingly I went ashore and gave myself up. The torpedo-boat destroyers fundered, do not know how many people were lost, but should judge it will reach 600 dead. Many were drowned. Although not in such great numbers, the living are prisoners to the Americans. The conduct of the crews rose to a height that won the most enthusiastic plaudits of everybody. The Vizcaya surrendered well. Her crew are very grateful for the noble generosity with which they were treated. Among the dead are Villamil W. Lasaga. Among the wounded are Concas and Palate. We lost all, and are necessarily depressed."
CERVERA."

Cubans Refuse to Work.

CAMP SPOONKEY, July 5.—General Young left at noon today for Key West. Brigadier-General Duffield succeeds to his command. General Young yesterday refused to issue further rations to the Cubans until advice were received from Washington in answer to an exposé of the situation here. The Cubans refuse to assist the hospital commissary department, claiming they are soldiers, not laborers. The same answer was given General Baker when he asked them to help upon the roads in the transportation of supplies. This, together with General Garcia's not preventing the entrance of the Spanish reinforcements into Santiago de Cuba, caused discontent among the officers and troops. Young reported the situation to Washington, and meanwhile placed Cubans under police regulations and turned them over to Clara Barton for rations.

Spanish Officers Desert.

WASHINGTON, July 6.—Advice received this morning from General Shafter announces that a number of high Spanish officers are deserting across the line at Santiago into the American army.

Health of the Army.

CAMP SPOONKEY, Tuesday, July 5.—The general health of the United States troops is excellent. Not a case of yellow fever is reported, despite the fact that Santiago de Cuba is recognized as a great fever focus as far as the Santos.
Of over 1000 wounded treated in the division hospital only two have died, John Myers, company G, Sixth Infantry, whose limb was amputated, and Private James E. McCartney, of the same company and regiment, who succumbed to a brain operation. Both were buried this morning, with religious services. There have been no cases of blood poisoning.
The behavior of the patients and wounded is heroic. There is not a moan or a murmur among the whole 700. Last night many were lying on the hard ground outside the tents. Surgeons and nurses worked unceasingly for 48 hours, without rest or meals, and there are 200 wounded yet to come from the field. The hospital corps is short-handed, and doctors from the vessels of the fleet are working day and night.
The wounds show that the Spaniards are not only using explosive bullets, but also brass-covered bullets with the ends filed. The latter make most ghastly wounds, as when they strike the brass lining spreads out, tearing the flesh like barbed wire.
The Spanish sharpshooters are firing at the Red Cross Society people and at the ambulances. They shot one driver, who was badly wounded.
The raging surf makes the shipment of the wounded to the transport and hospital ships very difficult, as there is no pier, and the landing facilities are very meager.
The weather continues bad, with heavy showers almost every day. It has made things hard for the wounded. Despite all the care bestowed upon them by the medical staff, two officers died today in the hospital, Lieutenant Putnam, of the Sixth Infantry, and Dr. Danforth, assistant surgeon, Ninth cavalry. The latter was shot down by a Spanish sharpshooter while attending to the wounded at points along the roadside.
Out of 1000 cases treated at the hospital of the First division, only 16 have died and there has not been a single case where a wound has suppurred.

All Roads Jammed.

OFF JURAQA, Tuesday, July 5.—The roads leading from Santiago de Cuba have been black today with people fleeing from the dreaded bombardment by the Americans. A flag of truce has floated over the walls of the city and above the entrenchments of the besieging army all day. The unofficial armistice, which terminated at noon, is being extended until tomorrow noon at the request of foreign consuls, and during the lull in the fighting the Spanish commander has permitted all noncombatants to leave. This fact is generally accepted among the officers at headquarters as an indication of a grim determination on the part of the Spaniards to fight it out.
About 500 refugees, mostly French, have gone to El Gauzy, and others have gone to Moran and St. Lucis. The foreign consuls have probably all gone, as no response is obtained from them in answer to a flag of truce.

Old Glory at Hawaii.

WASHINGTON, July 7.—Secretary Long today gave orders for the departure of the cruiser Philadelphia from Mare Island for Hawaii. The Philadelphia will carry the flag of the United States to those islands and formally annex them to the Union. Admiral Miller, commanding the Pacific station, will be charged with the function of hoisting the flag hauled down by Commissioner Blount. The ship will be ready for sea in a few days.
The president will appoint a commission immediately to frame laws necessary to the changed condition of affairs in Hawaii. This must be done before the adjournment of congress, commissioners being subject to confirmation by the senate.

Baker City Democrat: It is an odd day when the Spaniards do not claim to have killed a naval officer or two and to have disabled one or more of our warships.

A PROCLAMATION BY BOS.

People Allowed Four Hours in Which to Leave Santiago.

EL GAUZY, July 5.—Fifteen thousand refugees today filled the roads leading from Santiago to El Gauzy, San Vicente, Boniato and San Luis, adjacent places.
The exodus was in response to a proclamation by General Bos, in Santiago, who gave all people desirous of leaving the city to escape the bombardment a chance to go between 5 and 9 o'clock this morning. The time between the issuance of the proclamation and the period set for leaving gave only small opportunity for transferring household effects or any of the comforts of life, particularly as the Spanish authorities had forbidden any horse or carriage to be taken from the city. The horses are needed there for carrying water to the men in the trenches.
The way to El Gauzy is long, and the weather excessively hot. As the fugitives had no means of carrying water, and as there is none on the road between Santiago and El Gauzy, there was great suffering. Men, women and children lay alongside the road wherever there was a patch of shade, begging passers-by, particularly soldiers with dangling canteens, for water, which was always freely tendered.

Shafter Says It's False.

WASHINGTON, July 7.—The war department has posted the following dispatch from General Shafter, received in response to an inquiry as to the reported killing of Spanish prisoners by Cubans: "The dispatch as to the killing of prisoners by Cubans is absolutely false. No prisoners have been turned over to them, and they have shown no disposition to treat badly any Spaniards who have fallen into their hands."
(Signed) SHAFER,
Major-General Commanding.

The Taking Of El Gauzy.

BEFORE SANTIAGO DE CUBA, Tuesday, July 5.—General Lawton, in his report after the assault upon and capture of El Gauzy by his division during the first day's fighting, says:
"It may not be out of place to call attention to this peculiar feature of the battle: It was fought against an enemy fortified and entrenched within a compact town of stone and concrete houses, some with walls several feet thick and supported by a number of stone forts, and the enemy continued to resist until nearly every man was killed or wounded."
Captain Kariagh, adjutant general, says:
"The action of the American troops at El Gauzy will always have a place in history as an illustration of a successful assault upon a fortified town by foot soldiers."

A sick person trying to keep up on mere stimulating tonics is like any one pretending to swim while supported by a belt. The instant the support is withdrawn down you go.
Nearly all diseases result from a depleted condition of the nutritive powers which cannot be reached by any temporary exhilaration. The only good that any medicine can do is to increase your own natural powers of recovery and make you able to swim for yourself.
The debilitating weakness, nervousness and digestive disorder which indicates this state of mal-nutrition can only be overcome by a scientific remedy like Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery which acts directly upon the digestive and blood-making organs, and effects the nutritive transformation of food into rich, healthy blood, which carries genuine permanent vitality to every corner of the system.
It is vastly more nutritious than malt-extracts. It does not paralyze the nerves, but feeds them with health. It is better than cod liver oil emulsions. It is assimilated by the weakest stomach. It does not make baby useless fat, but muscular and healthy nerve-force. It is the only perfect invigorant for corpulent people.
Mrs. J. H. Howell, of Derby, Vt., writes: "In the year of 1881 I was taken with stomach trouble—no, vomit dyspepsia. There was a coldness in my stomach, and a weight which seemed like a rock. Everything that I ate gave me great pain. I had a heaving down sensation, was swelled across my stomach; had a ridge around my right side, and in a short time I was bloated. I was treated by three of our best physicians but got no relief. Then Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery was recommended to me and I got it, and commenced the use of it. I began to see a change for the better. I was so weak I could not walk across the room without assistance. I took Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and one bottle of the 'Pleasant Peppermint' I began to improve very fast after the use of a few bottles. The physicians who attended me said I had 'dropsy' and that my disease was leading into pulmonary consumption. I had quite a cough, and the house physicians gave me up today. I thank God that my cure is permanent."
