OUR FLAG IS UP.

leader of the Spanish forces, was present throughout the session, and appeared to be utterly heartbroken. He spoke bitterly of the late which compelled him to sue for peace, but had no word to say against the gallant men who had conquered his army. He declared that he had little chance to win.

"I would not desire to see my worst enemy play with the cards I held," he said to one of the commissioners. "Every one of my generals were killed or wounded. I have not a single colonel left, and am surrounded by a powerful enemy. We have counted 67 ships off this port. And besides," he concluded, waving his hands toward the city, "I have secret troubles there."

Speaking of the battle of the 24th of June, in which the rough riders and a part of General Young's command participated, General Tora said that less than 2000 Spanish troops were engaged, his loss being 265. He would not say how many Spaniards were killed at El Caney and before Santiago.

"Heavy, heavy," he said dejectedly. In response to an inquiry, he said that transportation would be required for between 22,000 and 25,000 men, there being that many in the capitulated district. He informed the officers that Santiago harbor had again been mined since Admiral Cervera left.

General Miles remained at Juraguá during the completion of the agreement yesterday, and a copy of the articles was sent him by General Shafter this morning.

"That is splendid," he said. "We have got everything we came after." General Miles went to Guantanamo today, and it is reported he will remain there until the Washington government decides about the Porto Rican campaign. A large number of troops are being off here, and it is believed a large part of General Shafter's army will be moved soon.

The camp at Juraguá contains nothing now but hospital tents with a guard of two companies. The blackened ruins of a few burned buildings are still visible, but in most places the debris has been removed. The white tents of the hospital corps stand on the site of the burned buildings. The hospital is situated about half a mile across the railway bridge to the northeast of the town, and is well isolated. Two hundred and fifty wounded men are still on the hospital ship Relief which lies here. All are recovering rapidly.

The volunteer regiments which arrived here since the fighting ceased are standing the climate remarkably well. The men seem greatly disappointed because they arrived too late to share in the battle, but they are seeing plenty of the real hardships of the campaign.

The daily downpour of rain last week rendered the camp very uncomfortable. The rife-pits and tents and the grade were soaked with water, the miserable yellow clay of the Cuban making marching almost an impossibility. The narrow trail from Juraguá is cut to pieces by a constant stream of water, and it takes hours for a supply wagon, drawn by four of the half-starved, exhausted horses, to make the 12 mile trip.

The troops looked to be in good condition by daylight, but when the swift tropical nights come on, damp and cloudy, with the men shivering miserably about the spottering campfires, or searching about for dry places for their blankets, the great mass of troops seems little like a victorious army. The men do not complain, but endure the wet sleeping quarters cheerfully.

Scarcely a warship remains off Santiago harbor entrance, although the whole fleet is holding positions directly opposite the deserted fort at Aguaduro. This afternoon the New York, flying the blue flag of the admiral, lay anchored with her bow almost on Aguaduro beach, while, clustered about her, were the other ships of the great squadron, the Brooklyn lying a little further out to sea.

The rife-pits which crown the bluff were deserted, the Spanish soldiers lounging unattended arms, and the band playing national airs. The light battery fired a salute of 21 guns. Perfect order is being maintained by the municipal government. The distress is very great, but there is little sickness in the town. Scarcely any yellow fever. A small gunboat and about 200 seamen left by Cervera have surrendered to me. Obstructions are being removed from the mouth of the harbor. Upon coming into the city I discovered a perfect entanglement of defenses. Fighting as the Spanish did the first day, it would have cost 5000 lives to have taken it. Battalions of Spanish troops have been depicted arms since daylight in our army, over which I have a guard. General Tora formally surrendered the Plaza and all stores at 9 A. M. W. R. SHAFER, Major-General.

BOHEMIA MINES.

Fine Prospect at Every Mine Now Worked.

Cottage Grove Leader. The Laura Group, owned by the LeRoy Bros. on Champion Creek, is a fine prospect and would make a fine claim for a company to operate. It shows from 12 to 40 feet of fine ledge at the surface, and the quartz from the different levels is magnificent. It has ample water power for a stamp mill, and splendid timber covers the claim. It is also on the same vein as the famous Bruneau, Jennings property. The boys may well be proud of it. They also have several other good claims on Hard Scrabble trail, which are sure to turn out good ore.

Considerable work is going on at the mines in Bohemia. The saw mill is nearing completion, and the ground has been broken for another 10-stamp mill at the Music mine.

The road to the mines is being pushed as fast as possible, but must necessarily be very slow, on account of so much rock. It is being pushed from both ends, and will be completed sometime in August. When completed it will be a very fine road with a very easy grade.

The Noonday mine is putting out its usual amount of ore. They have just finished an air shaft, to give better ventilation.

The Champion mine has placed a new concentrator in their 10-stamp mill and will handle their products themselves. The Music mine is putting out some beautiful quartz.

The Griffith & Reed, and the Zinker Bros. are fine prospects. Harlow Bros. are pushing the work on their new stamp mill.

Series of Disasters in Alaska Waters.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 18.—It was reported at St. Michaels on June 27 that the steamer Conemaugh, from Seattle, was overtaken in Bering sea by a hurricane, and that her tow, a river steamer laden with stores, was lost. Two barges towed by a steamer of the Alaska Commercial Company were lost in the same storm. They cost about $20,000. A similar fate has overtaken a new river boat towed by the National City. The loss in the last case was $50,000.

WELLMAN'S EXPEDITION.

Fridolf Sails Northward from Vardoe Today.

Vardoe, July 16.—The steam whaler Fridolf, having on board Walter Wellman and the members of his expedition to Greenland, arrived here today for coal, having left Solomula, a town near Archangel, on July 5. The party sails northwest tomorrow. On July 11, in latitude 77 north, 17 miles south of Franz Josef land, heavy pack ice was found. While at Archangel, the governor of that place refused to allow the Fridolf and a Spanish ship the hostilities between the United States and Spain would cause an outbreak between the crews of the two ships, although the Spanish ship was a trader, and the armament of Mr. Wellman's steamer only consisted of a harpoon.
